

CHRISTIANSON STRESSES ECONOMY AS ISSUE

OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR RE-ELECTION AT HUTCHINSON

"TO CONTINUE IN FUTURE THE POLICIES FOLLOWED IN THE PAST"

ACCORDED JUBILANT GREETING BY REPUBLICANS FROM ALL OVER STATE

Hutchinson, Minn., Oct. 3.—(UP)—Governor Theodore Christianson opened his campaign for re-election here last night with an address in which he promised to continue the policies of his past two terms in which he pointed out economy as the dominant note.

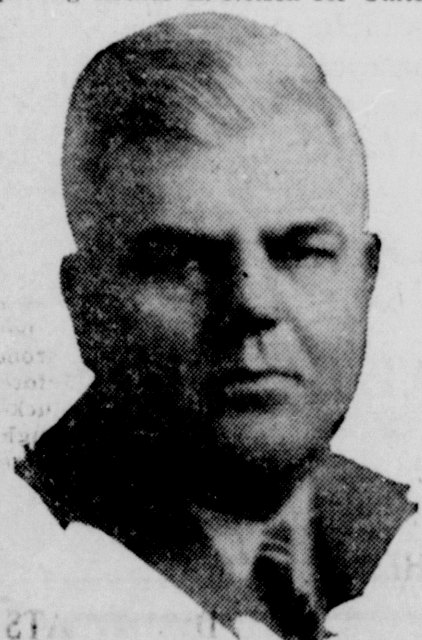

The governor declared before an audience of 2,000 that "all my promises of this and other campaigns may be resolved in one—to continue in the future the policies I have followed in the past." He gave his first definite pledge as the continuance of his economy program.

Christianson was accorded a jubilant greeting here by republicans from every section of the state, including 100 persons from Dawson, his former home. He was preceded on the speakers' stand by August H. Andresen, candidate for re-election as congressman from the third district, and by Arthur E. Nelson, republican candidate for United States senator.

Fourfold Pledge

A fourfold pledge was given to the people of Minnesota by Governor Theodore Christianson Tuesday night, in his keynote address delivered in the armory at Hutchinson. First, a pledge to continue the economy program. Second, to strengthen the budget system where necessary. Third, to conserve the natural resources of the state. Fourth, to promote the cause of agriculture.

In discussing state issues, the Governor gave figures to show the beneficial results to the taxpayers of Minnesota from his administration. In national affairs he again stated his support of Herbert Hoover, declaring, "The country needs the services of its greatest constructive political leader and its most outstanding administrator." He stated he is supporting Arthur E. Nelson for United States senator.

GOVERNOR CHRISTIANSON

States Senator as a "fearless, two-fisted fighter who will be in position to get economic justice for the Middle West." He pointed out the menace of Democratic tinkering with the tariff on Minnesota farm products.

"Minnesota wants the St. Lawrence waterway," he said, "and she will not be satisfied with a ditch from Oswego to Albany on which the Democratic candidate for the Presidency has proposed to carry the commerce of forty millions of land-locked people."

Reporting first on the issue which has been the keystone of his administrative structure the Governor announced: "My first definite pledge tonight is that the economy program will continue. If I am re-elected I shall continue the policy of eliminating and reducing expenditures whenever it can be done without injury to the state, of curtailing public indebtedness, and of limiting state taxes."

"The economy program has brought the results in this State that were promised for it. It has halted the biennial increases in appropriations. It has brought about a reduction of the State's indebtedness, which will result in a reduction of taxes. State appropriations, which aggregated $18,000,000 in 1915 reached $40,000,000 in 1923. Through the co-operation of the Legislature and exercise of the executive veto, they were held down to $40,000,000 in 1925, and again in 1927. The fact that although prior to my administration appropriations increased from $4,000,000 to $9,000,000 every time the Legislature met, there has been no increase since that time; is sufficient answer to those who say that the economy program has not saved the taxpayers' money."

"During the same period there has been a reduction of the State's debt from $10,000,000 to $4,000,000."

Absorbing Story of Graft Woven Into N. Y. Case

PARACHUTE JUMP PROVES THRILLING, CARRIES DEATH

Dalton, Neb., Oct. 3.—(UP)—A parachute jump, that had been advertised as the most thrilling exhibition of the fall festival here, more than bore out expectations when the chute failed to open and Captain Ace Gray fell to his death. Gray, known as the "one-armed jumper of Scottsbluff," dropped from a plane 2,500 feet in the air.

AMERICAN MAIL TRAIN BANDIT FACES SENTENCE

DEATH STARES JOHN GIBBS, OF LOS ANGELES, IN THE FACE

ROBBED CANADIAN RAILWAY'S TRAIN OF $30,000 TO $50,000

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 3.—(UP)—A young American mail train bandit faced a possible death sentence today after rifling registered sacks of a Canadian National railway train as it sped between Windsor and Chatham, Ont. The loot was estimated at between $30,000 and $50,000, a larger part of which was recovered.

A "dumb break" was blamed by the bandit, John Gibbs, of Los Angeles, for his capture by American immigration officers two hours after the daring hold-up.

Gibbs' crime is punishable by death, although this penalty never has been invoked in Ontario. Officials said that as an example to mail train bandits it might be asked in this case.

"The job was easy as pie," Gibbs boasted to his captors. "I boarded the train at Chatham, quietly worked my way to the mail car. The door was open and in I went."

With a pistol, which police found was loaded with soft-nosed bullets, Gibbs forced three mail clerks to open registered packages, stuffing the contents in his grimy shirt.

When the train stopped at a siding 10 miles west of Chatham, the bandit leaped out. Then, in a businesslike manner, he climbed back aboard the train rods.

Consequently he arrived at the next station with news of the robbery, which was telegraphed back to Chatham and on to Windsor. He continued to Windsor and boarded a train ferry bound for Detroit.

The "dumb luck" occurred on the ferry. A brakeman saw the bandit and reported to immigration officers. Neither the train crew nor the officers were aware at the time that a robbery had occurred.

They surprised the bandit and overpowered him before he could draw a gun. He was taken to headquarters and readily confessed.

Rail Wage Commission to Hear Witnesses

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(UP)—The emergency commission, appointed by President Coolidge to investigate a wage dispute between operators of 47 western railroads and 70,000 trainmen and conductors, will hear witnesses presented by the contesting parties today.

NINE PERSONS, WITH YUGO-SLAVIAN OFFICIAL, KILLED

Athens, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Nine persons, including the Yugo-Slavian vice governor, were killed in a fight between Yugo-Slavians and Albanians on the frontier near Scutari, according to advices reaching here today.

Eight Yugo-Slavians and one Albanian were killed. The fight arose after the chief of an Albanian clan had been murdered. His relatives crossed the border demanding justice.

Vienna, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Five Gypsies, including three women and one child, were killed in the Czechoslovakian village of Podedin after a fight with villagers, according to advices received from Pressburg.

Seven other Gypsies were wounded and taken to hospitals while the encampment was destroyed.

Villagers, led by the mayor, raided the camp as a reprisal for incendiarism on the part of the Gypsies.

Dutch Steamer Celaeno in Distress Sends Call for Help, Succumbing to High Seas

U. S. LINE SHIP AMERICA GOES TO AID

POSITION OF SINKING VESSEL IN THE ATLANTIC IS DOUBTFUL

BELIEVED MID-ATLANTIC, 1,000 MILES FROM CAPE RACE

Hoboken, N. J., Oct. 3.—(UP)—The offices of the U. S. line reported today they had received a message from their steamer America in which the latter reported it was going to the aid of the Dutch steamer Celaeno, reported sinking.

The message said the America's position at that time was lat. 46 degrees 10 minutes n. and long. 34 degrees and 30 w. and continued, "proceeding Dutch steamer Celaeno in distress and sinking in n. w. gale in a high rough sea. Their position doubtful but have bearings on radio compass."

The position given is in mid-Atlantic, approximately 1,000 miles east by south of Cape Race, N. F.

New York, Oct. 3.—The Fort Terminal station of the Radio Corporation of America said today it had received a radio message that the steamer Celaeno was sinking in mid-ocean and asked immediate assistance.

The message was described as one relayed from the White Star liner Laurentic and read: "Come immediately. Down in hurricane," and described the ship's position as 48 degrees and 59 minutes n., and 33 degrees and 52 minutes w.

A later report said the steamer America was going to the vessel's assistance but other than that information as to the vessel's position could not be learned.

New York, Oct. 3.—Radio reports received at the offices of the U. S. steamship line today said the Dutch freighter Celaeno was sinking in mid-ocean at a point approximately 1,160 miles east by north of Cape Race, N. F.

The report came from the line's steamer America which said it was speeding to the ship's rescue although it was at that time approximately 280 miles n. by e. of the Celaeno.

First reports of the ship's condition came from the White Star liner Laurentic, proceeding from Montreal to Liverpool. This message from the Celaeno was brief and said the ship was sinking and asked for immediate assistance. It gave position as 46 degrees 10 minutes n. and 34 degrees and 30 minutes w.

Later a report from the America said it was proceeding to the Celaeno's assistance with all speed. Its report said the Dutch vessel was sinking in a northwest gale in a high rough sea.

ANOTHER VESSEL SIGNALS FOR HELP

New York, Oct. 3.—The steam trawler Fillet was reported sinking rapidly with a heavy list today off Cape Cod, Mass. It sent an S. O. S. that it could not remain afloat more than 15 minutes.

At the same time the American-Hawaiian steamer American flashed word to shore stations that it was steaming to the Fillet's aid and would reach the distressed vessel in a few minutes.

The Fillet's distress signals were picked up here by station WOR and by the Bush terminal station of the Radio Marine Corporation of America.

AUTHORITIES SEEK MOTIVE FOR BOMBING

Minneapolis, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Authorities today sought a motive for the bombing last night of the home of Theodore Bolnick, employee of a manufacturing company. The bomb shattered the rear of the house but Bolnick, his wife and three children escaped uninjured.

FORESTRY TALK OVER RADIO TODAY BY JOHN I. LEVIN

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—In the first of a series of 10 radio talks which will be broadcast over KS TP, John I. Levin, secretary of the Minnesota reforestation commission, today declared that the first problem in formulating a forestry plan is to consider proper use of available lands. Levin said all land was not suitable for forestry planting and the commission must first learn what portion of the public domain is suitable for this basic industry.

ARGUES MERGER WILL BE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

D. F. LYONS, GENERAL COUNSEL OF NORTHERN PACIFIC, BEFORE I. C. C.

ADVOCATES UNION OF NORTHERN PACIFIC AND GREAT NORTHERN

Washington, Oct. 3.—(UP)—D. F. Lyons, general counsel of the Northern Pacific railway, argued before the interstate commerce commission today that merger of the Northern Pacific with the Great Northern railroad would be in the public interest.

Lyons said benefits to the public, provided the commission authorizes the unification, include:

1. A savings of $10,000,000 a year in operating expenses which could be used to make up deficits of the short lines.
2. Stockholders of the two Northers would get a better and surer return on their investment.
3. Result in increased expenditures by the "Great Northern Pacific," the proposed unified railroad name, in colonization, agricultural and industrial development work.
4. Result in larger earnings allowing the roads voluntarily to make reductions where needed or continued abnormally low rates.
5. In the study of rate adjustments in the northwest the interstate commerce commission would give consideration to the greater earnings of the Northern Pacific.

"One very real way in which the public would share in the $10,000,000 savings would be by the acceptance by the Minneapolis & St. Louis security holders of the offer of the

ALFRED E. SMITH AGAIN BECOMES 'THE GOVERNOR'

DROPS FOR FEW DAYS ROLE AS ACTIVE DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

RESTS AMONG THE HOME FOLKS AFTER 6,000-MILE WESTERN CAMPAIGN

By THOMAS L. STOKES (United Press Staff Correspondent) Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Alfred E. Smith became "the governor" again today, and will drop for a few days his role as active democratic presidential candidate while he rests among the home folk from his rather trying 6,000-mile western campaign trip.

He wandered about the executive mansion today, where he has lived for eight years, poking about as does any American citizen when he gets back home after a long trip.

The democratic candidate and Mrs. Smith had seen many larger crowds, heard many other bands play "The Sidewalks of New York" in the last two weeks, but on their arrival here last night the crowds and the music had a different appeal. They rode to the mansion with the shouts of the home folks in their ears.

The first thing the candidate did when he got to the mansion was to play a bit with his grandchildren, and then he went out to the menagerie, turned on the electric lights, and there got a welcome from his dogs.

The democratic candidate will remain here for the rest of the week. He said no definite plans have been made for his next campaign trip, which will begin next week. He probably will go to New York the first of next week for a day or two, to confer with democratic leaders there.

His next trip will carry him into the middlewest and back through the border states.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 3.—(UP)—Clarence W. Barron, editor of the Wall Street Journal, died at a sanitarium here last night after an illness of three weeks.

He had been unconscious for two weeks.

Northern lines to take over the Minneapolis & St. Louis," Lyons said.

Walker D. Hines, counsel for the Northern lines, was to present a second argument in favor of the merger this afternoon.

NAVY SECRETARY SEES THE SIGHTS

Secretary of the Navy Curtis Wilbur (left) points to Chicago's skyline and says, "Now that's a wonderful view," while yachting on Lake Michigan with Admiral T. T. Craven (center) and Eugene McDonald. On his brief visit en route from San Francisco to Washington, Secretary Wilbur said, "Chicago is the miracle town of the country."

COL. LINDBERGH VOICES SUPPORT OF HOOVER

Washington, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, the flying ace, today wired Herbert Hoover he would support the republican presidential ticket in the November elections.

Lindbergh said he believed the election of Hoover was of supreme importance to the nation.

GENE TUNNEY, MISS LAUDER MARRIED TODAY

CIVIL CEREMONY TAKES PLACE IN DRAWING ROOM OF ROME HOTEL

ONLY A FEW FRIENDS AND ITALIAN OFFICIALS WITNESS CEREMONY

Rome, Oct. 3.—(UP)—In a simple service, before only a few friends, Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight boxing champion, was married today to Miss Mary Josephine Lauder, American society girl and heiress.

The civil ceremony took place in a drawing room on the third floor of the Hotel De Russie. Only a few friends and Italian officials watched as Tunney—the former office clerk and marine—was married to the girl who had been his inspiration when he started to amass a fortune as a boxer.

Dr. Carnes Weeks acted as best man while Mrs. Edwin Dewing, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. George Lauder, Jr., gave the bride away.

Tunney wore a blue serge suit. Some of the guests wore morning coats, while others were in full evening dress.

The bride was strikingly dressed in yellow velvet. Her hair was drawn close to her head and covered with a network of pearls. She carried a bouquet of jasmine.

The drawing room in which the civil service was held was fitted with furniture from the sixteenth century. There were a desk and several chairs, while in the center hung a Venetian chandelier.

Those who accompanied Miss Lauder on her trip from the United States, with the addition of Thornton Wilder, the author, James D. Mahany, Tunney's private secretary, and several others numbering about 25 in all, with the Italian officials were the only members of the wedding party.

The ceremony was brief. An Italian official read the passages of the marriage law and outlined the duties of both the wife and the husband toward each other.

"Do you take Mr. Tunney as your husband?" he asked.

She replied in a low voice to the affirmative.

"Do you take Miss Lauder as your wife?" the official asked Tunney.

Tunney replied with a firm "yes." The obligations of the marriage contract under Italian law then were read to the couple, now man and wife. Tunney was designated as the "head of the family" and his bride was absolved to accompany him wherever he considers it suitable to fix his residence.

The couple entered the wedding apartment for the ceremony at 12:25 P. M. As soon as the civil proceedings had ended, they passed into an adjoining room where they were united by Monsignor Joseph A. Breslin, vice-director of the American College in Rome, by the rites of the Roman Catholic church.

As Tunney's bride is a non-Catholic, the religious ceremony was performed by special dispensation of the church. It consisted of the customary Catholic marriage ceremony, except that at its conclusion, the bride formally signed a promise not to interfere with her husband in the exercise of his religion, and to permit all children to be brought up Catholics.

The two stood before Monsignor Breslin, who was Tunney's pastor in New York, and joined hands while he read the ceremony over them. The guests stood about, near the walls.

When Monsignor Breslin had finished, the entire ceremony was over. The guests crowded around and congratulated the couple. All then went into an adjoining room, where a wedding breakfast was served.

Plans of Tunney and his bride for

$30,000,000 QUEENS SEWER TRIAL PROCEEDS

PROVES NEW YORK'S LATEST ADMINISTRATIVE SCANDAL

TWO DEFENDANTS IN CASE SIT CALMLY, WITHOUT ANXIETY

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—An absorbing story of graft, as it is done on a gigantic scale and in America's greatest city, steadily is being woven in the trial of New York's latest administrative scandals.

As the $30,000,000 Queens sewer case swung into its second week of testimony today, the state found the background of its charges firmly laid. Its job now will be to prove two former high officials of Queens borough guilty of conspiracy—a task to which the odds are heavily against.

Calmly and with little show of anxiety, the two defendants in the case sit in the antiquated Queens county courtroom and watch former District Attorney Emory Buckner wade through a mass of documentary evidence and bring forth clear-cut accusations against them. They are listening to the story behind a program of sewer construction amounting to more than $29,500,000 of which the state claims that at least $8,000,000 was unalloyed graft.

Maurice E. Connolly, former president of Queens borough, and Frederick Seely, his chief construction engineer, definitely have been linked, in the last week, with contracts awarded illicitly under the New York state laws.

The third chief figure in the sewer scandal, John M. Phillips, so-called sewer pipe czar, has been the object of most of the charges. He died before the trial began.

The state has sought to show that Phillips, Connolly and Seely formed a triumvirate in 1917 to control the awarding of contracts for the huge amount of sewer work in Queens. Connolly and Seely were to word the specifications in such a way that they fitted a patented lock-joint pipe controlled by Phillips, but no other type. Phillips was to get whatever price he asked for his pipe and divide the profits with Seely and Connolly.

It is known that Phillips, known as "Gentleman Jack" among his political allies, amassed a fortune from the Queens sewer contracts before his death. The problem before Buckner now is to prove that the borough president and engineer shared these profits.

WHITE CONTINUES BAITING DEMOCRATS

Emporia, Kan., Oct. 3.—(UP)—William Allen White, Emporia editor, continued his baiting of democratic candidates today with the declaration that Senator Joseph T. Robinson, democratic vice presidential candidate, "wears the harassed look of an Anti-Saloon league preacher at a bartenders' convention."

Back from a vacation in Europe, White whistled cheerfully when word reached him that Senator Robinson was answering his statements, and he again insisted that the senator misquoted him.

HELD FOR FATAL SHOOTING OF ST. PAUL RESTAURANT MAN

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Lester McLane, 28, was held today for the fatal shooting of Alex Carveau, restaurant operator, here last night.

The shooting was said to have occurred after Carveau had started to take McLane home after the latter had waved a revolver and threatened customers in Carveau's establishment. His body was found near McLane's home.

McLane refused to discuss the shooting.

their honeymoon were kept a close secret. It was believed they would try to slip away to some secluded villa where they would be safe from intrusion of the curious.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 28, Number 103

Full Leased Wire Service of United Press Association

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1928

Printed on Paper Made in Brainerd

Price Three Cents

CHRISTIANSON STRESSES ECONOMY AS ISSUE

OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR RE-ELECTION AT HUTCHINSON

"TO CONTINUE IN FUTURE THE POLICIES FOLLOWED IN THE PAST"

ACCORDED JUBILANT GREETING BY REPUBLICANS FROM ALL OVER STATE

Hutchinson, Minn., Oct. 3.—(UP)—Governor Theodore Christianson opened his campaign for re-election here last night with an address in which he promised to continue the policies of his past two terms in which he pointed out economy as the dominant note.

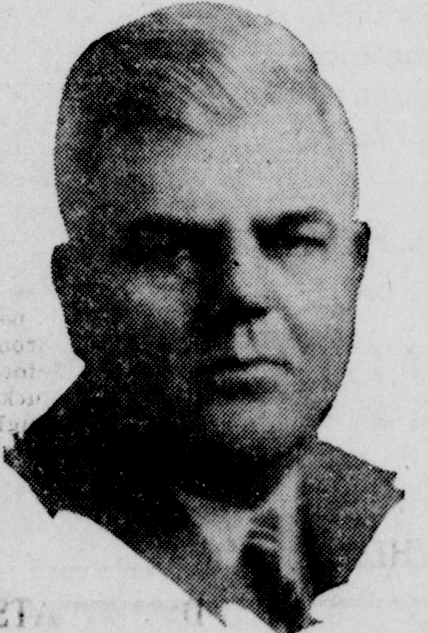

The governor declared before an audience of 2,000 that "all my promises of this and other campaigns may be resolved in one—to continue in the future the policies I have followed in the past." He gave his first definite pledge as the continuance of his economy program.

Christianson was accorded a jubilant greeting here by republicans from every section of the state, including 100 persons from Dawson, his former home. He was preceded on the speakers' stand by August H. Andresen, candidate for re-election as congressman from the third district, and by Arthur E. Nelson, republican candidate for United States senator.

Fourfold Pledge

A fourfold pledge was given to the people of Minnesota by Governor Theodore Christianson Tuesday night, in his keynote address delivered in the armory at Hutchinson. First, a pledge to continue the economy program. Second, to strengthen the budget system where necessary. Third, to conserve the natural resources of the state. Fourth, to promote the cause of agriculture.

In discussing state issues, the Governor gave figures to show the beneficial results to the taxpayers of Minnesota from his administration. In national affairs he again stated his support of Herbert Hoover, declaring, "The country needs the services of its greatest constructive political leader and its most outstanding administrator." He stated he is supporting Arthur E. Nelson for United States senator.

GOVERNOR CHRISTIANSON

States Senator as a "fearless, two-fisted fighter who will be in position to get economic justice for the Middle West." He pointed out the menace of Democratic tinkering with the tariff on Minnesota farm products.

"Minnesota wants the St. Lawrence waterway," he said, "and she will not be satisfied with a ditch from Oswego to Albany on which the Democratic candidate for the Presidency has proposed to carry the commerce of forty millions of land-locked people."

Reporting first on the issue which has been the keystone of his administrative structure, the Governor announced: "My first definite pledge tonight is that the economy program will continue. If I am re-elected I shall continue the policy of eliminating and reducing expenditures whenever it can be done without injury to the state, of curtailing public indebtedness, and of limiting state taxes."

"The economy program has brought the results in this state that were promised for it. It has halted the biennial increases in appropriations. It has brought about a reduction of the state's indebtedness, which will result in a reduction of taxes. State appropriations, which aggregated $18,000,000 in 1915 reached $40,000,000 in 1923. Through the co-operation of the Legislature and exercise of the executive veto, they were held down to $40,000,000 in 1925, and again in 1927. The fact that although prior to my administration appropriations increased from $4,000,000 to $9,000,000 every time the Legislature met, there has been no increase since that time, is sufficient answer to those who say that the economy program has not saved the taxpayers' money."

"During the same period there has been no increase in the state's debt."

(Continued on page 4)

Absorbing Story of Graft Woven Into N. Y. Case

PARACHUTE JUMP PROVES THRILLING, CARRIES DEATH

Dalton, Neb., Oct. 3.—(UP)—A parachute jump, that had been advertised as the most thrilling exhibition of the fall festival here, more than bore out expectations when the chute failed to open and Captain Ace Gray fell to his death. Gray, known as the "one-armed jumper of Scottsbluff," dropped from a plane 2,500 feet in the air.

AMERICAN MAIL TRAIN BANDIT FACES SENTENCE

DEATH STARES JOHN GIBBS, OF LOS ANGELES, IN THE FACE

ROBBED CANADIAN RAILWAYS TRAIN OF $30,000 TO $50,000

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 3.—(UP)—A young American mail train bandit faced a possible death sentence today after rifling registered sacks of a Canadian National railways train as it sped between Windsor and Chatham, Ont. The loot was estimated at between $30,000 and $50,000, a larger part of which was recovered. A "dumb break" was blamed by the bandit, John Gibbs, of Los Angeles, for his capture by American immigration officers two hours after the daring hold-up.

Gibbs' crime is punishable by death, although this penalty never has been invoked in Ontario. Officials said that as an example to mail train bandits it might be asked in this case.

"The job was easy as pie," Gibbs boasted to his captors. "I boarded the train at Chatham, quietly worked my way to the mail car. The door was open and in I went."

With a pistol, which police found was loaded with soft-nosed bullets, Gibbs forced three mail clerks to open registered packages, stuffing the contents in his grimy shirt.

When the train stopped at a siding 10 miles west of Chatham, the bandit leaped out. Then, in a businesslike manner, he climbed back aboard the train rods.

Consequently he arrived at the next station with news of the robbery, which was telegraphed back to Chatham and on to Windsor. He continued to Windsor and boarded a train ferry bound for Detroit.

The "dumb luck" occurred on the ferry. A brakeman saw the bandit and reported to immigration officers. Neither the train crew nor the officers were aware at the time that a robbery had occurred.

They surprised the bandit and overpowered him before he could draw a gun. He was taken to headquarters and readily confessed.

Rail Wage Commission to Hear Witnesses

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(UP)—The emergency commission, appointed by President Coolidge to investigate a wage dispute between operators of 47 western railroads and 70,000 trainmen and conductors, will hear witnesses presented by the contesting parties today.

NINE PERSONS, WITH YUGO-SLAVIAN OFFICIAL, KILLED

Athens, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Nine persons, including the Yugo-Slavian vice governor, were killed in a fight between Yugo-Slavians and Albanians on the frontier near Scutari, according to advices reaching here today.

Eight Yugo-Slavians and one Albanian were killed. The fight arose after the chief of an Albanian clan had been murdered. His relatives crossed the border demanding justice.

Vienna, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Five Gypsies, including three women and one child, were killed in the Czecho-Slovakian village of Podedin after a fight with villagers, according to advices received from Pressburg.

Seven other Gypsies were wounded and taken to hospitals while the camp was destroyed.

Villagers, led by the mayor, raided the camp as a reprisal for incendiarism on the part of the Gypsies.

Dutch Steamer Celaeno in Distress Sends Call for Help, Succumbing to High Seas

U. S. LINE SHIP AMERICA GOES TO AID

POSITION OF SINKING VESSEL IN THE ATLANTIC IS DOUBTFUL

BELIEVED MID-ATLANTIC, 1,000 MILES FROM CAPE RACE

Hoboken, N. J., Oct. 3.—(UP)—The offices of the U. S. line reported today they had received a message from their steamer America in which the latter reported it was going to the aid of the Dutch steamer Celaeno, reported sinking.

The message said the America's position at that time was lat. 46 degrees 10 minutes n. and long. 34 degrees and 30 w. and continued, "proceeding Dutch steamer Celaeno in distress and sinking in n. w. gale in a high rough sea. Their position doubtful but have bearings on radio compass."

The position given is in mid-Atlantic, approximately 1,000 miles east by south of Cape Race, N. F.

New York, Oct. 3.—The Port Terminal station of the Radio Corporation of America said today it had received a radio message that the steamer Celaeno was sinking in mid-ocean and asked immediate assistance.

The message was described as one relayed from the White Star liner Laurentic and read: "Come immediately. Down in hurricane," and described the ship's position as 48 degrees and 59 minutes n. and 33 degrees and 52 minutes w.

A later report said the steamer America was going to the vessel's assistance but other than that information as to the vessel's position could not be learned.

New York, Oct. 3.—Radio reports received at the offices of the U. S. steamship line today said the Dutch freighter Celaeno was sinking in mid-ocean at a point approximately 1,160 miles east by north of Cape Race, N. F.

The report came from the line's steamer America which said it was speeding to the ship's rescue although it was at that time approximately 280 miles n. by e. of the Celaeno.

First reports of the ship's condition came from the White Star liner Laurentic, proceeding from Montreal to Liverpool. This message from the Celaeno was brief and said the ship was sinking and asked for immediate assistance. It gave position as 46 degrees 10 minutes n. and 34 degrees and 30 minutes w.

Later a report from the America said it was proceeding to the Celaeno's assistance with all speed. Its report said the Dutch vessel was sinking in a northwest gale in a high rough sea.

ANOTHER VESSEL SIGNALS FOR HELP

New York, Oct. 3.—The steam trawler Fillet was reported sinking rapidly with a heavy list today off Cape Cod, Mass. It sent an S. O. S. that it could not remain afloat more than 15 minutes.

At the same time the American-Hawaiian steamer American flashed word to shore stations that it was steaming to the Fillet's aid and would reach the distressed vessel in a few minutes.

The Fillet's distress signals were picked up here by station WOR and by the Bush terminal station of the Radio Marine Corporation of America.

AUTHORITIES SEEK MOTIVE FOR BOMBING

Minneapolis, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Authorities today sought a motive for the bombing last night of the home of Theodore Bolnick, employee of a manufacturing company. The bomb shattered the rear of the house but Bolnick, his wife and three children escaped uninjured.

FORESTRY TALK OVER RADIO TODAY BY JOHN I. LEVIN

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—In the first of a series of 10 radio talks which will be broadcast over KS TP, John I. Levin, secretary of the Minnesota reforestation commission, today declared that the first problem in formulating a forestry plan is to consider proper use of available lands. Levin said all land was not suitable for forestry planting and the commission must first learn what portion of the public domain is suitable for this basic industry.

ARGUES MERGER WILL BE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

D. F. LYONS, GENERAL COUNSEL OF NORTHERN PACIFIC, BEFORE I. C. C.

ADVOCATES UNION OF NORTHERN PACIFIC AND GREAT NORTHERN

Washington, Oct. 3.—(UP)—D. F. Lyons, general counsel of the Northern Pacific railway, argued before the interstate commerce commission today that merger of the Northern Pacific with the Great Northern railroad would be in the public interest. Lyons said benefits to the public, provided the commission authorizes the unification, include:

1. A savings of $10,000,000 a year in operating expenses which could be used to make up deficits of the short lines.

2. Stockholders of the two Northerns would get a better and surer return on their investment.

3. Result in increased expenditures by the "Great Northern Pacific," the proposed unified railroad name, in colonization, agricultural and industrial development work.

4. Result in larger earnings allowing the roads voluntarily to make reductions where needed or continued abnormally low rates.

5. In the study of rate adjustments in the northwest the interstate commerce commission would give consideration to the greater earnings of the Northern Pacific.

"One very real way in which the public would share in the $10,000,000 savings would be by the acceptance by the Minneapolis & St. Louis security holders of the offer of the

ALFRED E. SMITH AGAIN BECOMES 'THE GOVERNOR'

DROPS FOR FEW DAYS ROLE AS ACTIVE DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

RESTS AMONG THE HOME FOLKS AFTER 6,000-MILE WEST-ERN CAMPAIGN

By THOMAS L. STOKES (United Press Staff Correspondent) Albany, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Alfred E. Smith became "the governor" again today, and will drop for a few days his role as active democratic presidential candidate while he rests among the home folk from his rather trying 6,000-mile western campaign trip.

He wandered about the executive mansion today, where he has lived for eight years, poking about as does any American citizen when he gets back home after a long trip.

The democratic candidate and Mrs. Smith had seen many larger crowds, heard many other bands play "The Sidewalks of New York" in the last two weeks, but on their arrival here last night the crowds and the music had a different appeal. They rode to the mansion with the shouts of the home folks in their ears.

The first thing the candidate did when he got to the mansion was to play a bit with his grandchildren, and then he went out to the menagerie, turned on the electric lights, and there got a welcome from his dogs.

The democratic candidate will remain here for the rest of the week. He said no definite plans have been made for his next campaign trip, which will begin next week. He probably will go to New York the first of next week for a day or two, to confer with democratic leaders there.

His next trip will carry him into the midwest and back through the border states.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 3.—(UP)—Clarence W. Barron, editor of the Wall Street Journal, died at a sanitarium here last night after an illness of three weeks.

He had been unconscious for two weeks.

Northern lines to take over the Minneapolis & St. Louis, Lyons said.

Walker D. Hines, counsel for the Northern lines, was to present a second argument in favor of the merger this afternoon.

NAVY SECRETARY SEES THE SIGHTS

Secretary of the Navy Curtis Wilbur (left) points to Chicago's skyline and says, "Now that's a wonderful view," while yachting on Lake Michigan with Admiral T. T. Craven (center) and Eugene McDonald. On his brief visit en route from San Francisco to Washington, Secretary Wilbur said, "Chicago is the miracle town of the country."

COL. LINDBERGH VOICES SUPPORT OF HOOVER

Washington, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, the flying ace, today wired Herbert Hoover he would support the republican presidential ticket in the November elections. Lindbergh said he believed the election of Hoover was of supreme importance to the nation.

GENE TUNNEY, MISS LAUDER MARRIED TODAY

CIVIL CEREMONY TAKES PLACE IN DRAWING ROOM OF ROME HOTEL

ONLY A FEW FRIENDS AND ITALIAN OFFICIALS WITNESS CEREMONY

Rome, Oct. 3.—(UP)—In a simple service, before only a few friends, Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight boxing champion, was married today to Miss Mary Josephine Lauder, American society girl and heiress.

The civil ceremony took place in a drawing room on the third floor of the Hotel De Russie. Only a few friends and Italian officials watched as Tunney—the former office clerk and marine—was married to the girl who had been his inspiration when he started to amass a fortune as a boxer.

Dr. Carnes Weeks acted as best man while Mrs. Edwin Dewing, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. George Lauder, Jr., gave the bride away.

Tunney wore a blue serge suit. Some of the guests wore morning coats, while others were in full evening dress.

The bride was strikingly dressed in yellow velvet. Her hair was drawn close to her head and covered with a network of pearls. She carried a bouquet of jasmine.

The drawing room in which the civil service was held was fitted with furniture from the sixteenth century. There were a desk and several chairs, while in the center hung a Venetian chandelier.

Those who accompanied Miss Lauder on her trip from the United States, with the addition of Thornton Wilder, the author, James D. Mahany, Tunney's private secretary, and several others numbering about 25 in all, with the Italian officials were the only members of the wedding party.

The ceremony was brief. An Italian official read the passages of the marriage law and outlined the duties of both the wife and the husband toward each other.

"Do you take Mr. Tunney as your husband?" he asked. She replied in a low voice to the affirmative.

"Do you take Miss Lauder as your wife?" the official asked Tunney.

Tunney replied with a firm "yes." The obligations of the marriage contract under Italian law then were read to the couple, now man and wife. Tunney was designated as the "head of the family" and his bride was abjured to accompany him wherever he considers it suitable to fix his residence.

The couple entered the wedding apartment for the ceremony at 12:25 P. M. As soon as the civil proceedings had ended, they passed into an adjoining room where they were united by Monsignor Joseph A. Breslin, vice-director of the American College in Rome, by the rites of the Roman Catholic church.

As Tunney's bride is a non-Catholic, the religious ceremony was performed by special dispensation of the church. It consisted of the customary Catholic marriage ceremony, except that at its conclusion, the bride formally signed a promise not to interfere with her husband in the exercise of his religion, and to permit all children to be brought up Catholics.

The two stood before Monsignor Breslin, who was Tunney's pastor in New York, and joined hands while he read the ceremony over them. The guests stood about, near the walls.

When Monsignor Breslin had finished, the entire ceremony was over. The guests crowded around and congratulated the couple. All then went into an adjoining room, where a wedding breakfast was served. Plans of Tunney and his bride for

$30,000,000 QUEENS SEWER TRIAL PROCEEDS

PROVES NEW YORK'S LATEST ADMINISTRATIVE SCANDAL

TWO DEFENDANTS IN CASE SIT CALMLY, WITHOUT ANXIETY

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—An absorbing story of graft, as it is done on a gigantic scale and in America's greatest city, steadily is being woven in the trial of New York's latest administrative scandals.

As the $30,000,000 Queens sewer case swung into its second week of testimony today, the state found the background of its charges firmly laid. Its job now will be to prove two former high officials of Queens borough guilty of conspiracy—a task to which the odds are heavily against.

Calmly and with little show of anxiety, the two defendants in the case sit in the antiquated Queens county courtroom and watch former District Attorney Emory Buckner wade through a mass of documentary evidence and bring forth clear-cut accusations against them. They are listening to the story behind a program of sewer construction amounting to more than $29,500,000 of which the state claims that at least $8,000,000 was unalloyed graft.

Maurice E. Connolly, former president of Queens borough, and Frederick Seely, his chief construction engineer, definitely have been linked, in the last week, with contracts awarded illicitly under the New York state laws.

The state chief figure in the sewer scandal, John M. Phillips, so-called sewer pipe czar, has been the object of most of the charges. He died before the trial began.

The state has sought to show that Phillips, Connolly and Seely formed a triumvirate in 1917 to control the awarding of contracts for the huge amount of sewer work in Queens. Connolly and Seely were to word the specifications in such a way that they fitted a patented lock-joint pipe controlled by Phillips, but no other way. Phillips was to get whatever price he asked for his pipe and divide the profits with Seely and Connolly.

It is known that Phillips, known as "Gentleman Jack" among his political allies, amassed a fortune from the Queens sewer contracts before his death. The problem before Buckner now is to prove that the borough president and engineer shared these profits.

WHITE CONTINUES BAITING DEMOCRATS

Emporia, Kan., Oct. 3.—(UP)—William Allen White, Emporia editor, continued his baiting of democratic candidates today with the declaration that Senator Joseph T. Robinson, democratic vice presidential candidate, "wears the harrassed look of an Anti-Saloon league preacher at a bartenders' convention."

Back from a vacation in Europe, White whistled cheerfully when word reached him that Senator Robinson was answering his statements, and he again insisted that the senator misquoted him.

HELD FOR FATAL SHOOTING OF ST. PAUL RESTAURANT MAN

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Lester McLane, 28, was held today for the fatal shooting of Alex Carveau, restaurant operator, here last night.

The shooting was said to have occurred after Carveau had started to take McLane home after the latter had waved a revolver and threatened customers in Carveau's establishment. His body was found near McLane's home.

McLane refused to discuss the shooting.

Their honeymoon were kept a close secret. It was believed they would try to slip away to some secluded villa where they would be safe from intrusion of the curious.

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

W. O. Hartman of Aitkin was a business visitor in the city today.

F. H. Stinson of Duluth is in the city on business this afternoon.

J. S. Anderson of Duluth is in the city on business this afternoon.

Mrs. Rose Broski of Barrows was a shopper in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Bronson of Merrifield was a Brainerd shopper this morning.

M. Ardem of St. Cloud was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bly of Pequot were shoppers in the city yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff C. W. Oberg transacted official business in Crosby yesterday.

J. A. Crowell of Garrison transacted business in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Moilanen left last night for Minneapolis, where she will visit.

Mrs. Arvid Laitto and daughter of Crosby were in the city on business this morning.

CLARA BOW—The "it" girl is at the Lyceum tonight. Vamping the sailor boys. 10313

Mrs. Eleanor Anderson of Neutral was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Miss Caroline Walz, county nurse, made a business trip to Minneapolis this morning.

Attorney B. J. Johnson of Crosby attended to legal matters at the court house yesterday.

L. F. Gillette returned to Anoka yesterday after spending several days here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dodd of Duluth are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Houle.

NOTICE—To Holders of Elks Building Bonds—Coupon No. 5 is payable October 1, 1928 and should be presented to The First National Bank, Brainerd, Minn., for payment. Brainerd Lodge No. 615 B. P. O. E. by B. L. Lagerquist, treasurer. 1t

Fred Johnson of the first assessment district was in Brainerd on business this morning.

Mrs. M. E. Morrison, 623 South Seventh street, returned from a visit in Duluth last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Erickson of Maple Grove township were shoppers in Brainerd this morning.

L. B. Kinder, judge of probate, will speak before the Lions club at the Ransford this evening.

C. J. Albertson of South Long Lake returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends and relatives in Duluth.

Mrs. Bert Rensch of St. Cloud arrived in the city last evening to visit Miss Evelyn Swanson for a few days.

Howard Cramer of Pontiac, Mich., is spending several days in Brainerd visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lulu Kidder of Belle Plaine, Iowa, arrived here yesterday to spend several days visiting with relatives.

David Sandberg, treasurer of school district No. 114, of Oak Lawn was in the city on business yesterday.

Miss Dorothy Carmichael is spending this week visiting with friends and relatives in Mankato and St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Kenyon of Pequot announce the birth of a daughter, born this afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital.

Miss Elnora Gillette returned last night from Minneapolis where she visited with friends and relatives for several days.

Elks' Beauty Shoppe, shampoo and marcel $1; shampoo and finger wave, $1; shampoo and henna rinse, $1. 10314p

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morris and family are moving today from their home in Pequot to 701 South Fifth street in this city.

YOO-HOO, GIRLS—The Fleet's "In!" with Clara Bow at the Lyceum tonight. Don't miss her, the boys won't. 10312

Mrs. Albin Johnson, treasurer of school district No. 63, of Garrison, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Dr. Herbert A. Carlson returned last

Minnesota—Unsettled tonight and Thursday, probably showers, slightly warmer tonight in extreme southeast, cooler in extreme west portion; colder Thursday, except along Lake Superior.

Oct. 2.—In evening 45.
Oct. 3.—Maximum 75, minimum 41. Southeast wind. Cloudy.

BULLETIN BOARD

TONIGHT
St. Mary's Guild of the Episcopal church—Miss Helen Archer.
Kappa Delta chapter—Mrs. C. D. McKay.

Mission Circle No. 1 Bethlehem Lutheran church—Mrs. A. L. Koop.
Odd Fellows—I. O. O. F. hall.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON
G. A. R., 3:30 p. m.—I. O. O. F. hall.
Home League, 2 p. m.—Salvation Army hall.

evening from Minneapolis where he spent several days visiting at the home of his mother.

Miss Evelyn Swanson returned last evening from Cannon Falls and St. Paul, where she spent several days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson have returned from the Twin Cities where they spent several days visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Frayer and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Malstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frayer motored to St. Cloud this morning.

J. C. Davis of Minneapolis, district manager of the National Tea Company, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Mrs. Paul Erickson and Miss Marcella Kampmann motored to Minneapolis yesterday where they will spend a few days visiting friends.

Attorney D. B. McAlpine, Ironton, was in the city yesterday on his way to St. Paul where he will appear before the State Tax commission.

Mr. Martha Van Doren, treasurer of school district No. 85, of Lake Edward township, transacted business in Brainerd this morning.

John Shesrud of Minneapolis called on his friend, Louis Hostager, yesterday while passing through the city on the way to his cottage at Whitefish lake.

Miss Elizabeth Johnstone is spending a few days in Minneapolis where she is a guest at the Delta Gamma sorority house at the University of Minnesota.

Mrs. E. W. Paine and son, Jack, and Mrs. Paine's mother, Mrs. Allen, of Seattle, Wash., motored to Chippewa Falls, Wis., where they will spend the week end.

Miss Charlotte Peters, who has been enjoying a month's visit with relatives in Walla Walla, Wash., has resumed her position at the Economy Fruit store.

Roller Skate at Lum Park

TONIGHT

Skates 25c

Mrs. and Mrs. George Lively and daughter, Ruby, returned from the Twin Cities yesterday where they have been visiting with relatives and friends for the past several days.

Miss Addie Rademaker of St. Cloud returned to Brainerd last evening to take the place of Miss Ida Kerstein at the Brainerd laundry, who is confined to her home on account of illness.

Joe Spodone and Bob Werner who played here during the summer with the Northern Senadors orchestra have signed a contract to play during the winter with Joe Peyer and his orchestra in St. Paul.

Miss M. V. Small is filling the position of deputy clerk of probate in the absence of Mrs. Hazel Irwin who will attend the National Legion convention at San Antonio, Texas, as a member of the Brainerd Ladies band.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fodness and son returned to their home in Sioux Falls, S. D., today after visiting here the past week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Olson and Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Lyscio and Mr. and Mrs. Newman Hanson.

Mrs. Minnie Nichols returned yesterday from Staples; while there she was a guest at a luncheon and bridge party given by Mrs. Tom Sharkey. Mrs. John Schmeltz of Seattle, Wash., accompanied Mrs. Nichols back to Brainerd and will be her guest for some time.

Mrs. Mabel Carmichael and daughters, Maymie, Marguerite and Catharine, returned last night from Mankato where they have been spending several days. While there they attended the reception for Mrs. Carmichael's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Peter Clare, given in honor of their golden wedding anniversary. There were over 300 in attendance.

Backstrom-Dahl
Miss Lillian Dahl of Brainerd and Paul E. Backstrom of Minneapolis were married Saturday, September 8, at 6:30 p. m. at the parsonage of the Camden Mission church, Minneapolis. Rev. A. E. Olson performed the ceremony.

It was followed by a wedding dinner at the Curtis hotel served to about 40 guests and relatives.

The bride was dressed in peacock blue georgette dress and pearl headband, and carried an arm bouquet of roses and baby breath. She was attended by Miss Jennie Wilson of Brainerd, who was dressed in pink flowered chiffon dress and carried an arm bouquet of roses. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Roland Backstrom.

At the dinner music was rendered by Oscar LeVahn who sang "Oh Promise Me," and Miss Esther Olson who sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," also a duet by Mr. LeVahn and Miss Olson. Several selections on the violin were also given by Allen Pravitz, including "Schubert's Serenade," accompanied by Miss Wilson. There were also some peppy speeches.

Mr. and Mrs. Backstrom left that night for a 10-day trip through Yellowstone Park. They are now at home in Minneapolis.

Golden Wedding Anniversary
Rev. and Mrs. Peter Clare of Mankato observed their golden wedding anniversary at that city Monday. Their married life has been spent mainly in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Mankato. Rev. Mr. Clare's ministry has extended over half a century, all in Minnesota.

Born in England, Rev. Mr. Clare came to the United States in 1872, where he attended schools for six years, took a three-year course at Mount Union college, Ohio, and graduated with the class of 1878 from Garrett Biblical institute at Evanston, Ill.

Mrs. Clare, the daughter of pioneer Americans of Greenwood Prairie was born at Plainview. Her mother was the first white woman in that part of the state and her father was the first banker of Plainview.

Rev. Mr. Clare entered the ministry the same year of his graduation.

The golden wedding anniversary marking the half century of married life was observed Monday with a reception afternoon and evening at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Eberhart, 730 South Broad street. Invitations were issued to a number of friends to attend the informal affair, which was held from 2 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 in the evening, and for which it was requested no gifts be sent.

Children and grandchildren were present and included Mrs. Mable Carmichael of Brainerd and her four daughters, Dorothy, Marguerite, Maymie and Cathryn; E. A. Clare, one of the vice presidents of John Leslie Paper company of St. Paul, with his wife and their four children Virginia and Marian, Robert and Peter.

Peggy Clare and Dorothy Eberhart daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Eberhart were also present at the reception for the grandparents.

O'Connor-Branchaud
(From Rochester, Minn., Post-Bulletin of Oct. 1)

At 6 o'clock Monday morning St. John's church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Marie Elizabeth Branchaud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branchaud of Brainerd, Minn., to James M. O'Connor, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. O'Connor of Rochester. Msgr. G. P. Murphy performed the service.

Wedding music was played by James J. Drummond during the entrance of the party and during the ceremony he sang "O Lord I Am Not Worthy." The couple were attended by Mr. O'Connor's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Ivar Birkeland (Miss Marguerite O'Connor).

A gown of brown georgette trimmed with transparent velvet together with a brown felt hat and brown suede slippers was worn by the bride. She carried a bouquet of Claudius Pernet roses and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Birkeland was gowned in a georgette frock of royal blue and wore a hat of a matching shade. Her bouquet was of butterfly roses and chrysanthemums.

A breakfast for a group of 18 relatives and friends was served following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Connor. Mrs. M. T. Camplin of Los Angeles and the Misses Margaret Marren and Jeannette Stewart assisted in serving. Mrs. William O'Connor was an out-of-town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor have gone on a wedding trip to St. Paul and December 1 will be at home at 803 First street SE.

Mrs. O'Connor is a graduate of the Kahler School of Nursing.

LEAGUE MEMBERS TO ATTEND MEET

Minnesota League of Women Voters Annual State Convention Opens Tomorrow at St. Cloud

CONTINUES OVER SATURDAY

Candidates for U. S. Senate to Speak Tomorrow Evening; Margaret Banning to Attend

The Minnesota League of Women Voters will hold its annual state convention in St. Cloud, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4, 5, 6.

The aim of the League is to create an interested, informed body of voters and the program of the convention is planned with this purpose in mind.

There will be a candidates meeting on Thursday evening at which candidates for the U. S. senate will speak. Another highlight of the program is the convention luncheon in the Breen hotel Saturday with Margaret Banning, the well known writer of Duluth, as toastmistress.

Brainerd League members who may attend some or all of the sessions are: Mrs. Dean White, Mrs. J. Cummins, Miss Mary Walsh, Mrs. S. Newman, Mrs. A. C. Weber, Miss Genevieve Flanagan, Mrs. Rose Parker, Mrs. C. A. Nelson, Mrs. A. K. Cohen, Mrs. W. C. Cobb, Mrs. Ben S. Armstrong and Mrs. J. A. Bachel-dor.

Food Sale

The Pythian Sisters will hold a food sale Saturday, October 6, at Brockway's store. Beans, nut bread, doughnuts, bread, pies and cakes will be on sale.

NOTICE

Stray police dog picked up by police. Unless claimed within three days animal will be destroyed. May claim dog at city hall and by payment of this ad. 1tp

Worth Remembering

When a man offers you something for nothing, don't accept it unless you can afford to pay at least double its value.—Exchange.

ART STUDY CLUB MEETS

First Gathering of Club Year at the Home of Mrs. M. A. Bronson

AT MERRIFIELD SATURDAY

Delightful Luncheon is Followed by a Most Interesting Program

The Art Study held the first meeting of their club year at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bronson of Merrifield on Saturday at 1 P. M. The meeting took the form of a luncheon and program.

Mrs. Bronson, who is a collector and an authority on old china and pottery, gave the girls a most instructive and delightful talk on "The China and Pottery of Our Forefathers."

Mrs. Bronson's home is a veritable museum of interesting things and the girls were most appreciative of her talk.

During the year the girls will study the Florentine and Venetian artists under the leadership of Mrs. J. A. Thabes, Sr.

The club is composed of the following members: the Misses Lois Adelaide Thabes, Jean Cibuzar, Dorothy June Opsahl, Flora Jane Elder, Betty Mahlum, Genevieve Tweet, Bernice Steinfeldt, Frances Peterson, Mary Frances Graham, Janet Kampmann, Mary Hoffman and Barbara Zapffe.

The club was chaperoned at the Saturday meeting by Mrs. J. A. Thabes and Mrs. G. I. Badeaux.

TRIO OF LONELY WOMEN SEEKING RICH HUSBANDS

Washington, Oct. 3.—(U.P.)—A trio of lonely women, in search of ideal—and wealthy—husbands, were enroute to Pittsburgh today with their "matrimonial caravan."

The party of husband hunters consisted of Miss Helen Davis, 32; Mrs. Ann Howe, 50, a widow, and Mrs. Virginia Fredrix, 38, a widow.

All three hope to return to Washington next spring with rich mates. They plan to tour the country in search of men who meet their requirements—chiefly wealth and good nature.

The three women hope their ranks will grow as they crusade toward Los Angeles. Other lonely women in search of ideal mates have been invited to join the caravan.

Miss Davis, leader of the party, said they hoped to make Pittsburgh today.

Popular Association

The American Nature association has a membership of about 120,000.

thru Pullmans ---
the Grand Canyon Way

to California

Beginning October 15th—thru standard Pullmans via Great Western-Santa Fe California Limited to Southern California.

..... Straight south first—away from leaden, wintry skies—then west in cheerful, sunny latitudes—through the romantic and colorful Navajo country of New Mexico and Arizona.

..... the route romantic, interesting, scenic! The sublime Grand Canyon, Indian ceremonial dances, prehistoric ruins and pueblos; petrified forests—and the wonderful Indian detour!

Through Standard Pullmans

CALIFORNIA LIMITED

Lv. Minneapolis 3:30 p. m.
Lv. St. Paul 4:00 p. m.
Ar. Kansas City 7:35 a. m.
Ar. Los Angeles 3:15 p. m.

Beginning Oct. 15th, every day except Dec. 22, 23, 24, 25.

Send for "California Picture Book" and "Grand Canyon Outings," and full details as to low round trip fares.

C. J. Brooks, District Passenger Agent
922 Second Ave. South
Minneapolis

Chicago Great Western

2602 Minn

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

October 3, 1903

The following young people were married by Rev. S. W. Hover on Saturday evening: Lewis Irwin and Miss Matilda Warren; Herman C. Slocum and Miss Mary Johnson, all of Brainerd. Rev. Hover also reports the marriage of Fraser C. Gillis and Miss Susie Plummer, which occurred at the home of the bride in this city on Thursday evening.

There was an unusually heavy frost last night, the heaviest of the season.

Dr. J. A. Thabes returned from Backus this afternoon.

A steam heating plant has been installed in the National hotel.

Mike Dwyer and Jens Molsted returned this afternoon from the west where they have been looking over some lands.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Tyler have returned from their trip to the coast. They visited all points of interest and reported a most pleasant trip.

The Koering-Hunt wedding will be solemnized tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Fleet left this afternoon for southern Iowa where they expect to make their home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chadbourne returned from Fargo last night and spent the day in the city, going to Duluth this afternoon for a visit.

The drygoods store of M. J. Reilly recently sold to Whiteley and Reis was turned over to that firm today. The place is closed while an invoice of the stock is being taken.

Ladies Aid

The ladies aid of the Clara Lutheran church will be entertained by Mrs. Aaron Johnson and Mrs. Frank Alexander in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Every member should attend. Visitors are welcome.

READ THE WANT ADS DAILY

Luther League
The Luther League of the Clara Lutheran church will be entertained in the church parlors by Ed. Wang on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All young people should attend. All the members of the last confirmation class are urged to attend.

The following program will be given:

Singing by the audience.
Devotion.
Vocal solo—Ellen Berglund.
Selection—Obert Benson.
Selection—Elvia Benson.
Piano solo—Evodia Carlson.
Talk, "Religion and Business," by the pastor.
Vocal solo—Dr. C. E. Anderson.
Business session and social hour.

Church Supper

The ladies aid of the Swedish Baptist church has arranged for its annual supper and sale, Thursday evening, at the church, corner of Oak and Tenth streets. The serving will begin at 5 o'clock.

WARDROBE EXCHANGE

Will buy your used clothing.
Will call for.
Phone 156-M.

86126

DRINK Braino Springs Beverages
For Good Health's Sake
at Your Nearest Dealer
Brainerd Bottling Works

One and
One Thousand

THE difference between one dollar and one thousand is only a matter of multiplication.

Single dollars increase in number and importance when they are deposited regularly in a bank account.

Start a Savings Account Today

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Deposits made in Savings Account up to October 10th draw interest from October 1st.

You'll be Surprised

You won't be frightened but you'll be surprised

—to find there isn't a single piece of rock, slate or dirt in any load of

Lampert's Peerless Coal

For Lampert's Peerless Coal is completely free of rock, slate and other waste that looks like coal but gives no heat—burns without objectionable soot or smoke—contains little ash, and will not clinker.

And what's more—you'll be surprised at the low cost per ton of heat of Lampert's Peerless Coal.

For sale exclusively by

Lampert Bros. Lumber Company

J. A. Kraus, Mgr.

Phone 84

PERSONAL, CLUB and LOCAL NEWS

Telephone 74

W. O. Hartman of Aitkin was a business visitor in the city today.

F. H. Stinson of Duluth is in the city on business this afternoon.

J. S. Anderson of Duluth is in the city on business this afternoon.

Mrs. Rose Broski of Barrows was a shopper in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Bronson of Merrifield was a Brainerd shopper this morning.

M. Arden of St. Cloud was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bly of Pequot were shoppers in the city yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff C. W. Oberg transacted official business in Crosby yesterday.

J. J. Crowell of Garrison transacted business in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Moilanen left last night for Minneapolis, where she will visit.

Mrs. Arvid Laitto and daughter of Crosby were in the city on business this morning.

CLARA BOW—The "It" girl is at the Lyceum tonight. Vamping the sailor boys. 10343

Mrs. Eleanor Anderson of Neutral was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Miss Caroline Walz, county nurse, made a business trip to Minneapolis this morning.

Attorney B. J. Johnson of Crosby attended to legal matters at the court house yesterday.

L. F. Gillette returned to Anoka yesterday after spending several days here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dodd of Duluth are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Houle.

NOTICE—To Holders of Elks Building Bonds—Coupon No. 5 is payable October 1, 1923 and should be presented to The First National Bank, Brainerd, Minn., for payment. Brainerd Lodge No. 615 B. P. O. E. by B. L. Lagerquist, treasurer. 1t

Fred Johnson of the first assessment district was in Brainerd on business this morning.

Mrs. M. E. Morrison, 623 South Seventh street, returned from a visit in Duluth last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Erickson of Maple Grove township were shoppers in Brainerd this morning.

L. B. Kinder, judge of probate, will speak before the Lions club at the Ransford this evening.

C. J. Albertson of South Long Lake returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends and relatives in Duluth.

Mrs. Bert Rensch of St. Cloud arrived in the city last evening to visit Miss Evelyn Swanson for a few days.

Howard Cramer of Pontiac, Mich., is spending several days in Brainerd visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lulu Kilder of Belle Plaine, Iowa, arrived here yesterday to spend several days visiting with relatives.

David Sandberg, treasurer of school district No. 114, of Oak Lawn was in the city on business yesterday.

Miss Dorothy Carmichael is spending this week visiting with friends and relatives in Mankato and St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Kenyon of Pequot announce the birth of a daughter, born this afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital.

Miss Elvora Gillette returned last night from Minneapolis where she visited with friends and relatives for several days.

Elks' Beauty Shoppe, shampoo and marcel $1; shampoo and finger wave, $1; shampoo and henna rinse, $1. 10344p

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morris and family are moving today from their home in Pequot to 701 South Fifth street in this city.

YOO-HOO, GIRLS—The Fleet's "In!" with Clara Bow at the Lyceum tonight. Don't miss her, the boys won't. 10342

Mrs. Albin Johnson, treasurer of school district No. 63, of Garrison, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Dr. Herbert A. Carlson returned last

Minnesota — Unsettled tonight and Thursday, probably showers, slightly warmer tonight in extreme southeast, cooler in extreme west portion; cooler Thursday, except along Lake Superior.

Oct. 2.—In evening 45.
Oct. 3.—Maximum 75, minimum 41. Southeast wind. Cloudy.

BULLETIN BOARD

TONIGHT
St. Mary's Guild of the Episcopal church—Miss Helen Archer, Kappa Delta chapter—Mrs. C. D. McKay.

Mission Circle No. 1 Bethlehem Lutheran church—Mrs. A. L. Koop. Odd Fellows—I. O. O. F. hall. Lions club, 6:15 p. m.—Ransford.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON
G. A. R., 3:30 p. m.—I. O. O. F. hall.

Home League, 2 p. m.—Salvation Army hall.

evening from Minneapolis where he spent several days visiting at the home of his mother.

Miss Evelyn Swanson returned last evening from Cannon Falls and St. Paul, where she spent several days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson have returned from the Twin Cities where they spent several days visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Frayer and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Malstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Praytor motored to St. Cloud this morning.

J. C. Davis of Minneapolis, district manager of the National Tea Company, was a business visitor in the city this morning.

Mrs. Paul Erickson and Miss Marcella Kampmann motored to Minneapolis yesterday where they will spend a few days visiting friends.

Attorney D. B. McAlpine, Ironton, was in the city yesterday on his way to St. Paul where he will appear before the State Tax commission.

Mr. Martha Van Doren, treasurer of school district No. 85, of Lake Edward township, transacted business in Brainerd this morning.

John Snesrud of Minneapolis called on his friend, Louis Hostager, yesterday while passing through the city on the way to his cottage at Whitefish lake.

Miss Elizabeth Johnstone is spending a few days in Minneapolis where she is a guest at the Delta Gamma sorority house at the University of Minnesota.

Mrs. E. W. Paine and son, Jack, and Mrs. Paine's mother, Mrs. Allen, of Seattle, Wash., motored to Chippewa Falls, Wis., where they will spend the week end.

Miss Charlotte Peters, who has been enjoying a month's visit with relatives in Walla Walla, Wash., has resumed her position at the Economy Fruit store.

Roller Skate at Lum Park

TONIGHT

Skates 25c

Mrs. and Mrs. George Lively and daughter, Ruby, returned from the Twin Cities yesterday where they have been visiting with relatives and friends for the past several days.

Miss Addie Rademaker of St. Cloud returned to Brainerd last evening to take the place of Miss Ida Kerstein at the Brainerd laundry, who is confined to her home on account of illness.

Joe Spodone and Bob Werner who played here during the summer with the Northern Serenaders orchestra have signed a contract to play during the winter with Joe Peyer and his orchestra in St. Paul.

Miss M. V. Small is filling the position of deputy clerk of probate in the absence of Mrs. Hazel Irwin who will attend the National Legion convention at San Antonio, Texas, as a member of the Brainerd Ladies band.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fodness and son returned to their home in Sioux Falls, S. D., today after visiting here the past week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Olson and Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Lyscio and Mr. and Mrs. Newman Hanson.

Mrs. Minnie Nichols returned yesterday from Staples; while there she was a guest at a luncheon and bridge party given by Mrs. Tom Sharkey.

Mrs. John Schmeltz of Seattle, Wash., accompanied Mrs. Nichols back to Brainerd and will be her guest for some time.

Mrs. Mabel Carmichael and daughters, Maysie, Marguerite and Catharine, returned last night from Mankato where they have been spending several days. While there they attended the reception for Mrs. Carmichael's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Peter Clare, given in honor of their golden wedding anniversary. There were over 300 in attendance.

Backstrom-Dahl
Miss Lillian Dahl of Brainerd and Paul E. Backstrom of Minneapolis were married Saturday, September 8, at 6:30 p. m. at the parsonage of the Camden Mission church, Minneapolis. Rev. A. E. Olson performed the ceremony.

It was followed by a wedding dinner at the Curtis hotel served to about 40 guests and relatives.

The bride was dressed in peacock blue georgette dress and pearl headband, and carried an arm bouquet of roses and baby breath. She was attended by Miss Jennie Wilson of Brainerd, who was dressed in pink flowered chiffon dress and carried an arm bouquet of roses. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Roland Backstrom.

At the dinner music was rendered by Oscar LeVahn who sang "Oh Promise Me," and Miss Esther Olson who sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," also a duet by Mr. LeVahn and Miss Olson. Several selections on the violin were also given by Allen Pravitz, including "Schubert's Serenade," accompanied by Miss Wilson. There were also some peppy speeches.

Mr. and Mrs. Backstrom left that night for a 10 day trip through Yellowstone Park. They are now at home in Minneapolis.

Golden Wedding Anniversary
Rev. and Mrs. Peter Clare of Mankato observed their golden wedding anniversary at that city Monday.

Their married life has been spent mainly in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Mankato. Rev. Mr. Clare's ministry has extended over half a century, all in Minnesota.

Born in England, Rev. Mr. Clare came to the United States in 1872, where he attended schools for six years, took a three-year course at Mount Union college, Ohio, and graduated with the class of 1878 from Garrett Biblical institute at Evanston, Ill.

Mrs. Clare, the daughter of pioneer Americans of Greenwood Prairie, was born at Plainview. Her mother was the first white woman in that part of the state and her father was the first banker of Plainview.

Rev. Mr. Clare entered the ministry the same year of his graduation. The golden wedding anniversary marking the half century of married life was observed Monday with a reception afternoon and evening at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. R. O. Eberhart, 730 South Broad street. Invitations were issued to a number of friends to attend the informal affair, which was held from 2 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 in the evening, and for which it was requested no gifts be sent.

Children and grandchildren were present and included Mrs. Mable Carmichael of Brainerd and her four daughters, Dorothy, Marguerite, Maysie and Cathryn; E. A. Clare, one of the vice presidents of John Leslie Paper company of St. Paul, with his wife and their four children Virginia and Marian, Robert and Peter.

Peggy Clare and Dorothy Eberhart daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Eberhart were also present at the reception for the grandparents.

O'Connor-Branchaud
(From Rochester, Minn., Post-Bulletin of Oct. 1)

At 6 o'clock Monday morning St. John's church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Marie Elizabeth Branchaud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branchaud of Brainerd, Minn., to James M. O'Connor, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. O'Connor of Rochester, Msgr. G. P. Murphy performed the service.

Wedding music was played by James J. Drummond during the entrance of the party and during the ceremony he sang "O Lord I Am Not Worthy." The couple were attended by Mr. O'Connor's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Ivar Birke-land (Miss Marguerite O'Connor).

A gown of brown georgette trimmed with transparent velvet together with a brown felt hat and brown suede slippers was worn by the bride. She carried a bouquet of Claudius Pernet roses and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Birkeland was gowned in a georgette frock of royal blue and wore a hat of a matching shade. Her bouquet was of butterfly roses and chrysanthemums.

A breakfast for a group of 18 relatives and friends was served following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Connor. Mrs. M. T. Campton of Los Angeles and the Misses Margaret Marren and Jeannette Stewart assisted in serving. Mrs. William O'Connor was an out-of-town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor have gone on a wedding trip to St. Paul and December 1 will be at home at 803 First street SE.

Mrs. O'Connor is a graduate of the Kahler School of Nursing.

LEAGUE MEMBERS TO ATTEND MEET

Minnesota League of Women Voters Annual State Convention Opens Tomorrow at St. Cloud

CONTINUES OVER SATURDAY

Candidates for U. S. Senate to Speak Tomorrow Evening; Margaret Banning to Attend

The Minnesota League of Women Voters will hold its annual state convention in St. Cloud, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 4, 5, 6.

The aim of the League is to create an interested, informed body of voters and the program of the convention is planned with this purpose in mind.

There will be a candidates meeting on Thursday evening at which candidates for the U. S. senate will speak. Another highlight of the program is the convention luncheon in the Breen hotel Saturday with Margaret Banning, the well known writer of Duluth, as toastmistress.

Brainerd League members who may attend some or all of the sessions are: Mrs. Dean White, Mrs. J. J. Cummins, Miss Mary Walsh, Mrs. S. Newman, Mrs. A. C. Weber, Miss Genevieve Flanagan, Mrs. Rose Parker, Mrs. C. A. Nelson, Mrs. A. K. Cohen, Mrs. W. C. Cobb, Mrs. Ben S. Armstrong and Mrs. J. A. Bachelder.

Food Sale
The Pythian Sisters will hold a food sale Saturday, October 6, at Brockway's store. Beans, nut bread, doughnuts, bread, pies and cakes will be on sale.

NOTICE
Stray police dog picked up by police. Unless claimed within three days animal will be destroyed. May claim dog at city hall and by payment of this ad. 1tp

Worth Remembering
When a man offers you something for nothing, don't accept it unless you can afford to pay at least double its value.—Exchange.

Popular Association
The American Nature association has a membership of about 120,000.

ART STUDY CLUB MEETS

First Gathering of Club Year at the Home of Mrs. M. A. Bronson

AT MERRIFIELD SATURDAY

Delightful Luncheon is Followed by a Most Interesting Program

The Art Study held the first meeting of their club year at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bronson of Merrifield on Saturday at 1 P. M. The meeting took the form of a luncheon and program.

Mrs. Bronson, who is a collector and an authority on old china and pottery, gave the girls a most instructive and delightful talk on "The China and Pottery of Our Forefathers."

Mrs. Bronson's home is a veritable museum of interesting things and the girls were most appreciative of her talk.

During the year the girls will study the Florentine and Venetian artists under the leadership of Mrs. J. A. Thabes, Sr.

The club is composed of the following members: the Misses Lois Adelaide Thabes, Jean Cibazar, Dorothy June Opsahl, Flora Jane Elder, Betty Mahlum, Genevieve Tweet, Bernice Steinfield, Frances Peterson, Mary Frances Graham, Janet Kampmann, Mary Hoffman and Barbara Zappfe.

The club was chartered at the Saturday meeting by Mrs. J. A. Thabes and Mrs. G. I. Badeaux.

TRIO OF LONELY WOMEN SEEKING RICH HUSBANDS

Washington, Oct. 3.—(U.P.)—A trio of lonely women, in search of ideal—and wealthy—husbands, were enroute to Pittsburgh today with their "matrimonial caravan."

The party of husband hunters consisted of Miss Helen Davis, 32; Mrs. Ann Howe, 50, a widow, and Mrs. Virginia Fredrix, 38, a widow.

All three hope to return to Washington next spring with rich mates. They plan to tour the country in search of men who meet their requirements—chiefly wealth and good nature.

The three women hope their ranks will grow as they crusade toward Los Angeles. Other lonely women in search of ideal mates have been invited to join the caravan.

Miss Davis, leader of the party, said they hoped to make Pittsburgh today.

Popular Association
The American Nature association has a membership of about 120,000.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

October 3, 1903

The following young people were married by Rev. S. W. Hoyer on Saturday evening: Lewis Irwin and Miss Matilda Warren; Herman C. Slocum and Miss Mary Johnson, all of Brainerd. Rev. Hoyer also reports the marriage of Fraser C. Gillis and Miss Susie Plummer, which occurred at the home of the bride in this city on Thursday evening.

There was an unusually heavy frost last night, the heaviest of the season.

Dr. J. A. Thabes returned from Backus this afternoon.

A steam heating plant has been installed in the National hotel.

Mike Dwyer and Jens Molsted returned this afternoon from the west where they have been looking over some lands.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Tyler have returned from their trip to the coast. They visited all points of interest and reported a most pleasant trip.

The Koering-Hunt wedding will be solemnized tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Fleet left this afternoon for southern Iowa where they expect to make their home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chadbourne returned from Fargo last night and spent the day in the city, going to Duluth this afternoon for a visit.

The drygoods store of M. J. Reilly recently sold to Whiteley and Reis was turned over to that firm today. The place is closed while an invoice of the stock is being taken.

Ladies Aid

The ladies aid of the Clara Lutheran church will be entertained by Mrs. Aaron Johnson and Mrs. Frank Alexander in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Every member should attend. Visitors are welcome.

READ THE WANT ADS DAILY

Luther League
The Luther League of the Clara Lutheran church will be entertained in the church parlors by Ed. Wang on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All young people should attend. All the members of the last confirmation class are urged to attend.

The following program will be given:

Singing by the audience.
Devotion.
Vocal solo—Ellen Berglund.
Selection—Obert Benson.
Selection—Elvia Benson.
Piano solo—Evodia Carlson.
Talk, "Religion and Business," by the pastor.

Vocal solo—Dr. C. E. Anderson.
Business session and social hour.

Church Supper
The ladies aid of the Swedish Baptist church has arranged for its annual supper and sale, Thursday evening, at the church, corner of Oak and Tenth streets. The serving will begin at 5 o'clock.

WARDROBE EXCHANGE
Will buy your used clothing.
Will call for.
Phone 156-M.

DRINK Braino Springs Beverages For Good Health's Sake at Your Nearest Dealer Brainerd Bottling Works

One and One Thousand

THE difference between one dollar and one thousand is only a matter of multiplication.

Single dollars increase in number and importance when they are deposited regularly in a bank account.

Start a Savings Account Today

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

Deposits made in Savings Account up to October 10th draw interest from October 1st.

You'll be Surprised

You won't be frightened but you'll be surprised

—to find there isn't a single piece of rock, slate or dirt in any load of

Lampert's Peerless Coal

For Lampert's Peerless Coal is completely free of rock, slate and other waste that looks like coal but gives no heat—burns without objectionable soot or smoke—contains little ash, and will not clinker.

And what's more—you'll be surprised at the low cost per ton of heat of Lampert's Peerless Coal.

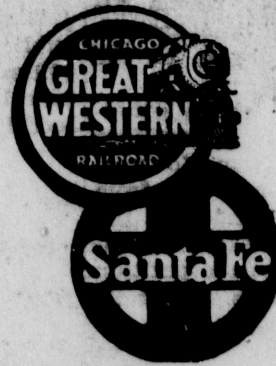

For sale exclusively by

Lampert Bros. Lumber Company

J. A. Kraus, Mgr.

Phone 84

thru Pullmans --- the Grand Canyon Way

to California

Beginning October 15th—thru standard Pullmans via Great Western-Santa Fe California Limited to Southern California.

..... Straight south first—away from leaden, wintry skies—then west in cheerful, sunny latitudes—through the romantic and colorful Navajo country of New Mexico and Arizona.

..... the route romantic, interesting, scenic! The sublime Grand Canyon, Indian ceremonial dances; prehistoric ruins and pueblos; petrified forests—and the wonderful Indian-detour!

Through Standard Pullmans CALIFORNIA LIMITED

Lv. Minneapolis 3:30 p. m.
Lv. St. Paul 4:00 p. m.
Ar. Kansas City 7:35 a. m.
Ar. Los Angeles 3:15 p. m.

Beginning Oct. 15th, every day except Dec. 22, 23, 24, 25.

Send for "California Picture Book" and "Grand Canyon Outings," and full details as to low round trip fares.

C. J. Brooks, District Passenger Agent
322 Second Ave., South
Minneapolis

Chicago Great Western

2602 Minn

LADIES BAND LEAVES FOR SOUTH TOMORROW

Celebrates Occasion by Parade and 15 Minute Program Before Taking Train at 1:50 P. M.

16 TO MAKE TRIP

Will Play for National American Legion Convention at San Antonio, Texas

Leaving Brainerd tomorrow at 1:50 p. m. the American Legion Auxiliary band starts its trip southward to San Antonio, Texas to play at the National American Legion convention. The band will parade in the business district of the city and will give a 15 minute program on the corner of Laurel and Sixth streets before going to the depot.

The band leaves Minneapolis tomorrow evening on the Minnesota special train. They are to be entertained at a barbecue picnic at Irondale, Mo., Friday evening. They will also stop over in St. Louis and they have a nine hour stopover in New Orleans.

The trip also calls for a day to be spent in Galveston, Texas and they have been invited to a festa in old Mexico where they will witness a bull fight and other Mexican entertainments.

While at the convention the ladies are to sing a number of songs composed by R. G. Jenkins that will advertise Minnesota and the lake region.

The ladies of the organization express their thanks to all their contributors and the business men of Brainerd who have helped to make this trip possible. They also extend their thanks to those who patronized their various enterprises and to those that took part in their entertainment recently.

The ladies who will make the trip are: Mrs. Ethel Fox, Mrs. W. H. Irwin, Mrs. A. C. Mraz, Mrs. Jenson, Mrs. Fred Bentley, Mrs. Robert Anderson, and the Misses Collette Mraz, Lucille Gray, Emily Mraz, Jessie Evans, Hannah Bye, Alma Brown, Georgia Brown, Mayne Scallen, Evelyn Mraz, and Effie Drexler.

ESDON

Mrs. W. H. Workman will entertain the Estdon ladies aid on Thursday. This aid recently contributed $16 towards the Red Cross fund and $10 to Sunday school extension. "By their good works ye shall know them."

Mrs. E. E. Lofgren was called to Ironton on Friday by the illness of her father, Mr. Peck.

James Coffield and family motored to Pine Center Saturday evening.

Harold Stafford and Mrs. A. Stafford went to Brainerd on Saturday on a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer expect to occupy the Peterson home north of highway No. 18.

Scott Elmore has returned from North Dakota, where he was working during harvest. An unusual amount of rain made the season unprofitable.

Ed. Elmore, W. H. Workman, Abel Christianson and Mrs. E. L. Guin were among the school officers, who attended the county board meeting and report a large attendance and profitable meeting.

Miss Marie Guin, who teaches in No. 8 St. Mathias, spent the week end at Guin's place on Crooked Lake.

The Doctor

It is essential that my car should always operate properly and accordingly I use Champion Spark Plugs.

Champion is the better spark plug because it has an exclusive sili-manite insulator specially treated to withstand the much higher temperatures of the modern high-compression engine. Also a new patented solid copper gasket-seal that remains absolutely gas-tight under high compression. Special analysis electrodes which assure a fixed spark-gap under all driving conditions.

Beginning October 4th and every Thursday thereafter the Champion Spark Plugs will be broadcast over the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company from 8:30 to 9:00 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

CHAMPION
Spark Plugs
TOLSON, OHIO

MAPLE GROVE

Many young folks of Maple Grove attended the dance at Pine Center Saturday night. All report a good time.

A number of boys returned from the harvest fields. Among them were: Roy Wiedewitsch, Charley Agnes and Walter Hettver.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson were Brainerd callers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Benson and two sons visited in the Wm. Rau home Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Hillman and daughter, Vivian, and Mrs. Wm. Hillman were Brainerd shoppers Friday.

Miss Elsie Linn of Brainerd visited the Wm. Rau family Monday evening.

The Misses Marguerite Rau, Sophie Barto and friends motored to Hackensack Sunday.

Miss Sophie Barto visited in the Frank Hettver home Saturday.

Mrs. Norval Mohl visited at her home Monday.

Henry Rau and family of Little Falls visited in the Andrew Olson home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Mohl and Arthur Segler visited at the Fred Segler, Jr., home Sunday.

DAGGETT BROOK

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stearns and daughter, Miss Helen, were Brainerd visitors Friday.

Mrs. A. Anderson and little daughter Eileen were in Brainerd Friday.

Miss Mildred Vanderwerker was home from high school for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richolson were Brainerd visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Olson and family visited with Mrs. Olson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Anderson Sunday.

Miss Hannah Linn called on Mrs. Charlie Olson Saturday.

Harold Freeman is home from Dakota. Other boys back from Dakota are Louie Ringering, Edward Cronquist and Helge Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Ringering and Miss Dorothy Barrett visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Ringering Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fallon were in town Friday.

Henry Thon's new barn is nicely started now.

K C Baking Powder

DOUBLE ACTION
First—in the dough
Then in the oven

Same Price for over 38 years

25 ounces for 25¢

Use less than of high priced brands

MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

BIG DOINGS

Twin Cities offer you finest week-end vacation—shows, concerts, big games, a lot to see and do. Go Northland. Enjoy your trip—save money on low fares. Safe, comfortable, courteous service always.

Bus Depot, Ransford Hotel. Round trip to Duluth $6, Twin Cities $5.50. Bemidji $4.50, Fargo $7, Detroit Lakes $6.

Save Your Car, Go—

NORTHLAND
Transportation Company

"TRIAL OF MARY DUGAN" COMING

A. H. Woods Production, Prominent Road Show Here This Month

AT PARK THEATRE OCTOBER 10

Entire New York Cast With 25 Principals to Make Appearance

Saturday, October 6, at 2 p. m. seats will be placed on sale at the Park theatre for the first and only road attraction of the season.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," an A. H. Woods production dramatized from the great story by Bayard Veiller comes to Brainerd from Duluth with an entire New York cast with 25 principals on its westward tour where it will open to long engagements on the coast. The play is now running for one year and a half in New York City and over a year in London. It is now playing in Paris, Melbourne, Berlin and other capitals of the world.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," will emotionally taut throughout its be in Brainerd for one night only. Wednesday evening, October 10 at 8:15 o'clock.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," opened in Duluth to capacity houses and an advance sell out for every performance, and with their first stop here, W. R. Hiller, announces that the indications are that every seat will be sold for the performance here.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," has been acclaimed by both press and public as the outstanding theatrical success in a generation. Is something new in the way of stage craft. The Park theatre is transformed to represent the supreme court in the State of New York with court held upon the stage and the audience serve as the jury in deciding the guilt or innocence of Mary Dugan who is charged with having killed her rich and generous banker lover. Ushers act as court bailiffs, intermissions are called, court recesses, and the curtain is never raised or lowered during the entire performance excepting at the end and then only for the purpose of receiving curtain calls.

Pathos, tragedy and comedy abound in this world-wide success. "The Trial of Mary Dugan," and will hold Brainerd theatre goers emotionally taut throughout its three vibrant, nerve-tugging acts. Mail orders are now being received at the Park boxoffice with the seat sale starting Saturday 2 p. m. should give every one ample time to obtain the best in jury seats.

WABEDO

This neck of the woods received quite a little snow storm the first of last week.

Pine River visitors during the week were Dr. Hough, Art Breeden, Claude Whitted, Leslie Shepard and family, Buck Kline and Rex Saxton.

Lena and Dorothy Caldwell visited last Tuesday with Mrs. Whitted. Mrs. Ruscoe's sister Ella Shoup visited a few days this week with her.

Ed Lane spent Saturday night with Wm. Shepard.

Ralph Felton and family took supper Sunday at the Leslie Shepard home.

Saul Whitted and wife called at H. Van Giffen and Leslie Shepard homes Sunday afternoon and at the Bruckmeyer home in the evening.

Will Shepard and family visited Sunday at the Harry Zaske home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Williams and Lena Caldwell were shopping and visiting in Minneapolis this week.

Mrs. Lissie Smith and children, Ernie Siltman, wife and baby called at the S. Whitted home early Sunday evening.

IDEAL

Andrew Danielson, Colona Oddson, Mrs. Danielson and Mrs. Oddson motored to Walker Sunday.

Henry Ecklund and Mrs. Hanscome motored to the Cities Saturday where Mrs. Hanscome will stay with her daughter for the winter.

R. Hough filled his silo Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. Fugh spent Monday evening at the Polly home on Lake Bertha listening to the radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Clause Solheim and son were callers at N. J. Knutson's Saturday evening.

Mrs. Vernon Jackson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allen and son, Mrs. Otto Stiebler spent Sunday afternoon at the Ole Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hough and family and Charles Olson called at Clarence Allen's Sunday evening.

BLIND LAKE

E. Peterson worked on the telephone line last Monday.

Emery Fick and family and his brother, L. O. Fick, made a trip to Brainerd on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKehee Friday evening.

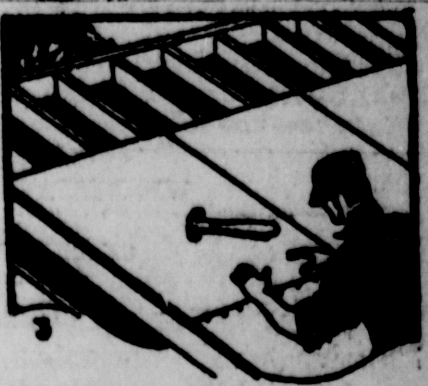

Mr. and Mrs. John Dauber and son, Dan, made a trip to Pine River Friday afternoon. Ferne and Fred

Dauber and Debora Van Giffen came home with them for the week end.

Roy Hardy had his clover hulled Saturday afternoon. E. Peterson and Jim Eibes helped him.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Erickson made a trip to Brainerd Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Fick and family left Saturday night for Pennsylvania as Mrs. Fick had received word that her mother had died.

The ladies circle is to meet with Mrs. H. Van Giffen on Wednesday of this week.

Better let me figure on repairing or replacing that roof now

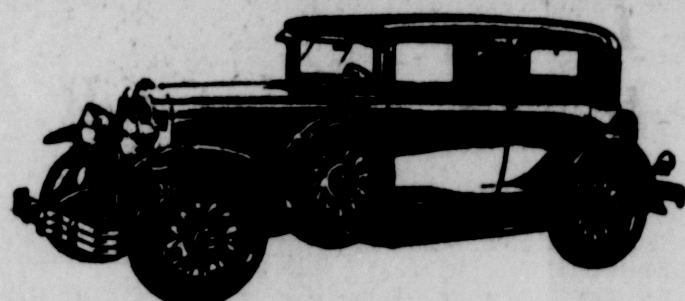

Phone 408

Vernon E. White
Contractor and Builder

Lyceum Tonite, also Thursday and Friday
2:15, 7 and 9
Come Early for Seats

Also Comedy and News Weekly

Because it's new . . . Because it's individual . . . Because it's the most beautiful automobile of the day, this new Buick . . . the car of cars is enjoying the year of years . . .

THE NEW BUICK
is THE NEW STYLE

Drawing the greatest crowds—winning the most enthusiastic praise—rolling up the biggest demand in all fine-car history—the Silver Anniversary Buick with New Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher is scoring the most sensational success ever won by any new quality car!

Millions of spectators thronging Buick showrooms in all parts of the country! Tens of thousands enthusiastically placing their orders for the Buick of Buicks and car of cars!

And all because it is not only a leading engineering achievement of the past twenty-five years—embodiment performance abilities unmatched anywhere in the world—but also because it ushers in an entirely new style—a fascinating new mode-of automotive beauty and luxury!

The motorists of America "looked to the leader for leadership" in automotive design. Buick answered with this epic car. And the public is responding with overwhelming demand—a demand that has forced the great Buick factory to production levels unprecedented in its entire history!

THE SILVER ANNIVERSARY
BUICK
With Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher

Byrd Expedition Takes Brookfield Butter!

Commander Richard E. Byrd knows the value of good food as a builder of strength and morale. His staunch steamships, the City of New York and the Chelsea, bound for the South Pole are carrying many products of Swift & Company.

Brookfield Butter, creamery fresh, is part of the precious cargoes—a sufficient supply for the band of hardy scientists and the crew during their long sojourn in the Antarctic.

Other Swift & Company products that will add pleasure to the meals aboard ship and on the icy wastes are:

Premium Frankfurts Pork Loins
Calf Liver Ox Tails Pigs Feet
"Golden West" Fowl Turkeys

Brookfield Butter is made in selected dairy regions and delivered to all parts of this country by quickest routes possible—fresh from the churn!

Thus the producer is furnished a daily cash market for his butterfat and the Swift nation-wide system of distribution assures consumers everywhere of fine creamery fresh Brookfield Butter as well as other Swift food products.

Swift & Company

Brainerd Branch, 8th and N. P. Ry. Tracks
C. H. Mills, Manager

Visitors are welcome at Swift & Company Packing Plants, 8:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M.

IMGRUND AUTO CO.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

LADIES BAND LEAVES FOR SOUTH TOMORROW

Celebrates Occasion by Parade and 15 Minute Program Before Taking Train at 1:50 P. M.

16 TO MAKE TRIP

Will Play for National American Legion Convention at San Antonio, Texas

Leaving Brainerd tomorrow at 1:50 p. m. the American Legion Auxiliary band starts its trip southward to San Antonio, Texas to play at the National American Legion convention. The band will parade in the business district of the city and will give a 15 minute program on the corner of Laurel and Sixth streets before going to the depot.

The band leaves Minneapolis tomorrow evening on the Minnesota special train. They are to be entertained at a barbecue picnic at Irondale, Mo., Friday evening. They will also stop over in St. Louis and they have a nine hour stopover in New Orleans.

The trip also calls for a day to be spent in Galveston, Texas and they have been invited to a fiesta in old Mexico where they will witness a bull fight and other Mexican entertainments.

While at the convention the ladies are to sing a number of songs composed by R. G. Jenkins that will advertise Minnesota and the lake region.

The ladies of the organization express their thanks to all their contributors and the business men of Brainerd who have helped to make this trip possible. They also extend their thanks to those who patronized their various enterprises and to those that took part in their entertainment recently.

The ladies who will make the trip are: Mrs. Ethel Fox, Mrs. W. H. Irwin, Mrs. A. C. Mraz, Mrs. Jepson, Mrs. Fred Bentley, Mrs. Robert Anderson, and the Misses Collette Mraz, Lucille Gray, Emily Mraz, Jessie Evans, Hannah Bye, Alma Brown, Georgia Brown, Mayme Scal, len, Evelyn Mraz, and Effie Drexler.

ESDON

Mrs. W. H. Workman will entertain the ESDON ladies aid on Thursday. This aid recently contributed $16 towards the Red Cross fund and $10 to Sunday school extension. "By their good works ye shall know them."

Mrs. E. E. Lofgren was called to Ironton on Friday by the illness of her father, Mr. Peck.

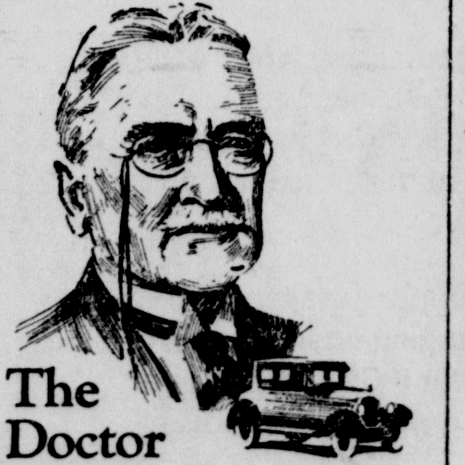

James Coffield and family motored to Pine Center Saturday evening. Harold Stafford and Mrs. A. Stafford went to Brainerd on Saturday on a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer expect to occupy the Peterson home north of highway No. 18.

Scott Elmore has returned from North Dakota, where he was working during harvest. An unusual amount of rain made the season unprofitable.

Ed Elmore, W. H. Workman, Abel Christianson and Mrs. E. L. Guin were among the school officers, who attended the county board meeting and report a large attendance and profitable meeting.

Miss Marie Guin, who teaches in No. 8 St. Mathias, spent the week end at Guin's place on Crooked Lake.

The Doctor

It is essential that my car should always operate properly and accordingly I use Champion Spark Plugs.

Champion is the better spark plug because it has an exclusive sili-manite insulator specially treated to withstand the much higher temperatures of the modern high-compression engine. Also a new patented solid copper gasket-seal that remains absolutely gas-tight under high compression. Special analysis electrodes which assure a fixed spark-gap under all driving conditions.

Beginning October 4th and every Thursday thereafter the Champion Sparkers will broadcast over the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company from 8:30 to 9:00 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

CHAMPION
Spark Plugs
MADE IN U.S.A.

MAPLE GROVE

Many young folks of Maple Grove attended the dance at Pine Center Saturday night. All report a good time.

A number of boys returned from the harvest fields. Among them were: Roy Wiedewitsch, Charley Agnes and Walter Hettver.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson were Brainerd callers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Benson and two sons visited in the Wm. Rau home Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Hillman and daughter Vivian, and Mrs. Wm. Hillman were Brainerd shoppers Friday.

Miss Elsie Linn of Brainerd visited the Wm. Rau family Monday evening.

The Misses Marguerite Rau, Sophie Barto and friends motored to Hackensack Sunday.

Miss Sophie Barto visited in the Frank Hettver home Saturday.

Mrs. Norval Mohl visited at her home Monday.

Henry Rau and family of Little Falls visited in the Andrew Olson home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Mohl and Arthur Segler visited at the Fred Segler, Jr., home Sunday.

DAGGETT BROOK

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stearns and daughter, Miss Helen, were Brainerd visitors Friday.

Mrs. A. Anderson and little daughter Elleen were in Brainerd Friday.

Miss Mildred Vanderwerker was home from high school for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richolson were Brainerd visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Olson and family visited with Mrs. Olson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Anderson Sunday.

Miss Hannah Linn called on Mrs. Charlie Olson Saturday.

Harold Freeman is home from Dakota. Other boys back from Dakota are Louie Ringering, Edward Cronquist and Helge Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Ringering and Miss Dorothy Barrett visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Ringering Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fallon were in town Friday.

Henry Thon's new barn is nicely started now.

KC Baking Powder

DOUBLE ACTION
First—in the dough
Then in the oven

Same Price for over 38 years
25 ounces for 25¢

Use less than of high priced brands

MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

BIG DOINGS

Twin Cities offer you finest week-end vacation—shows, concerts, big games, a lot to see and do. Go Northland. Enjoy your trip—save money on low fares. Safe, comfortable, courteous service always.

Bus Depot, Ransford Hotel. Round trip to Duluth $6, Twin Cities $5.50. Bemidji $4.50, Fargo $7, Detroit Lakes $5.

Save Your Car, Go—

NORTHLAND
Transportation Company

"TRIAL OF MARY DUGAN" COMING

A. H. Woods Production, Prominent Road Show Here This Month

AT PARK THEATRE OCTOBER 10
Entire New York Cast With 25 Principals to Make Appearance

Saturday, October 6, at 2 p. m. seats will be placed on sale at the Park theatre for the first and only road attraction of the season.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," an A. H. Woods production dramatized from the great story by Bayard Veiller comes to Brainerd from Duluth with an entire New York cast with 25 principals on its westward tour where it will open to long engagements on the coast. The play is now running for one year and a half in New York City and over a year in London. It is now playing in Paris, Melbourne, Berlin and other capitals of the world.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," will be in Brainerd for one night only, Wednesday evening, October 10 at 8:15 o'clock.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," opened in Duluth to capacity houses and an advance sell out for every performance, and with their first stop here, W. R. Hiller, announces that the indications are that every seat will be sold for the performance here.

"The Trial of Mary Dugan," has been acclaimed by both press and public as the outstanding theatrical success in a generation. Is it something new in the way of stage craft. The Park theatre, is transformed to represent the supreme court in the State of New York with court held upon the stage and the audience serve as the jury in deciding the guilt or innocence of Mary Dugan who is charged with having killed her rich and generous banker lover. Ushers act as court bailiffs, intermissions are called, court recesses, and the curtain is never raised or lowered during the entire performance excepting at the end and then only for the purpose of receiving curtain calls.

Pathos, tragedy and comedy abound in this world-wide success. "The Trial of Mary Dugan," and will hold Brainerd theatre goers emotionally taut throughout its three vibrant, nerve-tugging acts.

Mail orders are now being received at the Park boxoffice with the seat sale starting Saturday 2 p. m. should give every one ample time to obtain the best in jury seats.

WABEDO

This neck of the woods received quite a little snow storm the first of last week.

Pine River visitors during the week were Dr. Hough, Art Breeden, Claude Whitted, Leslie Shepard and family, Buck Kline and Rex Saxton, Lena and Dorothy Caldwell visited last Tuesday with Mrs. Whitted. Mrs. Ruscoe's sister Ella Shoup visited a few days this week with her.

Ed Lane spent Saturday night with Wm. Shepard.

Ralph Felton and family took supper Sunday at the Leslie Shepard home.

Saul Whitted and wife called at H. Van Giffen and Leslie Shepard homes Sunday afternoon and at the Bruckmeyer home in the evening.

Will Shepard and family visited Sunday at the Harry Zaske home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Williams and Lena Caldwell were shopping and visiting in Minneapolis this week.

Mrs. Lissie Smith and children, Ernie Siltman, wife and baby called at the S. Whitted home early Sunday evening.

IDEAL

Andrew Danielson, Colona Oddson, Mrs. Danielson and Mrs. Oddson motored to Walker Sunday.

Henry Ecklund and Mrs. Hanscome motored to the Cities Saturday, where Mrs. Hanscome will stay with her daughter for the winter.

R. Houge filled his silo Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh spent Monday evening at the Polly home on Lake Bertha listening to the radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Solheim and son were callers at N. J. Knutson's Saturday evening.

Mrs. Vernon Jackson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allen and son, Mrs. Otto Stiebler spent Sunday afternoon at the Ole Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Houge and family and Charles Olson called at Clarence Allen's Sunday evening.

BLIND LAKE

E. Peterson worked on the telephone line last Monday.

Emery Fick and family and his brother, L. O. Fick, made a trip to Brainerd on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKebee Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dauber and son, Dan, made a trip to Pine River Friday afternoon. Ferne and Fred

Dauber and Debora Van Giffen came home with them for the week end.

Roy Hardy had his clover bulled Saturday afternoon. E. Peterson and Jim Eibes helped him.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Erickson made a trip to Brainerd Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Fick and family left Saturday night for Pennsylvania as Mrs. Fick had received word that her mother had died.

The ladies circle is to meet with Mrs. H. Van Giffen on Wednesday of this week.

Better let me figure on repairing or replacing that roof now

Phone 408

Vernon E. White
Contractor and Builder

Lyceum Tonite, also Thursday and Friday 2:15, 7 and 9 Come Early for Seats

Yoo-Hoo, GIRLS "THE FLEET'S IN!"

A Paramount Picture STARRING CLARA BOW WITH JAMES HALL

Strike up the band, here come the sail-ers. Headin' for Clara Bow. You're on. Come on! The whole family!

Also Comedy and News Weekly

Because it's new . . . Because it's individual . . . Because it's the most beautiful automobile of the day, this new Buick . . . the car of cars is enjoying the year of years . . .

BUICK THE NEW BUICK is THE NEW STYLE

Drawing the greatest crowds—winning the most enthusiastic praise—rolling up the biggest demand in all fine-car history—the Silver Anniversary Buick with New Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher is scoring the most sensational success ever won by any new quality car!

Millions of spectators thronging Buick showrooms in all parts of the country! Tens of thousands enthusiastically placing their orders for the Buick of Buicks and car of cars!

And all because it is not only a leading engineering achievement of the past twenty-five years—embodiment of performance abilities unmatched anywhere in the world—but also because it ushers in an entirely new style—a fascinating new mode—of automotive beauty and luxury!

The motorists of America "looked to the leader for leadership" in automotive design. Buick answered with this epic car. And the public is responding with overwhelming demand—a demand that has forced the great Buick factory to production levels unprecedented in its entire history!

THE SILVER ANNIVERSARY BUICK
With Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher

IMGRUND AUTO CO.
WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Byrd Expedition Takes Brookfield Butter!

Commander Richard E. Byrd knows the value of good food as a builder of strength and morale. His staunch steamships, the City of New York and the Chelsea, bound for the South Pole are carrying many products of Swift & Company.

Brookfield Butter, creamery fresh, is part of the precious cargoes—a sufficient supply for the band of hardy scientists and the crew during their long sojourn in the Antarctic.

Other Swift & Company products that will add pleasure to the meals aboard ship and on the icy wastes are:

Premium Frankfurts Pork Loins
Calf Liver Ox Tails Pigs Feet
"Golden West" Fowl Turkeys

Brookfield Butter is made in selected dairy regions and delivered to all parts of this country by quickest routes possible—fresh from the churn!

Thus the producer is furnished a daily cash market for his butterfat and the Swift nation-wide system of distribution assures consumers everywhere of fine creamery fresh Brookfield Butter as well as other Swift food products.

Swift & Company

Brainerd Branch, 8th and N. P. Ry. Tracks
C. H. Mills, Manager

Visitors are welcome at Swift & Company Packing Plants, 8:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month, 50c; three months $1.25; 1 year, $5.00.
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00; one year, $4.00.
Weekly Dispatch—One year, $1.50.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1928

CHRISTIANSON'S ADDRESS

GOVERNOR THEODORE CHRISTIANSON, in his opening speech of his campaign for re-election, delivered last evening at Hutchinson, defended the re-organization act and the finance board. The matter is so important that we quote it at length:

"I understand there are some candidates for office who want to repeal the Reorganization Act and abolish the Finance Board, which they choose to refer to as the 'Big Three.' The voters, however, seem to be quite well committed to the idea that there is no immediate threat to ordered liberty, no particular jeopardy to constitutional rights, if somebody in St. Paul makes it his business to see to it that the people's dollar is made to yield 100 cents of service.

"Which one of the 'Big Three' do they want to abolish? The budget director? The purchasing agent? Or the comptroller?

"Certainly they do not want to abolish the budget system. Every state whose statesmen have gotten beyond the political kindergarten has one. It is inconceivable that anybody in the second quarter of the twentieth century should contend that the legislature should hear only those who want to spend the tax-payers' money and should not listen to those whose duty it is to study expenditures from the standpoint of those who pay the bill.

"Or is it the purchasing agent they are after? So are those who have things to sell to the state. Just before the Supreme Court handed down its decision in the University case, the University authorities bought a new Cadillac car, and issued a state warrant to pay for it. They did not go through the purchasing agent. But the so-called 'Big Three,' who at that time passed on University expenditures, stopped payment on it on the ground that the price paid was excessive. The purchasing agent re-opened negotiations with the dealer with the result that the price was reduced $375.57. Was that a serious invasion of constitutional rights?

"Or is it the comptroller they are after? It is his duty to establish a uniform system of accounting which will reflect the financial condition and operation of the state and its various departments. Is there anything wrong in that? He also exercises the functions of public examiner; he audits the books of the state departments and other public bodies. Do they want the state to stop examining public accounts?

"Without a uniform system of bookkeeping, neither the pre-audit nor the budget system could be made effective. Without periodic examinations of accounts, public funds would not be secure.

"If neither the budget director, the purchasing agent, nor the comptroller can be dispensed with, what is the use of talking about 'abolishing the Big Three'?

"I suspect it is the pre-audit, the power of the Finance Board to limit expenditures, that is causing some politicians so much concern. A statement of estimated expenditures for any state activity must be filed in advance, so that the Finance Board may stop a project before obligation for it is incurred. The pre-audit is based on the theory that it doesn't do any good to lock the barn door unless you do it before the horse is stolen.

"If a proposed expenditure is for a customary or usual project, it is allowed as a matter of routine. If it is unusual, if it embarks the state in a new enterprise or commits it to a new activity, it is scrutinized. If the Finance Board rejects it, the department head has the right of appeal to the governor. Surely, if the chief executive of this state is to have anything to say about the administration for which he is responsible, he ought to have the power to determine whether the men he appoints should be permitted to commit the state to enlarged programs that will call for an increased budget."

The conduct of a system of economy in a home, community, village, county, state or nation calls for a man with a strong backbone. It is easier to spend money than to save it, easier to gain the favor of some by expenditures than by economizing. The governor has never claimed infallibility. He may have made some mistakes. But as he looks back upon his nearly four years of service as governor, we agree with him that mistakes may have been of the head and not of the heart.

As stated in his address: "I determined when I took the oath of office in January, 1925, not to permit an increase of appropriations over those of 1923. When the appropriation bills reached me, they contained certain items that were essential, such as appropriations for the maintenance of state departments and state institutions. These could not be vetoed. There were other items that were desirable perhaps, but non-essential. My task was to strike out enough of these to bring the total down. In determining the relative desirability of non-essential items, there was plenty of room for error. Perhaps no two persons could be found in the state who would pick exactly the same ones for executioner's ax.

"Enough could be said in support of any of these items to make it appear that a veto would be a mistake. And yet, to allow all of them to stand and to increase the tax levy at a time of serious economic stringency would be a greater mistake. In avoiding the greater mistake, I undoubtedly subjected myself to some criticism for making what many assumed to be errors, although lesser ones."

PLEASED BY RECEPTION

The newly formed Radio club gives every assurance of coping with the difficulties surrounding reception of being able to enlist agencies that will assist in remedying conditions.

A committee was named with Harold Nelson as chairman to see the water and light board and in his conference with the board he was offered every assurance of cooperation.

The Dispatch weeks ago mentioned the fact that the best way to improve radio conditions was to form a club and get united action. The club reports a large and growing membership and much interest manifested. All steps taken are considered and given full discussion and in the end the united body will make more progress than individual efforts, many-sided and operating without plan.

CHRISTIANSON STRESSES

ECONOMY AS ISSUE

(Continued from Page 1)

been a sharp reduction of the State's indebtedness payable out of general tax receipts, from $15,719,000 to $6,318,508. In other words, there has been a reduction of 60 per cent in general state indebtedness, and this has been accomplished without increasing the tax levy, through rigid adherence to the policy of paying off old and creating no new indebtedness."

"My second pledge is to stand by the budget system set up in the Reorganization Act of 1925, to strengthen it where necessary, and to urge upon the Legislature such amendments as will clarify it." The importance of the budget system is summed up in the statement, "Surely no one would contend that the Legislature should hear only those who want to spend the taxpayers' money and should not hear those whose duty it is to study expenditures from the standpoint of those who pay the bill."

Answering further the challenge of those who urge repeal of the Reorganization Act and abolition of the Finance Board, the Governor showed the purchasing agent and the comptroller to be as essential as the budget director. The comptroller has in charge the examining of public accounts, and has the added function of the pre-audit. Statements of estimated expenditures are filed in advance. "If it is a customary or usual project," the Governor explained, "the expenditure is allowed as a matter of routine. If it is unusual, if it embarks the State in a new enterprise or commits it to a new activity, it is scrutinized. The pre-audit is based on the theory that it doesn't do any good to lock the barn door unless you do it before the horse is stolen."

The purchasing agent, a member of the Finance Board, has proved his usefulness to the State. "If critics of the budget system are 'after him,' they have company," said the Governor, among "those who want to sell things to the State." He cited an instance "Just before the Supreme Court handed down its decision in the University case the University authorities bought a new Cadillac car, and issued a state warrant to pay for it. They did not go through the purchasing agent. But the so-called 'Big Three,' who at that time passed on University expenditures, stopped payment on it on the ground that the price paid was excessive. The purchasing agent re-opened negotiations with the dealer with the result that the price was reduced $375.57."

"My third pledge is to continue to do everything within my power to conserve the natural resources of the State and to prevent their exploitation by selfish private interests.

"I believe there is no immediate need for any water power development that will destroy the scenic beauties of northern Minnesota; and when the time comes, if it ever does, when the use of public waters for industrial development shall be of greater necessity and value than their use for recreational purposes, they should be reserved to the people and not given away for private gain.

"The State, during my administration, has repeatedly and unequivocally taken this position, and will continue to take it whenever the right of the people to the exclusive use of their own resources is challenged or threatened.

"I favor Federal legislation prohibiting interference with natural water levels on international waters without specific sanction of the Congress, and similar legislation to prevent such interference with water levels on streams subject to state jurisdiction without the consent of a competent and impartial state authority.

"I favor expansion and improvement of the State's agencies for the propagation of game and fish. Recently we closed the game farm at Mound. We did it because we found that it had cost the State seven dollars each to produce birds it could buy for four. This condition did not accord with the economy program. It is my purpose to ask the next Legislature for sanction for a plan that embraces the purchase of an extensive tract of cheap land for game preserves and public shooting grounds and the operation in connection therewith of a larger game farm on which birds can be raised more economically. This plan, like that which has been followed in Pennsylvania with notable success, will be financed exclusively from the funds of the game and fish commissioner, supplied by the sportsmen of the State, and will not cost the taxpayers one cent."

Foremost in the conservation program is reforestation. Governor Christianson reviewed steps taken during his administration to develop an effective forest policy; submission by the 1925 Legislature of the forestry amendment; its ratification in 1926; enactment of a law by the 1927 Legislature to make its provisions effective; creation of an interim commission which has studied the forestry problem and its attendant problem of taxation and will submit definite recommendations to the next Legislature.

"Minnesota should have a comprehensive and unified department of conservation, under a director of conservation, which should embrace every activity relating to the conservation of the State's resources. This was recommended by the commission on reorganization of the state government, of which I was a member, four years ago.

"Some method must be devised to enable certain northern counties which have a heavy ditch bond indebtedness, a low taxable valuation, and high percentage of tax delinquency, to avoid default and forfeiture. The State of Minnesota does not want foreclosures against any of its municipal subdivisions if it is reasonably possible to prevent them."

"One of the wasteful practices which had long prevailed in this State was that of selling State land for uses to which it was not adapted. Out-over land entirely unsuited to agriculture was sold to farmers, and other land, capable of being made into productive farms, was allowed to remain idle. Many abandoned houses in northern Minnesota are left as tragic monuments of an unwise land sales policy. To prevent recurrence of this folly in the future, provision has been made for the beginning of a classification of state-owned lands. It is true that the classification now being made will cover only lands suitable for reforestation; but the work now being done will be a helpful approach to the more comprehensive program which will eventually be adopted.

"My fourth pledge is to continue to do everything possible to promote the cause of agriculture."

An adequate scheme of farm relief, said the Governor, calls for the maintenance of low interest rates on farm mortgages; for a change in our system of taxation, which now throws the heaviest burden on property and especially on real estate; for lower transportation rates through development of the St. Lawrence waterway and the Mississippi river, and continuance of the administration's fight for lower freight rates; for encouragement of co-operative marketing; for ample tariff protection.

"In addition there is the problem of making the tariff effective on commodities having an exportable surplus," the Governor said. Recalling that he had supported the McNary-Haugen Bill, he pointed out that neither major party had accepted the equalization fee. He declared his confidence that Herbert Hoover can and will find a speedy solution for what he calls "the most urgent economic problem." He quoted from Mr. Hoover's acceptance speech to show that the Republican candidate for the Presidency is earnestly committed to a solution of farm problems.

Sharing the program with Governor Christianson at Hutchinson were Arthur E. Nelson, Republican candidate for United States Senator, and Congressman August H. Anderson of the Third district. Both spoke briefly, Mr. Nelson showing the importance to Minnesota of aggressive action through party channels in Washington, and Mr. Anderson citing benefits to Minnesota farmers of tariff protection as provided by the Republican administration. Jay Greaves of Glencoe, chairman of the McLeod family Republican committee, presided.

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today
WCCO (405)

5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
6:00 p. m.—Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association.
7:00 p. m.—Cecilian Singers; Alma Weston Smith, accompanist; Paul Oberg, pianist.
8:00 p. m.—Ipsa Troubadours.
8:30 p. m.—Palmolive hour. Time announcement.
9:30 p. m.—Democratic national committee.
10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
10:05 p. m.—Dance program—Wally Erickson's orchestra.
11:30 p. m.—Organ recital—Eddie Dunstetter.

KSTP Features

6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert—Organ feature.
6:33 p. m.—Rev. W. C. Sainsbury—The Democrat of the Dinner Table.
7:30 p. m.—Mabel from the Music Counter.
7:45 p. m.—Junior league program.
8:01 p. m.—Highlights of light opera.
9:00 p. m.—Adventures of Happy and Sam.
9:30 p. m.—KSTP Limited—Dance feature.
10:10 p. m.—Dance program.
11:00 p. m.—KSTP Limited—Dance feature.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1928 by United Press
WEAF Network, 7 p. m.—American magazine hour.
WEAF Network, 8:30 p. m.—Palmolive hour.
WOR Network, 8:30 p. m.—Military band.
WJZ Network, 10 p. m.—Slumber music.
WMAQ, Chicago (448), 10 p. m.—The Ten O'clock musicale.

Thursday
WCCO (405)

7:00 a. m.—Time signal program.

Feeling Run-Down?

Dr. A. W. Chase Co.
TONIC

quickly restores that feeling of fitness. It tends to increase weight, aid digestion, stimulate the appetite and clear the complexion.

For your protection the Portrait and Signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., is on every box.

Price 60c at your Druggist or you may order direct from

THE DR. A. W. CHASE COMPANY, INC.
3rd St. & Van Alst Ave.
Long Island City, N. Y.

9:00 a. m.—Educational program by Hamline university.
9:15 a. m.—Program for the day and news bulletin.
9:50 a. m.—New York stock exchange; weather and market reports.
11:30 a. m.—Market reports and New York stock exchange.
12:00 m.—Farm hour—Lowry trio.
12:30 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
1:30 p. m.—Weather and market reports.
3:00 p. m.—New York stock exchange.
5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert—Lowry orchestra.
7:00 p. m.—With Our State Government.

7:15 p. m.—Common Sense in Religion—Rev. Frederick M. Eliot of Unity church, St. Paul.
7:30 p. m.—Howard Melaney, tenor; Paul Oberg, accompanist.
8:00 p. m.—Republican national committee.
8:30 p. m.—Levin Craftsmen.
9:00 p. m.—Paul Oberg, pianist.
9:12 p. m.—Theatrical hour from stage of Minnesota theatre.
10:12 p. m.—Weather report.
KSTP Features
6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert.
6:15 p. m.—4-H Club Crier.
7:01 p. m.—Trail Blazers.
8:01 p. m.—Sweetest Maid hour.
9:00 p. m.—The Beach Combers.
9:30 p. m.—Musical feature.
10:10 p. m.—KSTP Limited—Dance feature.
12:00 p. m.—Midnight club.

Five Best Features

Copyright 1928 by United Press
N. B. C. coast-to-coast network and Columbia chain, 12:15 p. m.—Opening game, world series, direct from Yankee stadium.
WJZ Network, 9:30 p. m.—Blue Danube nights.
WEAF Network, 8:30 p. m.—The Cabin Door.
WOR, Newark (422), 9 p. m.—Little Symphony orchestra.
WJZ Network, 8:30 p. m.—Maxwell hour.

Spain Has Oldest City

Toledo, Spain, is the oldest existing city. Spanish legend variously ascribes its foundation to Hercules, Tubal, grandson of Noah, and to Jews exiled by Nebuchadnezzar. Livy mentions its capture by the Romans in 193 B. C.

Wednesday Night, Oct. 10

Mail Orders Now

Would you put her in prison?

YOU WILL BE ONE OF THE JURY TO DECIDE HER FATE WHEN YOU ATTEND HER TRIAL!!

by
BAYARD
VEILLER

A. H. WOODS presents
The Melodramatic Sensation
That's Playing Around the World

A CAST
OF 50

The TRIAL
of MARY
DUGAN

NOT A MOTION PICTURE

Lower Floor $1.50-$2.00. Boxes $2.50. Balcony $1.00-$1.50.

PARK Theatre Seat Sale Starts Saturday, 2 P.M.

Consider the diplodocus

The diplodocus was the most gigantic animal that ever lived. It was eighty-five feet long and weighed scores of tons. Yet despite its tremendous bulk it had a brain the size of an English walnut.

Millions of years ago the diplodocus flourished. But when conditions changed, it was unable to adapt itself to a new existence. Other animals, less strong, but more intelligent, invaded its domain. And so, with the unceasing march of progress, its race died out and vanished.

It is just as necessary today as it was in the Upper Jurassic period to keep abreast of the times. Conditions are changing under our very eyes. New inventions, new products are constantly being brought forward to make life easier and happier. If we do not take advantage of them, we fall behind the procession.

Advertisements are the modern bulletins of progress. They tell you where to find the latest and most efficient aids to human comfort, they knit together the great fabric of consumers with needs to fill, and producers with goods to fill them. Read the advertisements. They give you the information which is essential for the wise and economical expenditure of your money.

Advertisements keep you abreast of the times. Read them!

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH CO.
Office in Dispatch Building, Sixth St. So.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily Dispatch by Carrier—One month, 50c; three months $1.25; 1 year, $5.00.
Daily Dispatch by Mail, Outside of City—Three months $1.00; one year, $4.00.
Weekly Dispatch—One year, $1.50.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1928

CHRISTIANSON'S ADDRESS

GOVERNOR THEODORE CHRISTIANSON, in his opening speech of his campaign for re-election, delivered last evening at Hutchinson, defended the re-organization act and the finance board. The matter is so important that we quote it at length:

"I understand there are some candidates for office who want to repeal the Reorganization Act and abolish the Finance Board, which they choose to refer to as the 'Big Three.' The voters, however, seem to be quite well committed to the idea that there is no immediate threat to ordered liberty, no particular jeopardy to constitutional rights, if somebody in St. Paul makes it his business to see to it that the people's dollar is made to yield 100 cents of service.

"Which one of the 'Big Three' do they want to abolish? The budget director? The purchasing agent? Or the comptroller?"

"Certainly they do not want to abolish the budget system. Every state whose statesmen have gotten beyond the political kindergarten has one. It is inconceivable that anybody in the second quarter of the twentieth century should contend that the legislature should hear only those who want to spend the taxpayers' money and should not listen to those whose duty is to study expenditures from the standpoint of those who pay the bill.

"Or is it the purchasing agent they are after? So are those who have things to sell to the state. Just before the Supreme Court handed down its decision in the University case, the University authorities bought a new Cadillac car, and issued a state warrant to pay for it. They did not go through the purchasing agent. But the so-called 'Big Three,' who at that time passed on University expenditures, stopped payment on it on the ground that the price paid was excessive. The purchasing agent re-opened negotiations with the dealer with the result that the price was reduced $375.57. Was that a serious invasion of constitutional rights?"

"Or is it the comptroller they are after? It is his duty to establish a uniform system of accounting which will reflect the financial condition and operation of the state and its various departments. Is there anything wrong in that? He also exercises the functions of public examiner; he audits the books of the state departments and other public bodies. Do they want the state to stop examining public accounts?"

"Without a uniform system of bookkeeping, neither the pre-audit nor the budget system could be made effective. Without periodic examinations of accounts, public funds would not be secure.

"If neither the budget director, the purchasing agent, nor the comptroller can be dispensed with, what is the use of talking about 'abolishing the Big Three'?"

"I suspect it is the pre-audit, the power of the Finance Board to limit expenditures, that is causing some politicians so much concern. A statement of estimated expenditures for any state activity must be filed in advance, so that the Finance Board may stop a project before obligation for it is incurred. The pre-audit is based on the theory that it doesn't do any good to lock the barn door unless you do it before the horse is stolen.

"If a proposed expenditure is for a customary or usual project, it is allowed as a matter of routine. If it is unusual, if it embarks the state in a new enterprise or commits it to a new activity, it is scrutinized. If the Finance Board rejects it, the department head has the right of appeal to the governor. Surely, if the chief executive of this state is to have anything to say about the administration for which he is responsible, he ought to have the power to determine whether the men he appoints should be permitted to commit the state to enlarged programs that will call for an increased budget."

The conduct of a system of economy in a home, community, village, county, state or nation calls for a man with a strong backbone. It is easier to spend money than to save it, easier to gain the favor of some by expenditures than by economizing. The governor has never claimed infallibility. He may have made some mistakes. But as he looks back upon his nearly four years of service as governor, we agree with him that mistakes may have been of the head and not of the heart.

As stated in his address: "I determined when I took the oath of office in January, 1925, not to permit an increase of appropriations over those of 1923. When the appropriation bills reached me, they contained certain items that were essential, such as appropriations for the maintenance of state departments and state institutions. These could not be vetoed. There were other items that were desirable perhaps, but non-essential. My task was to strike out enough of these to bring the total down. In determining the relative desirability of non-essential items, there was plenty of room for error. Perhaps no two persons could be found in the state who would pick exactly the same ones for executioner's ax.

"Enough could be said in support of any of these items to make it appear that a veto would be a mistake. And yet, to allow all of them to stand and to increase the tax levy at a time of serious economic stringency would be a greater mistake. In avoiding the greater mistake, I undoubtedly subjected myself to some criticism for making what many assumed to be errors, although lesser ones."

PLEASED BY RECEPTION

THE newly formed Radio club gives every assurance of coping with the difficulties surrounding reception of being able to enlist agencies that will assist in remedying conditions.

A committee was named with Harold Nelson as chairman to see the water and light board and in his conference with the board he was offered every assurance of cooperation.

The Dispatch weeks ago mentioned the fact that the best way to improve radio conditions was to form a club and get united action. The club reports a large and growing membership and much interest manifested. All steps taken are considered and given full discussion and in the end the united body will make more progress than individual efforts, many-sided and operating without plan.

CHRISTIANSON STRESSES

ECONOMY AS ISSUE

(Continued from Page 1)

been a sharp reduction of the State's indebtedness payable out of general tax receipts, from $15,719,000 to $6,318,358. In other words, there has been a reduction of 60 per cent in general state indebtedness, and this has been accomplished without increasing the tax levy, through rigid adherence to the policy of paying off old and creating no new indebtedness.

"My second pledge is to stand by the budget system set up in the Reorganization Act of 1925, to strengthen it where necessary, and to urge upon the Legislature such amendments as will clarify it." The importance of the budget system is summed up in the statement, "Surely no one would contend that the Legislature should hear only those who want to spend the taxpayers' money and should not hear those whose duty it is to study expenditures from the standpoint of those who pay the bill."

Answering further the challenge of those who urge repeal of the Reorganization Act and abolition of the Finance Board, the Governor showed the purchasing agent and the comptroller to be as essential as the budget director. The comptroller has in charge the examining of public accounts, and has the added function of the pre-audit. Statements of estimated expenditures are filed in advance. "If it is a customary or usual project," the Governor explained, "the expenditure is allowed as a matter of routine. If it is unusual, if it embarks the State in a new enterprise or commits it to a new activity, it is scrutinized. The pre-audit is based on the theory that it doesn't do any good to lock the barn door unless you do it before the horse is stolen."

The purchasing agent, a member of the Finance Board, has proved his usefulness to the State. If critics of the budget system are "after him," they have company, said the Governor, among "those who want to sell things to the State." He cited an instance "Just before the Supreme Court handed down its decision in the University case the University authorities bought a new Cadillac car, and issued a state warrant to pay for it. They did not go through the purchasing agent. But the so-called 'Big Three,' who at that time passed on University expenditures, stopped payment on it on the ground that the price paid was excessive. The purchasing agent re-opened negotiations with the dealer with the result that the price was reduced $375.57."

"My third pledge is to continue to do everything within my power to conserve the natural resources of the State and to prevent their exploitation by selfish private interests.

"I believe there is no immediate need for any water power development that will destroy the scenic beauties of northern Minnesota; and when the time comes, if it ever does, when the use of public waters for industrial development shall be of greater necessity and value than their use for recreational purposes, they should be reserved to the people and not given away for private gain.

"The State, during my administration, has repeatedly and unequivocally taken this position, and will continue to take it whenever the right of the people to the exclusive use of their own resources is challenged or threatened.

"I favor Federal legislation prohibiting interference with natural water levels on international waters without specific sanction of the Congress, and similar legislation to prevent such interference with water levels on streams subject to state jurisdiction without the consent of a competent and impartial state authority.

"I favor expansion and improvement of the State's agencies for the propagation of game and fish. Recently we closed the game farm at Mound. We did it because we found that it had cost the State seven dollars each to produce birds which could be bought for four. This condition did not accord with the economy program. It is my purpose to ask the next Legislature for sanction for a plan that embraces the purchase of an extensive tract of cheap land for game preserves and public shooting grounds and the operation in connection therewith of a larger game farm on which birds can be raised numerously and economically. This plan, like that which has been followed in Pennsylvania with notable success, will be financed exclusively from the funds of the game and fish commissioner, supplied by the sportsmen of the State, and will not cost the taxpayers one cent.

Foremost in the conservation program is reforestation. Governor Christianson reviewed steps taken during his administration to develop an effective forest policy; submission by the 1925 Legislature of the forestry amendment; its ratification in 1926; enactment of a law by the 1927 Legislature to make its provisions effective; creation of an interim commission which has studied the forestry problem and its attendant problem of taxation and will submit definite recommendations to the next Legislature. "Minnesota should have a comprehensive and unified department of conservation, under a director of conservation, which should embrace every activity relating to the conservation of the State's resources. This was recommended by the commission on reorganization of the state government, of which I was a member, four years ago.

"Some method must be devised to enable certain northern counties which have a heavy ditch bond indebtedness, a low taxable valuation, and high percentage of tax delinquency, to avoid default and forfeiture. The State of Minnesota does not want foreclosures against any of its municipal subdivisions if it is reasonably possible to prevent them."

"One of the wasteful practices which had long prevailed in this State was that of selling State land for uses to which it was not adapted. Cut-over land entirely unsuited to agriculture was sold to farmers, and other land, capable of being made into productive farms, was allowed to remain idle. Many abandoned lands in northern Minnesota are left as tragic monuments of an unwise land sales policy. To prevent recurrence of this folly in the future, provision has been made for the beginning of a classification of state-owned lands. It is true that the classification now being made will cover only lands suitable for reforestation; but the work now being done will be a helpful approach to the more comprehensive program which will eventually be adopted.

"My fourth pledge is to continue to do everything possible to promote the cause of agriculture."

An adequate scheme of farm relief, said the Governor, calls for the maintenance of low interest rates on farm mortgages; for a change in our system of taxation, which now throws the heaviest burden on property and especially on real estate, for lower transportation rates through development of the St. Lawrence waterway and the Mississippi river, and continuance of the administration's fight for lower freight rates; for encouragement of co-operative marketing; for ample tariff protection.

"In addition there is the problem of making the tariff effective on commodities having an exportable surplus," the Governor said. Recalling that he had supported the McNary-Haugen Bill, he pointed out that neither major party had accepted the equalization fee. He declared his confidence that Herbert Hoover can and will find a speedy solution for what he calls "the most urgent economic problem." He quoted from Mr. Hoover's acceptance speech to show that the Republican Candidate for the Presidency is earnestly committed to a solution of farm problems.

Sharing the program with Governor Christianson at Hutchinson were Arthur E. Nelson, Republican candidate for United States Senator, and Congressman August H. Anderson of the Third district. Both spoke briefly, Mr. Nelson showing the importance to Minnesota of aggressive action through party channels in Washington, and Mr. Anderson citing benefits to Minnesota farmers of tariff protection as provided by the Republican administration. Jay Greaves of Menace, chairman of the McLeod county Republican committee, presided.

RADIO PROGRAMS

Today

WCCO (405)

- 5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
- 5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
- 6:00 p. m.—Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association.
- 7:00 p. m.—Cecilian Singers; Alma Weston Smith, accompanist; Paul Oberg, pianist.
- 8:00 p. m.—Ipsa Troubadours.
- 8:30 p. m.—Palmolive hour. Time announcement.
- 9:30 p. m.—Democratic national committee.
- 10:00 p. m.—Weather report.
- 10:05 p. m.—Dance program—Wally Erickson's orchestra.
- 11:30 p. m.—Organ recital—Eddie Dunstetter.

KSTP Features

- 6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert—Organ feature.
- 6:33 p. m.—Rev. W. C. Sainsbury—The Democrat of the Dinner Table.
- 7:30 p. m.—Mabel from the Music Counter.
- 7:45 p. m.—Junior league program.
- 8:01 p. m.—Highlights of light opera.
- 9:00 p. m.—Adventures of Happy and Sam.
- 9:30 p. m.—KSTP Limited—Dance feature.
- 10:10 p. m.—Dance program.
- 11:00 p. m.—KSTP Limited—Dance feature.

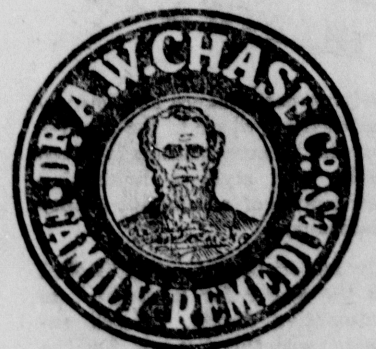

Five Best Features

- Copyright 1928 by United Press
- WEAF Network, 7 p. m.—American magazine hour.
- WEAF Network, 8:30 p. m.—Palmolive hour.
- WOR Network, 8:30 p. m.—Military band.
- WJZ Network, 10 p. m.—Slumber music.
- WMAQ, Chicago (448), 10 p. m.—The Ten O'clock musicale.

Thursday

WCCO (405)

- 7:00 a. m.—Time signal program.

Feeling Run-Down?

Dr. A. W. Chase Co.
TONIC

quickly restores that feeling of fitness. It tends to increase weight, aid digestion, stimulate the appetite and clear the complexion.

For your protection the Portrait and Signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., is on every box.

Price 60c at your Druggist or you may order direct from

THE DR. A. W. CHASE COMPANY, INC.
3rd St. & Van Alst Ave.,
Long Island City, N. Y.

- 9:00 a. m.—Educational program by Hamline university.
- 9:15 a. m.—Program for the day and news bulletin.
- 9:50 a. m.—New York stock exchange; weather and market reports.
- 11:30 a. m.—Market reports and New York stock exchange.
- 12:00 p. m.—Farm hour—Lowry trio.
- 12:30 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
- 1:30 p. m.—Weather and market reports.
- 3:00 p. m.—New York stock exchange.
- 5:45 p. m.—Livestock market summary.
- 5:55 p. m.—Summary market report and road conditions bulletin.
- 6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert—Lowry orchestra.
- 7:00 p. m.—With Our State Government.

- 7:15 p. m.—Common Sense in Religion—Rev. Frederick M. Elliot of Unity church, St. Paul.
- 7:30 p. m.—Howard Meaney, tenor; Paul Oberg, accompanist.
- 8:00 p. m.—Republican national committee.
- 8:30 p. m.—Levin Craftsmen.
- 9:00 p. m.—Paul Oberg, pianist.
- 9:12 p. m.—Theatrical hour from stage of Minnesota theatre.
- 10:12 p. m.—Weather report.

KSTP Features

- 6:00 p. m.—Dinner concert.
- 6:15 p. m.—4-H Club Crier.
- 7:01 p. m.—Trail Blazers.
- 8:01 p. m.—Sweetest Maid hour.
- 9:00 p. m.—The Beach Combers.
- 9:30 p. m.—Musical feature.
- 10:10 p. m.—KSTP Limited—Dance feature.
- 12:00 p. m.—Midnight club.

Five Best Features

- Copyright 1928 by United Press
- N. B. C. coast-to-coast network and Columbia chain, 12:15 p. m.—Opening game, world series, direct from Yankee stadium.
- WJZ Network, 9:30 p. m.—Blue Danube nights.
- WEAF Network, 8:30 p. m.—The Cabin Door.
- WOR, Newark (422), 9 p. m.—Little Symphony orchestra.
- WJZ Network, 8:30 p. m.—Maxwell hour.

Spain Has Oldest City

Toledo, Spain, is the oldest existing city. Spanish legend variously ascribes its foundation to Hercules, Tubal, grandson of Noah, and to Jews exiled by Nebuchadnezzar. Livy mentions its capture by the Romans in 193 B. C.

Wednesday Night, Oct. 10

Mail Orders Now

Would you put her in prison?

YOU WILL BE ONE OF THE JURY TO DECIDE HER FATE WHEN YOU ATTEND HER TRIAL!!!

by BAYARD VELLER

A-H-WOODS presents The Melodramatic Sensation That's Playing Around the World

A CAST OF 50

The TRIAL of MARY DUGAN

NOT A MOTION PICTURE

Lower Floor $1.50-$2.00. Boxes $2.50. Balcony $1.00-$1.50.

PARK Theatre Seat Sale Starts Saturday, 2 P.M.

Consider the diplodocus

The diplodocus was the most gigantic animal that ever lived. It was eighty-five feet long and weighed scores of tons. Yet despite its tremendous bulk it had a brain the size of an English walnut.

Millions of years ago the diplodocus flourished. But when conditions changed, it was unable to adapt itself to a new existence. Other animals, less strong, but more intelligent, invaded its domain. And so, with the unceasing march of progress, its race died out and vanished.

It is just as necessary today as it was in the Upper Jurassic period to keep abreast of the times. Conditions are changing under our very eyes. New inventions, new products are constantly being brought forward to make life easier and happier. If we do not take advantage of them, we fall behind the procession.

Advertisements are the modern bulletins of progress. They tell you where to find the latest and most efficient aids to human comfort, they knit together the great fabric of consumers with needs to fill, and producers with goods to fill them. Read the advertisements. They give you the information which is essential for the wise and economical expenditure of your money.

Advertisements keep you abreast of the times. Read them!

B. H. S. WARRIORS PREPARE FOR LITTLE FALLS ON FRIDAY

COACH KASCH PUTS GRIDDERS THROUGH DAILY SCRIMMAGES

BRAINERD FANS ASSURED OF A CLOSE BATTLE; DOWN RIVER SQUAD STRONG THIS YEAR

LAMMON RETURNS TO RANKS AFTER BEING ON INJURED LIST FOR A WEEK

BRAINERD high school athletic warriors are taking strenuous workouts each day at the municipal grounds and will continue to do so the rest of the week in preparation for the game here Friday with Little Falls.

No work is being left undone by Coach Warren Kasch in bringing his men up to mid-season form for the Friday game.

BRAINERD will tackle the down river team at 3:45 P. M. at the municipal grounds. Little Falls is rated as having a better team this year than last so Brainerd can take no chances.

Yesterday afternoon the backfield and line went through blocking drills and then the work ended up with a scrimmage. New formation will be given to add to the offensive attack for the remainder of the week as well as defensive work. The line is improving gradually and is showing fine form at the present. However there is much more to do with both line and backfield to reach the standard desired.

There were many weaknesses at St. Cloud last Friday as well as in the game against Milaca, although the locals in both encounters displayed a brand of football equal to that of their opponents.

Lammon has returned to the ranks physically fit after being on the injured list for over a week. He is little but will probably be able to hold his position at left end again. Guin, who played left end last week in the St. Cloud Cathedral game, is being groomed for a half back position and will no doubt see plenty of action there this year. He is hitting the line hard and improving with each daily workout. Other ends showing promise are Hugh McCaffrey, Schuett, Hoffbauer and Moe. It is still a battle between Garvey, Paine and Geist for the regular tackle position. All three men are large and should gradually improve with the season.

Closely following these men are George McCaffrey and Lien, who are making every effort to place themselves on the first string. Foster and Abrahamson are improving in the guard position and are being closely followed by Larson and Nelson, who have the advantage in weight but lack experience and speed. At center, Art Hautala seems to be the mainstay of the candidates. He is doing good work for the short time he has been in the center position and should remain a valuable fixture there for the remainder of the season. Kinney who has been substituting for Hautala, has been out with a fractured foot but he will be back with the team by next week. Wyett has been passing the ball on the second string in the absence of Kinney.

This week Wise returned to the squad and makes another valuable backfield man to the already large group. He will no doubt work for the position held by Dybvik and Halvorson. This position will be well taken care of between these three men. At halfback Gabiou and Swanson have been improving with each game and are relieved by Guin, Kleven, Mayo, Elwood Anderson, Marshall and Sundberg. Fuller is still taking care of fullback in creditable fashion. The husky captain has led his teammates through the first two games in fine style.

BRAINERD fans will be assured of a fast game Friday afternoon. It will be the second home game of the season. Two more games will follow, those with Staples and Aitkin, respectively. The Brainerd team will no doubt furnish its same type of attack this next Friday against Little Falls. However, it will not be known until the teams open battle just what tactics Coach Kasch will employ. Coach Kasch is a firm believer in strategy and believes that correct strategy used at the right time is the turning point in many a game.

FIFTH GAME OF LITTLE WORLD'S SERIES CALLED OFF

Indianapolis, Oct. 2.—(UP)—The fifth game of the "little world series" between Rochester of the International league and Indianapolis of the American association was called off here today on account of rain.

The postponed game will be played tomorrow and the teams will see action Friday, which was held open for a possible postponement.

ODDS ON WORLD'S SERIES QUOTED IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—The odds on the St. Louis Cardinals to win the world series today lengthened to 5 to 3. Betting has been light, but was expected to pick up today.

The latest prices quoted by Jack Doyle, Broadway betting commissioner, follow:

3 to 5 that the Cardinals do not win the series.

6 to 5 that the Yankees do not win the series.

7 to 10 that the Cardinals do not win the first game.

11 to 10 that the Yankees do not win the first game.

12 to 5 that the Cardinals do not win the first two games.

17 to 5 that the Yankees do not win the first two games.

10 to 1 that the Cardinals do not win the first four games.

THOUSANDS OF FANS FLOCKING TO N. Y. GAME

OPENING OF WORLD SERIES IS NOW ONLY 24 HOURS AWAY

CLEAR BUT NOT TOO CRISP OCTOBER WEATHER IS PROMISED

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—With the opening game of the world series but 24 hours away, thousands of dyed-in-the-wool baseball fans flocked to New York today from all parts of the country.

Clear but not too crisp October weather was promised for tomorrow. Out at the Yankee stadium, ground keepers and other employees of the big Bronx ball park panned in their tasks every few minutes to watch the St. Louis Cardinals in red-trimmed, road gray uniforms and the white clad Yanks go through their final practice sessions.

An attendance of 75,000 is certain. How many thousands more will be outside the gates unable to get in is a matter of conjecture.

All the reserved seats were sold a week ago. Forty thousand additional fans will have to get in line tomorrow for bleacher and other less favorable but no less desirable seats.

Ticket speculators have grasped several hundred sets of reserved seats. At noon today they quoted $75 for a set of three reserved seats—the original value was $16.50—and were getting it.

The St. Louis Cards are 5 to 3 favorites, but wagering is minimum. Many persons feel the teams are too evenly matched to make a choice in betting.

SHERDEL AND HOYT TO PITCH OPENING GAME

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Managers Bill McKechnie of the St. Louis Cardinals and Miller Huggins of the New York Yankees officially announced the batteries this afternoon for the opening world's series game tomorrow.

Sherdel and Wilson will be the battery for St. Louis and Hoyt and Bengough for New York.

Umpires for Opening Game

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—C. B. Owen, veteran American league umpire, will be behind the plate for the first game of the world series tomorrow. High Commissioner Landis announced today. Charles Rigler will be at first base; W. A. MacGowan at second, and Charles Pfrman at third.

REPUBLICANS OPEN INTENSIVE DRIVE

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Republican candidates for state and national offices began today a new intensive drive for support in the November 6 elections.

Governor Theodore Christianson, following his keynote address last night at Hutchinson, will deliver three addresses this week. Tonight the governor will speak at Winona. On Friday night the governor will speak at Albert Lea and on Saturday night at Faribault. Monday at 8:30 p. m. he will deliver a radio address over KSTP, St. Paul. He will then make successive addresses at Kenyon, Mankato, Fairmont and New Ulm.

Arthur E. Nelson, candidate for senator, will begin next Wednesday a tour which will include 25 addresses. On Friday of this week Nelson plans speeches at Brainerd and Little Falls.

WHAT WILL RUTH, GEHRIG DO IN THE WORLD'S SERIES?

FIRST GAME STARTS TOMORROW AT YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK

IF PAIR GOES ON BATTING RAMPAGE, IT'S ALL OVER WITH THE CARDS

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 3.—What will Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig do in the world series opening tomorrow at Yankee Stadium?

The answer to that question is also the answer to—who will win the world series?

If Ruth and Gehrig go on a hitting rampage, Yankees supporters are not worrying about the chances of the New York club. They know that the home run twins can carry the Yankees, cripples and all, to another world championship.

The fate of the St. Louis Cardinals may hinge on how their pitchers figure Ruth and Gehrig. If the Cardinal hurlers pitch to Ruth and Gehrig and do not walk them with men on bases, the Yankees' chances to win the series will be greatly increased.

Grover Cleveland Alexander's success in holding Ruth down in the 1926 series has led the veteran to suggest to Manager Bill McKechnie that all the Cardinal hurlers pitch to Ruth and Gehrig.

Although Ruth batted .300 in the '26 series, he did practically no hitting against Alexander, Sherdel and Haines. He did not make a hit in seven times at bat against Alexander.

Gehrig hit better than Ruth in the '26 series, batting .348 and failing to hit safely only in the second game against Alexander and the seventh against Haines.

Ruth out-hit Gehrig in the '27 series against the Pirates. The Babe batted .400 and Lou .308.

Gehrig was the leading hitter on the Yankees' club during the regular season, batting .373. He led the American League in runs batted in, with 145. Ruth batted .324 and led the league in runs scored, 162.

The few days' rest have helped Babe's leg considerably and the big fellow will be in better shape than at any time during the last month of the American League race.

Gehrig is practically well from his Detroit mishap, and save for a few marks on his face, he is in tip top shape.

Old Queen of the Seas

The United States superdreadnought Wyoming on July 19, 1912, made 22,045 knots on her standardization trial. This was the largest and fastest battleship afloat at the time with twelve inch guns.

Many Kinds of Oakum

Oakum, which is used for caulking, is any hemp fiber for filling seams, but especially that obtained by untwisting and breaking up old rope.

A COUPLE OF HARD ROCKS

Kunze K. Roekne, famous Notre Dame coach, with 10-year-old Kunze K. Jr., listening to some of the most precious gridiron advice to be heard anywhere in the country. With the beginning of the football season little Kunze is seen sitting on the sidelines daily, perhaps looking forward to the time that he will be as respected an athlete as his dad.

Wins National Golf Title

Glenna Collett, Providence, R. I., golfer, who won woman's national championship for the third time by defeating Miss Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, 13 and 12, in the finals of the Hot Springs, Va., tourney, photographed with trophy.

(International Newsreel)

FANS DUBIOUS ABOUT PROSPECTS OF THE YANKEES

PIN HOPES ON MILLER HUGGINS MEN PUTTING UP GAME FIGHT

PITCHING EVER A DECIDING FACTOR IN CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Oct. 3.—The logical outcome of the 1928 world series is a victory for the St. Louis Cardinals in five or six games.

American League baseball men, gathering in New York today for the opening of the series, shake their heads dubiously over the prospects of the New York Yankees, and pin their hopes upon the fact that Miller Huggins' club fights best with its back to the proverbial wall.

The National League champions should win, and win more easily than they did in 1926, when the same clubs met to decide the championship of the world.

Pitching ever has been the deciding factor in world series baseball. The preponderance of pitching strength favoring the Cardinals is sufficient to warrant the expectations of St. Louis supporters that they will win in short order.

The New York Yankees have Walter Hoyt, George Pipgras and old Tom Zachary. The Cardinals have (in order of importance) Grover Cleveland Alexander, Bill Sherdel, Jess Haines, Flint Rhem and Clarence Mitchell.

This means that whereas Bill McKechnie can afford to gamble with his pitchers and toss them in and out without any fixed plan of battle, Miller Huggins must have a practically perfect pitching performance from each of his three box-men each time the hat drops and the fight starts.

In the series upon which the attention of the baseball world will focus tomorrow, much may depend upon the accomplishment of Tom Zachary. Tom never has lost a world series game, having won two for the Washington Senators in 1924, but there is always a first time.

Hoyt and Pipgras, backed up by a little substantial hitting, might beat the Cardinals once, but hardly twice, apiece. This leaves the American League champions still a little short of adequate pitching. Bill McKechnie is far better off when it comes to pitchers.

Alexander is good for at least one victory, so is Sherdel, so is Haines, who beat the Yankees twice in 1926. Any one of the three may repeat, in which case the series will be over. Flint Rhem and Clarence Mitchell are formidable relief pitchers such as the Yankees do not possess.

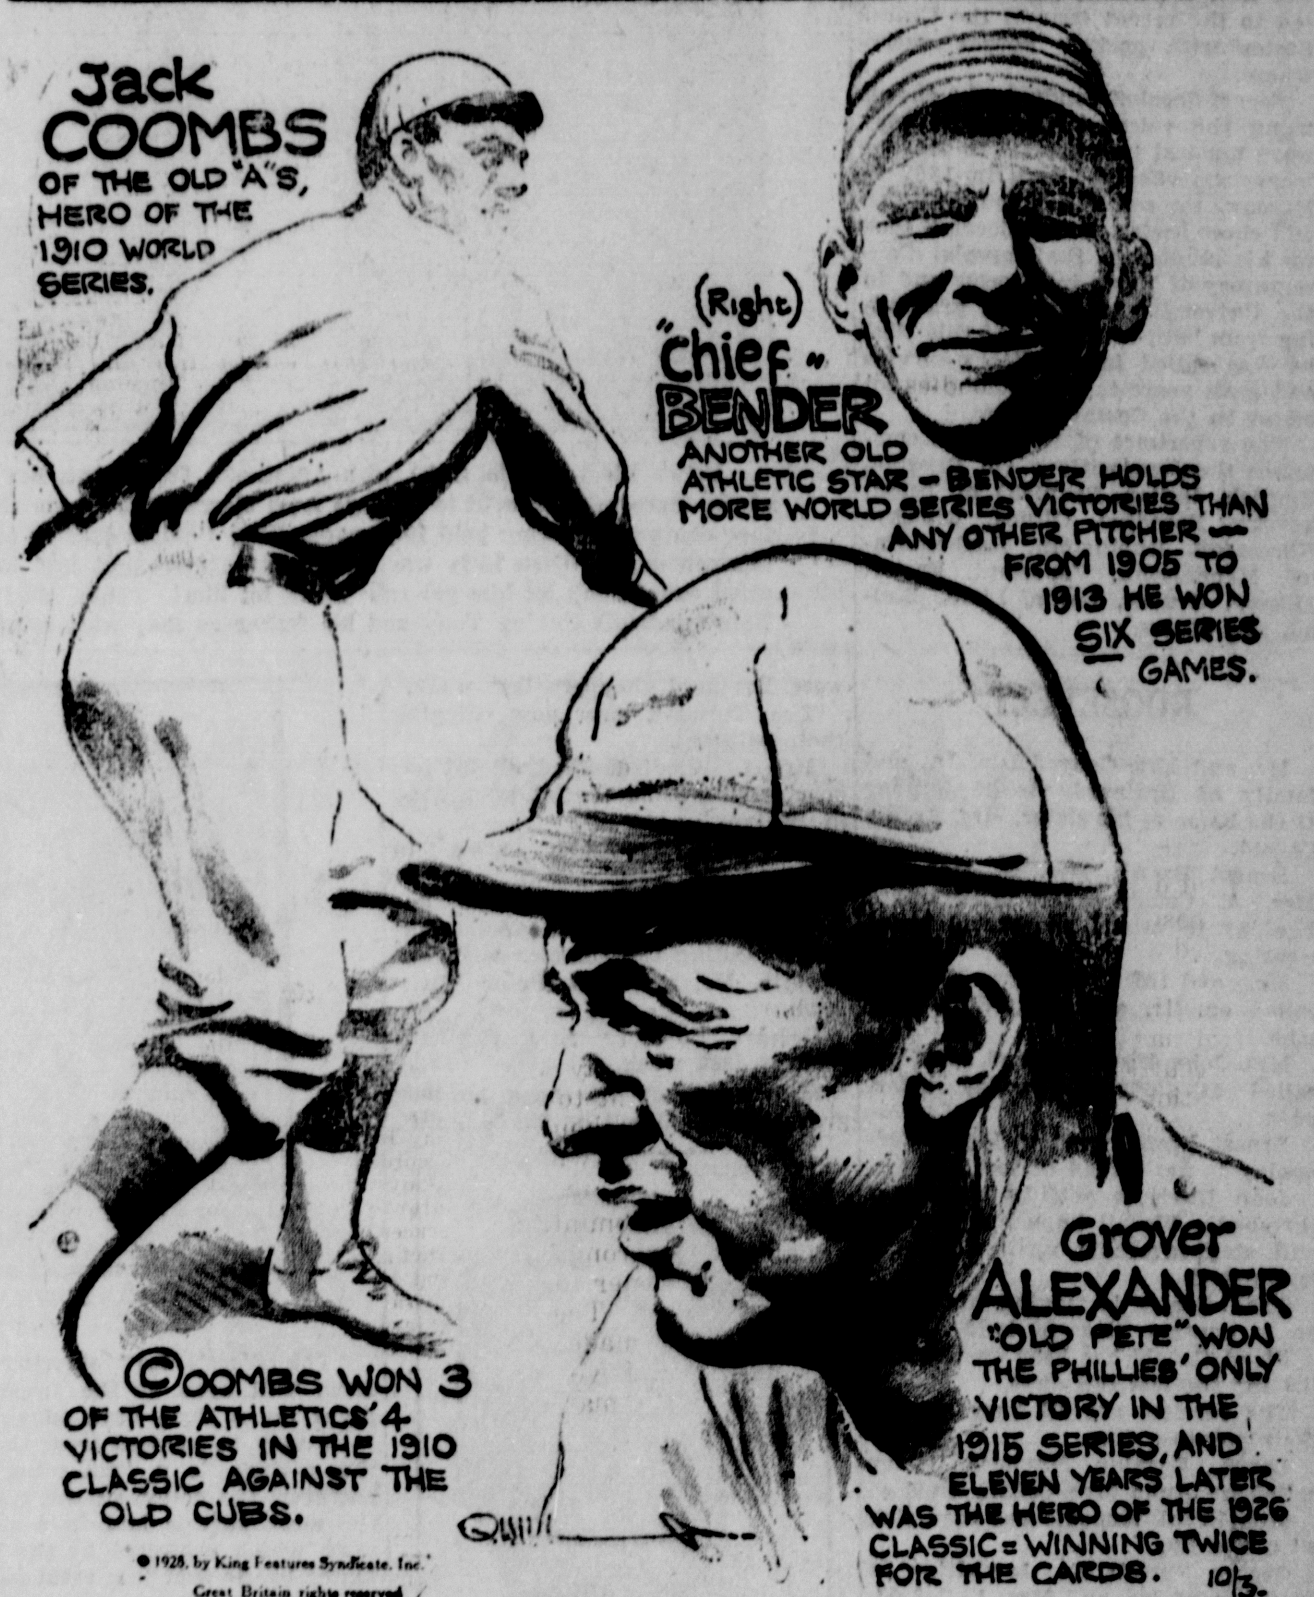

A rumor which has Herb Pennock about ready to pitch is, unfortunately for New York hopes, entirely without foundation. With the left-handed farmer in first class condition, the odds on the contenders would be even money.

The other Yankee cripples will be hunching hopefully along the dug-out bench. Earl Combs may see action as a pinch-runner for some "ice-wagon" who gets to first base. Babe Ruth, Tony Lazzeri and Mark Koenig will not be at their best.

Not a Bad Fellow

Much undeserved blame descends upon the mole in our garden, says Nature Magazine. Destructive cutworms, grubs, and earthworms are on his menu and he has few vegetarian tendencies. The death of plants above his burrow is caused by the drying air he lets in. Thus he does unwitting damage as he tunnels for food and home.

Great Pitchers of Former Series

Jack COOMBS OF THE OLD A'S, HERO OF THE 1910 WORLD SERIES.

(Right) "Chief" BENDER ANOTHER OLD ATHLETIC STAR - BENDER HOLDS MORE WORLD SERIES VICTORIES THAN ANY OTHER PITCHER - FROM 1905 TO 1913 HE WON SIX SERIES GAMES.

Grover ALEXANDER "OLD PETE" WON THE PHILLIES' ONLY VICTORY IN THE 1915 SERIES, AND ELEVEN YEARS LATER WAS THE HERO OF THE 1926 CLASSIC - WINNING TWICE FOR THE CARDS. 10/3.

By QUIN HALL

WITH the start of the annual Fall classic in the realm of baseball, it is customary and interesting to slide back among the records of World's Series which have already become history.

Every series which has been played has been responsible for bringing out some particularly shining light, usually at least one outstanding play and sometimes a "goat" upon whose shoulders the whole result of the team's defeat can be placed.

Who'll be the shining light in this year's scramble? Who'll be responsible for the most remarkable play of the series? Who'll be the "goat," if any?

Looking over the figures of the World's Series which have gone before, one cannot forget the ability of Chief Bender, the Indian who used to toil on the mound for Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics. Bender stands forth because of the fact that he is credited with six World's Series victories from 1905 to 1913. Mathewson,

Coombs, Pennock and Brown are credited with five each. The only fellow who has a chance to better Bender's record seems to be Herb Pennock, of the Yankees, but that case of neuritis may interfere with his establishing a new record.

Jack Coombs, another former Athletic slinger, is also worthy of mention, for he was the hero of the 1910 series, winning three of the four victories registered by A's against the old Chicago Cubs. That's a record for some of the present-day stars to shoot at. But it probably never will be equaled now for pitchers are not worked as hard as they were eighteen years ago. That was the year, incidentally, when Bender accounted for the other Philadelphia win.

Coombs' feat has been performed only four times in a four-out-of-seven World's Series. Mathewson, in 1905, won three games for the Giants against the Athletics. In 1909, Babe Adams turned the trick by winning three for Pittsburgh over Detroit and Faber in 1917 won three for the White Sox against the Giants.

Coveleski is credited with three wins for Cleveland in the 1920 series with Brooklyn but at that time five games out of nine was the series length. Grover Cleveland Alexander is another pitching hero of past series. "Old Pete" won the Phillies' lone victory in the series against the Boston Red Sox in 1915 and eleven years later was the Cardinal's hero in their 1926 victory over the Yankees. In this series Alex twice held the powerful Yankee team helpless—winning the second and fifth and saving the last game for St. Louis when, in the late innings with the bases clogged, he was called upon to stem the Yankee's rush. What a moment that was in World's Series history!

Other famous pitching heroes of past World's Series are:

Mordecai, or "Three-Fingered" Brown, who, for the Cubs, performed the remarkable feat of winning five World's Series games in three years—1906-7-8.

"Smoky Joe" Wood, Red Sox hero of 1912, who won twice from the Giants.

Dick Rudolph, Braves' hero in 1914, and Ernie Shore, who starred for the Red Sox in 1915 and 1916.

Walter Hoyt, Yankee, whose great pitching in the 1921 series with the Giants, made history.

Herb Pennock, who has never lost a series game, winning five times and a hero of three different classics. Walter Johnson's great effort in 1925 with two victories over the Pirates, and in that same series the work of Aldridge and Kremer who accounted for all of the Pittsburgh wins by grabbing two each.

Copyright, 1928, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

B. H. S. WARRIORS PREPARE FOR LITTLE FALLS ON FRIDAY

COACH KASCH PUTS GRIDDERS THROUGH DAILY SCRIMMAGES

BRAINERD FANS ASSURED OF A CLOSE BATTLE; DOWN RIVER SQUAD STRONG THIS YEAR

LAMMON RETURNS TO RANKS AFTER BEING ON INJURED LIST FOR A WEEK

Brainerd high school athletic warriors are taking strenuous workouts each day at the municipal grounds and will continue to do so the rest of the week in preparation for the game here Friday with Little Falls.

No work is being left undone by Coach Warren Kasch in bringing his men up to mid-season form for the Friday game.

Brainerd will tackle the down river team at 3:45 P. M. at the municipal grounds. Little Falls is rated as having a better team this year than last so Brainerd can take no chances.

Yesterday afternoon the backfield and line went through blocking drills and then the work ended up with a scrimmage. New formation will be given to add to the offensive attack for the remainder of the week as well as defensive work. The line is improving gradually and is showing fine form at the present. However there is much more to do with both line and backfield to reach the standard desired.

There were many weaknesses at St. Cloud last Friday as well as in the game against Milaca, although the locals in both encounters displayed a brand of football equal to that of their opponents.

Lammon has returned to the ranks physically fit after being on the injured list for over a week. He is little but will probably be able to hold his position at left end again. Guin, who played left end last week in the St. Cloud Cathedral game, is being groomed for a half back position and will no doubt see plenty of action there this year. He is hitting the line hard and improving with each daily workout. Other ends showing promise are Hugh McCaffrey, Schuetty, Hoffbauer and Moe. It is still a battle between Garvey, Paine and Geist for the regular tackle position. All three men are large and should gradually improve with the season.

Closely following these men are George McCaffrey and Lien, who are making every effort to place themselves on the first string. Foster and Abrahamson are improving in the guard position and are being closely followed by Larson and Nelson, who have the advantage in weight but lack experience and speed. At center, Art Hautala seems to be the mainstay of the candidates. He is doing good work for the short time he has been in the center position and should remain a valuable fixture there for the remainder of the season. Kinney who has been substituting for Hautala, has been out with a fractured foot but he will be back with the team by next week. Wyett has been passing the ball on the second string in the absence of Kinney.

This week Wise returned to the squad and makes another valuable backfield man to the already large group. He will no doubt work for the position held by Dybvik and Halvorson. This position will be well taken care of between these three men. At halfback Gabiou and Swanson have been improving with each game and are relieved by Guin, Kleven, Mayo, Elwood Anderson, Marshall and Sundberg. Fuller is still taking care of fullback in creditable fashion. The husky captain has led his teammates through the first two games in fine style.

Brainerd fans will be assured of a fast game Friday afternoon. It will be the second home game of the season. Two more games will follow, those with Staples and Aitkin, respectively. The Brainerd team will no doubt furnish its same type of attack this next Friday against Little Falls. However, it will not be known until the teams open battle just what tactics Coach Kasch will employ. Coach Kasch is a firm believer in strategy and believes that correct strategy used at the right time is the turning point in many a game.

FIFTH GAME OF LITTLE WORLD'S SERIES CALLED OFF

Indianapolis, Oct. 3.—(UP)—The fifth game of the "little world series" between Rochester of the International league and Indianapolis of the American association was called off here today on account of rain.

The postponed game will be played tomorrow and the teams will see action Friday, which was held open for a possible postponement.

LOGICAL OUTCOME OF SERIES IS WIN FOR CARDINALS

ODDS ON WORLD'S SERIES QUOTED IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—The odds on the St. Louis Cardinals to win the world series today lengthened to 5 to 3. Betting has been light, but was expected to pick up today.

The latest prices quoted by Jack Doyle, Broadway betting commissioner, follow:

3 to 5 that the Cardinals do not win the series.

6 to 5 that the Yankees do not win the series.

7 to 10 that the Cardinals do not win the first game.

11 to 10 that the Yankees do not win the first game.

12 to 5 that the Cardinals do not win the first two games.

17 to 5 that the Yankees do not win the first two games.

10 to 1 that the Cardinals do not win the first four games.

THOUSANDS OF FANS FLOCKING TO N. Y. GAME

OPENING OF WORLD SERIES IS NOW ONLY 24 HOURS AWAY

CLEAR BUT NOT TOO CRISP OCTOBER WEATHER IS PROMISED

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—With the opening game of the world series but 24 hours away, thousands of dyed-in-the-wool baseball fans flocked to New York today from all parts of the country.

Clear but not too crisp October weather was promised for tomorrow. Out at the Yankee stadium, ground keepers and other employees of the big Bronx ball park paused in their tasks every few minutes to watch the St. Louis Cardinals in red-trimmed, road grey uniforms and the white clad Yanks go through their final practice sessions.

An attendance of 75,000 is certain. How many thousands more will be outside the gates unable to get in is a matter of conjecture.

All the reserved seats were sold a week ago. Forty thousand additional fans will have to get in line tomorrow for bleacher and other less favorable but no less desirable seats. Ticket speculators have grasped several hundred sets of reserved seats. At noon today they quoted $75 for a set of three reserved seats—the original value was $16.50—and were getting it.

The St. Louis Cards are 5 to 3 favorites, but wagering is minimum. Many persons feel the teams are too evenly matched to make a choice in betting.

SHERDEL AND HOYT TO PITCH OPENING GAME

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Managers Bill McKechnie of the St. Louis Cardinals and Miller Huggins of the New York Yankees officially announced the batteries this afternoon for the opening world's series game tomorrow.

Sherdel and Wilson will be the battery for St. Louis and Hoyt and Bengough for New York.

Umpires for Opening Game

New York, Oct. 3.—(UP)—C. B. Owen, veteran American league umpire, will be behind the plate for the first game of the world series tomorrow. High Commissioner Landis announced today. Charles Rigler will be at first base; W. A. MacGowan at second, and Charles Pfirman at third.

REPUBLICANS OPEN INTENSIVE DRIVE

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Republican candidates for state and national offices began today a new intensive drive for support in the November 6 elections.

Governor Theodore Christianson, following his keynote address last night at Hutchinson, will deliver three addresses this week. Tonight the governor will speak at Winona. On Friday night the governor will speak at Faribault. Monday at 8:30 p. m. he will deliver a radio address over KSTP, St. Paul. He will then make successive addresses at Kenyon, Mankato, Fairmont and New Ulm.

Arthur E. Nelson, candidate for senator, will begin next Wednesday a tour which will include 35 addresses. On Friday of this week Nelson plans speeches at Brainerd and Little Falls.

WHAT WILL RUTH, GEHRIG DO IN THE WORLD'S SERIES?

FIRST GAME STARTS TOMORROW AT YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK

IF PAIR GOES ON BATTING RAMPAGE, IT'S ALL OVER WITH THE CARDS

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 3.—What will Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig do in the world series opening tomorrow at Yankee Stadium?

The answer to that question is also the answer to—who will win the world series?

If Ruth and Gehrig go on a hitting rampage, Yankees supporters are not worrying about the chances of the New York club. They know that the home run twins can carry the Yankees, cripples and all, to another world championship.

The fate of the St. Louis Cardinals may hinge on how their pitchers figure Ruth and Gehrig. If the Cardinal hurlers pitch to Ruth and Gehrig and do not walk them with men on bases, the Yankees' chances to win the series will be greatly increased.

Grover Cleveland Alexander's success in holding Ruth down in the 1926 series has led the veteran to suggest to Manager Bill McKechnie that all the Cardinal hurlers pitch to Ruth and Gehrig.

Although Ruth batted .300 in the '26 series, he did practically no hitting against Alexander, Sherdel and Haines. He did not make a hit in seven times at bat against Alexander. Gehrig hit better than Ruth in the '26 series, batting .348 and failing to hit safely only in the second game against Alexander and the seventh against Haines.

Ruth out-hit Gehrig in the '27 series against the Pirates. The Babe batted .400 and Lou .308.

Gehrig was the leading hitter on the Yankees' club during the regular season, batting .373. He led the American League in runs batted in, with 145. Ruth batted .324 and led the league in runs scored, 162.

The few days' rest have helped Babe's leg considerably and the big fellow will be in better shape than at any time during the last month of the American League race.

Gehrig is practically well from his Detroit mishap, and save for a few marks on his face, he is in tip top shape.

Old Queen of the Seas

The United States superdreadnought Wyoming on July 19, 1912, made 22,045 knots on her standardization trial. This was the largest and fastest battleship afloat at the time with twelve inch guns.

Many Kinds of Oakum

Oakum, which is used for caulking, is any hemp fiber for filling seams, but especially that obtained by untwisting and breaking up old rope.

A COUPLE OF HARD ROCKS

Knut K. Rockne, famous Notre Dame coach, with 10-year-old Knute K. Jr., listening to some of the most precious gridiron advice to be heard anywhere in the country. With the beginning of the football season little Knute is seen sitting on the sidelines daily, perhaps looking forward to the time that he will be as respected an athlete as his dad.

Wins National Golf Title

Glenna Collett, Providence, R. I., golfer, who won woman's national championship for the third time by defeating Miss Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, 13 and 12, in the finals of the Hot Springs, Va., tourney, photographed with trophy.

(International Newsphoto)

FANS DUBIOUS ABOUT PROSPECTS OF THE YANKEES

PIN HOPES ON MILLER HUGGINS MEN PUTTING UP GAME FIGHT

PITCHING EVER A DECIDING FACTOR IN CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Oct. 3.—The logical outcome of the 1928 world series is a victory for the St. Louis Cardinals in five or six games.

American League baseball men, gathering in New York today for the opening of the series, shake their heads dubiously over the prospects of the New York Yankees, and pin their hopes upon the fact that Miller Huggins' club fights best with its back to the proverbial wall.

The National League champions should win, and win more easily than they did in 1926, when the same clubs met to decide the championship of the world.

Pitching ever has been the deciding factor in world series baseball. The preponderance of pitching strength favoring the Cardinals is sufficient to warrant the expectations of St. Louis supporters that they will win in short order.

The New York Yankees have Waite Hoyt, George Pipgras and old Tom Zachary. The Cardinals have (in order of importance) Grover Cleveland Alexander, Bill Sherdel, Jess Haines, Flint Rhem and Clarence Mitchell.

This means that whereas Bill McKechnie can afford to gamble with his pitchers and toss them in and out without any fixed plan of battle, Miller Huggins must have a practically perfect pitching performance from each of his three box-men each time the hat drops and the fight starts.

In the series upon which the attention of the baseball world will focus tomorrow, much may depend upon the accomplishment of Tom Zachary. Tom never has lost a world series game, having won two for the Washington Senators in 1924, but there is always a first time.

Hoyt and Pipgras, backed up by a little substantial hitting, might beat the Cardinals once, but hardly twice, apiece. This leaves the American League champions still a little short of adequate pitching. Bill McKechnie is far better off when it comes to pitchers.

Alexander is good for at least one victory, so is Sherdel, so is Haines, who beat the Yankees twice in 1926. Any one of the three may repeat, in which case the series will be over. Flint Rhem and Clarence Mitchell are formidable relief pitchers such as the Yankees do not possess.

A rumor which has Herb Pennock about ready to pitch is, unfortunately for New York hopes, entirely without foundation. With the left-handed farmer in first class condition, the odds on the contenders would be even money.

The other Yankee cripples will be hunching hopefully along the dug-out bench. Earl Combs may see action as a pinch-runner for some "ice-wagon" who gets to first base. Babe Ruth, Tony Lazzeri and Mark Koenig will not be at their best.

Not a Bad Fellow

Much undeserved blame descends upon the mole in our garden, says Nature Magazine. Destructive cityworms, grubs, and earthworms are on his menu and he has few vegetarian tendencies. The death of plants above his burrow is caused by the drying air he lets in. Thus he does unwitting damage as he tunnels for food and home.

Great Pitchers of Former Series

Jack COOMBS OF THE OLD 'A'S, HERO OF THE 1910 WORLD SERIES.

COOMBS WON 3 OF THE ATHLETICS' 4 VICTORIES IN THE 1910 CLASSIC AGAINST THE OLD CUBS.

© 1928 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.
Great Britain rights reserved

By QUIN HALL

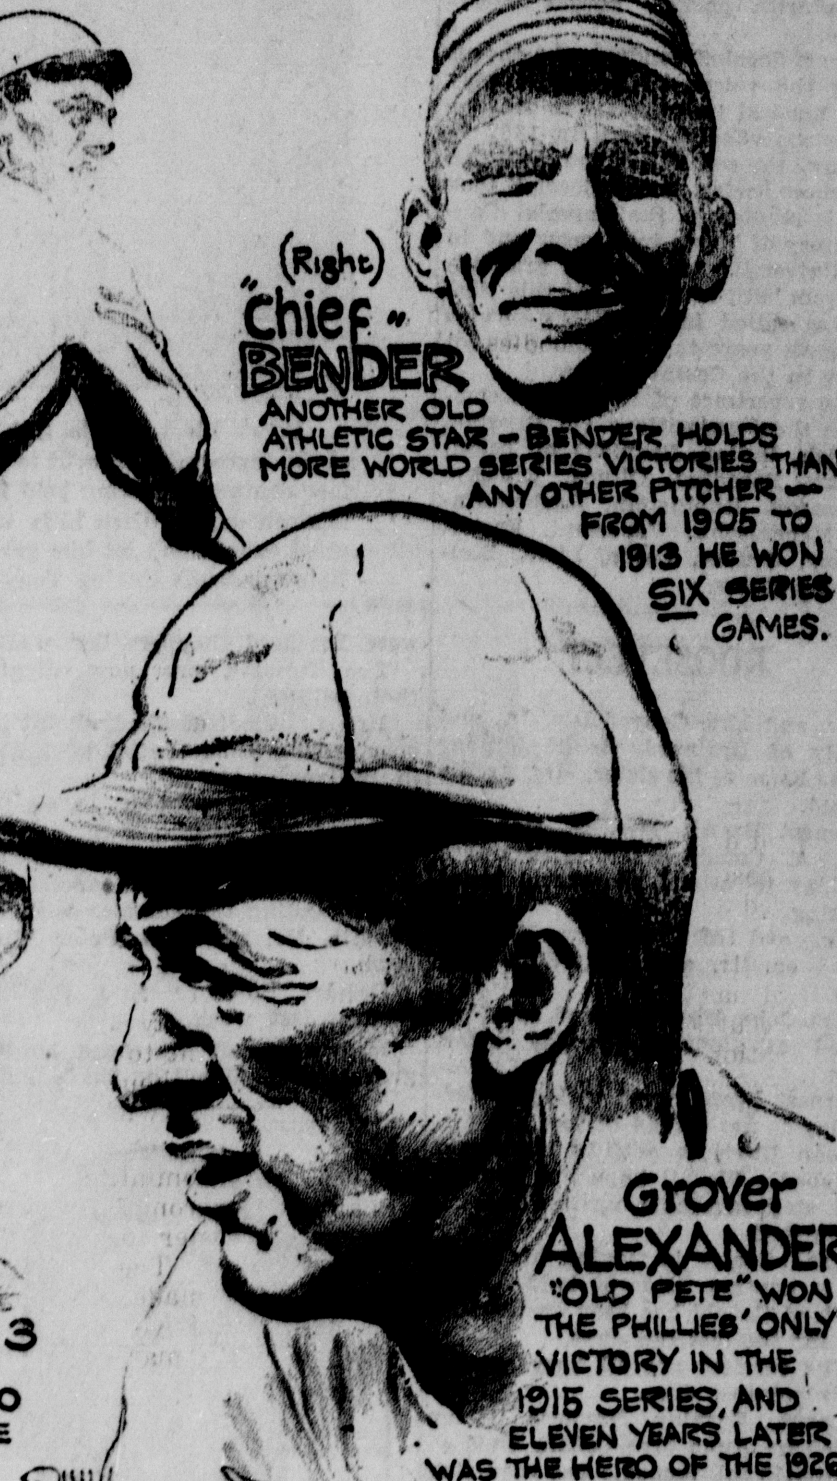

WITH the start of the annual Fall classic in the realm of baseball, it is customary and interesting to slide back among the records of World's Series which have already become history.

Every series which has been played has been responsible for bringing out some particularly shining light, usually at least one outstanding play and sometimes a "goat" upon whose shoulders the whole result of the team's defeat can be placed.

Who'll be the shining light in this year's scramble? Who'll be responsible for the most remarkable play of the series? Who'll be the "goat," if any?

Will the shining light be a twirler or will the great honor go to some obscure outfielder? Who'll be the heaviest with the old mace and who'll fail to hit when a hit means a run? Interesting stuff to think about.

Looking over the figures of the World's Series which have gone before, one cannot forget the ability of Chief Bender, the Indian who used to toil on the mound for Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics. Bender stands forth because of the fact that he is credited with six World's Series victories from 1905 to 1913. Mathewson,

GROVER ALEXANDER 'OLD PETE' WON THE PHILLIES' ONLY VICTORY IN THE 1915 SERIES, AND ELEVEN YEARS LATER WAS THE HERO OF THE 1926 CLASSIC—WINNING TWICE FOR THE CARDS.

© 1928 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Coombs, Pennock and Brown are credited with five each. The only fellow who has a chance to better Bender's record seems to be Herb Pennock, of the Yankees, but that case of neuritis may interfere with his establishing a new record.

Jack Coombs, another former Athletic flinger, is also worthy of mention, for he was the hero of the 1910 series, winning three of the four victories registered by the A's against the old Chicago Cubs. That's a record for some of the present-day stars to shoot at. But it probably never will be equaled now for pitchers are not worked as hard as they were eighteen years ago. That was the year, incidentally, when Bender accounted for the other Philadelphia win.

Coombs' feat has been performed only four times in a four-out-of-seven World's Series. Mathewson, in 1905, won three games for the Giants against the Athletics. In 1909, Babe Adams turned the trick by winning three for Pittsburgh over Detroit and Faber in 1917 won three for the White Sox against the Giants. Coveleski is credited with three wins for Cleveland in the 1920 series with Brooklyn but at that time five games out of nine was the series length.

Grover Cleveland Alexander is another pitching hero of past series. "Old Pete" won the Phillies' lone victory in the series against the Boston Red Sox in 1915 and eleven years later was the Cardinal's hero in their 1926 victory over the Yankees. In this series Alex twice held the powerful Yankee team helpless—winning the second and fifth and saving the last game for St. Louis when, in the late innings with the bases clogged, he was called upon to stem the Yankee's rush. What a moment that was in World's Series history!

Other famous pitching heroes of past World's Series are: Mordecai, or "Three-Fingered" Brown, who, for the Cubs, performed the remarkable feat of winning five World's Series games in three years—1906-7-8.

"Smoky Joe" Wood, Red Sox hero of 1912, who won twice from the Giants.

Dick Rudolph, Braves' hero in 1914, and Ernie Shore, who starred for the Red Sox in 1915 and 1916. Waite Hoyt, Yankee, whose great pitching in the 1921 series with the Giants, made history.

Herb Pennock, who has never lost a series game, winning five times and a hero of three different classics.

Walter Johnson's great effort in 1925 with two victories over the Pirates, and in that same series the work of Aldridge and Kremer who accounted for all of the Pittsburgh wins by grabbing two each.

COSSACKS TO OPEN CONCERT SEASON

Russian Singers Appear Here Sunday Afternoon Under Brainerd Musical Club Auspices

GROUP HIGHLY PRAISED

Critics Give Chorus Place All Its Own in the History of World Music

In the music of the Russian Cossacks, who appear here to open the Brainerd Musical club season the afternoon of Sunday, October 7, the great heart of awakening Russia speaks. Living on the outskirts of Russia to protect her against invasion the Cossack developed the heroic epic in which they expressed in music their exploits, their hardships and their happiness; the music which has now become characteristic of the country as a whole. The full burden of Russia's grief and the ancient and grim beauty of her traditions is blended in Cossack harmonies that grip the heart.

It has been said by noted critics that the Russian Cossack Chorus has a place all its own in the history of world music. The chorus made its first tour in Yugoslavia, after which an invitation was received to give a series of concerts in the Royal Conservatory of Milan, "Giuseppe Verdi." Here vast audiences heard the chorus in four concerts and a diploma from the conservatory was awarded them for their excellent rendition of both Russian and Italian music. A long tour of Italy followed which resulted in three golden medals given by Royal Theaters in recognition of their artistic success.

In 1924 a tour of France and Spain was made with more than 150 appearances. In Madrid Her Majesty, the Queen of Spain, attended all concerts and extended to Sergei Socoloff, director, her evidence of appreciation. A tour in Central America and Mexico followed with its mounting volume of triumph. In 1925 in Panama the chorus sang to the first American audiences which led to the recent tour of the United States with packed houses everywhere.

Sergei Socoloff conducts the chorus using the voices as he would play upon musical instruments to produce marvelous effects. Born in 1887 in Moscow, the son of a noted musician and choir leader, Sergei Socoloff took up his studies in the Imperial Conservatory of Music in Moscow and in the University of Moscow, graduating from both in 1915. At this time he was called into military service and gave years to his country as an officer in the Cossack forces.

The repertoire of the chorus comprises the compositions (in Russian, English, Italian, Spanish) of Tchaikovsky, Borodine, Glinka, Rimsky-Korsakov, Rubinstein, Rachmaninoff, Mendelssohn, Veneziani, Foster, Massey, Gruher, Lerdo, Llera, Baudot and others.

ROOSEVELT

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Isle, Jr., and family of Brainerd visited Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Archie Coffield.

Ernest Brand, Mrs. H. Mangold, Mrs. A. Coffield were in Brainerd Tuesday to attend the school board meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mangold called on Mr. and Mrs. Will Flinsek.

Mrs. John Hinmiller and son Fred called at Coffield's Sunday afternoon.

Ernest Brand went to Pierz Wednesday to get a load of feed.

John Davis is getting his clover threshed. We all hope the weather will stay favorable until threshing is finished.

Thad Cooley is moving his house on to another place of land.

Floyd Coffield has been on the sick list for the last few days.

The farmers are all busy getting their potatoes dug.

Lorna, Bernice, Marjorie Cooley called on Anna Mae Coffield Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Smoodie has been sick with the flu.

George Russell, Sr., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Coffield.

Ernest Brand hauled cattle and sheep to Brainerd Monday.

SOUTH LONG LAKE

Rev. A. G. Patterson will be out next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sunday school at 2 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Will Morecomb went to Winona last week. His father and mother accompanied him after a few weeks' visit with their children.

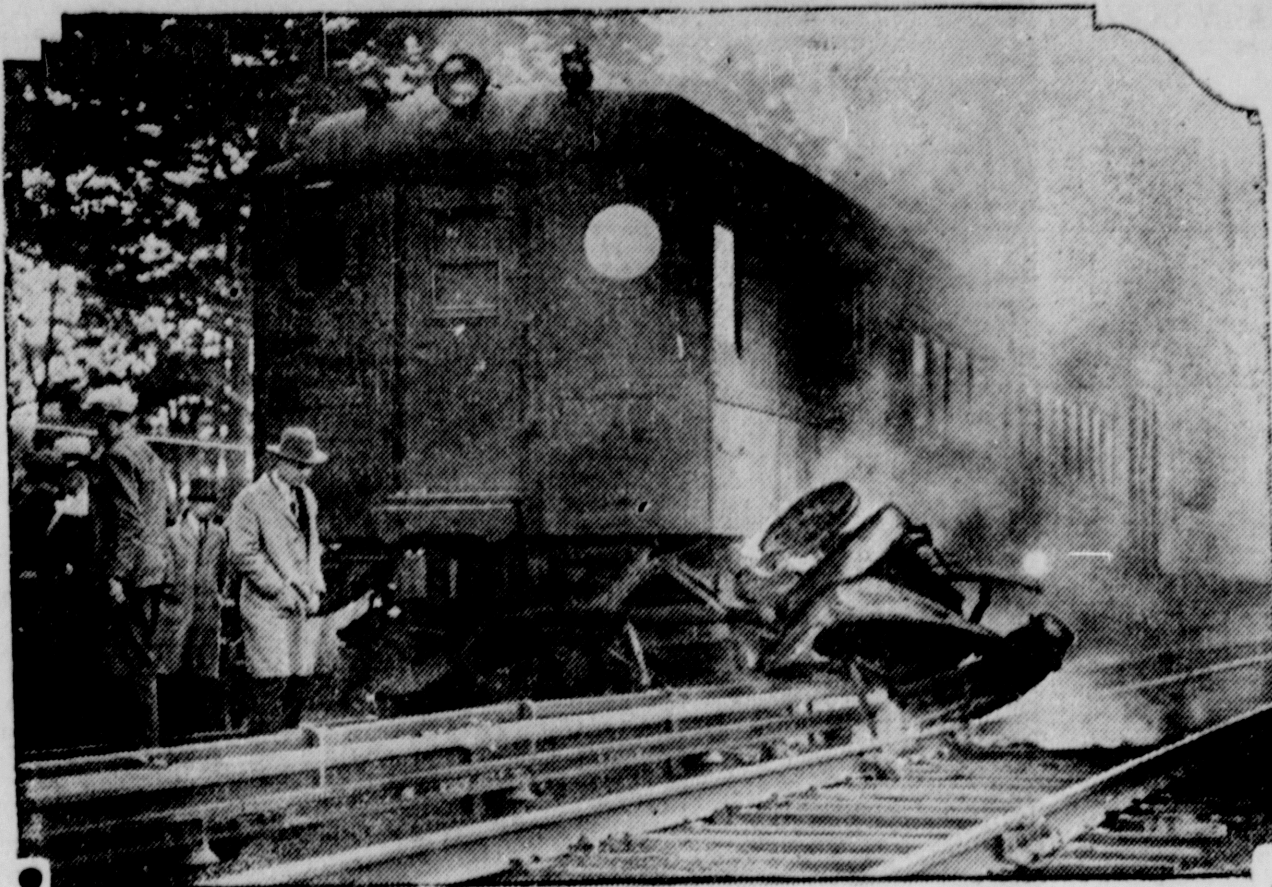

Mervin Wendt was in Brainerd last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peasley of Brainerd spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Senn.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kienow spent one evening of last week with Mrs. Kienow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wicklund.

Mr. and Mrs. Angner Ormseth

Five Die as Train Hits Auto

Unguarded crossing near Massapequa, L. I., was scene of this disastrous collision in which four young girls, guests at a birthday party, and a man, driver of wrecked sedan, met instant death. Four other children were seriously injured. The dead are Eleanor Rohling, 17; Madelyn Doelt, 12; Mildred Stenholm, 16; Dagmar Stenholm, 12, and George Schwartz, 40, all of East Hempstead, L. I. (International Newsreel)

RANIERI BOY IDENTIFIES KIDNAP "JAILERS"

Police Lieut. Riccio (left) with Antoinette Cappellano, her father, Andrew, and her brother, Tony, as the three were brought to Chicago from Herrin, Ill., where they were apprehended and arrested, to face charges of having held 10-year-old Billy Panieri captive on their farm near Bourbonnais, Ill., for thirteen days. When Billy was unsuspectingly brought into the presence of the elder Cappellano, he cried out: "Don't let him get me. Don't let him! That's him! That's the man who runs the farm." Note handcuffs linking Tony and his father as they were returned to Chicago.

were Brainerd shoppers last week. The farmers are now digging their potatoes.

Mrs. L. Wied of Shady Point has been having some dentist work done in Brainerd.

Ernest Kleinschmidt was in Brainerd last week.

Miss Hazel Wicklund who has been employed in Minneapolis, has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wicklund.

Delbert Busby was a Brainerd shopper last week.

Mervin Wendt has been hauling gravel for L. Wied of Shady Point.

B. W. Scandrett, who has been general solicitor of the Northern Pacific railway, just has been appointed vice president of that railroad with general jurisdiction, subject to the president, over all departments. The appointment, announcement of which was made by Charles Donnelly, president, became effective October 1. Mr. Scandrett's headquarters will continue to be in St. Paul.

Not as Much Fun

How much better is it to belong to the construction gang than the wrecking crew.—Rushville (Ind.) Re-

CLARA BOW—JAMES HALL IN "THE FLEET'S IN" A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

"The Fleet's In!" starring Clara Bow, will open at the Lyceum to-night for a three-days engagement.

As may be guessed from the title, the picture is a "sea-going" one, however, the action of the story for the most part is laid in a seacoast town which is visited by the United States battle fleet just returned from a training cruise.

According to advance reports

where the picture has had its showing, Miss Bow has one of the best parts of her career. She is cast as a dance hall hostess whose duty it is to encourage the sailors on shore leave to spend as much of their month's pay for dance tickets as possible. It is during a visit of the fleet to the port that she becomes the center of a rivalry between two "gobs" from the U. S. S. California.

FIRST FOREST FIRE OF SEASON REPORTED TODAY

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(U.P.)—The first forest fire of the fall season was reported today and although the blaze was put out in a short time the forestry department ordered out patrols to prevent other fires.

Grover M. Conzel, forestry commissioner, declared that the blaze west of Moose Lake indicated the danger of additional fires and rangers have ordered out the railroad patrols.

The month just passed was unusual, Conzel said, since for the first time in many years no fires were reported.

The Pity of It

Lots of people are sure they are right who never go ahead.—Boston Transcript.

RADIO CLUB GETS 'TROUBLE SHOOTER'

Harold Nelson Purchases Same at Minneapolis for Association

TO LOCATE INTERFERENCE

4 Men Will Take out the Machine, 2 Working Days, 2 at Night

Harold Nelson has returned from Minneapolis where he purchased a "trouble shooter" for the Brainerd Radio Association. The "trouble shooter" is expected to arrive here either today or tomorrow. Four men will be sent out by the association to locate the local interference over the city. Two will work during the daytime and two at night.

At the next meeting of the association to be held in the farmers' room at the court house on Monday evening, Pat Hickey of the Minnesota Power & Light Company at Little Falls will address the association, telling how they locate the interference in Little Falls.

Mr. Steele of the Pillager dam will also speak before the association on the subject of locating trouble.

Dame Fashion Smiles

By Grace Jewett Austin

Grace J. Austin.

There are fashions that go forward and there are fashions that go backward. Dame Fashion does not need to say that the most fashionable things to own, just at present, are genuine colonial relics.

Though when we do not have the genuine, we get great comfort out of rush-bottomed Windsor chairs and Governor Winthrop tall secretaries, and grandfather's clocks, whose works may be as old as a toddling baby. In spite of the pleasure in these new-old things—and Dame Fashion would be the last to deny this, for she is the daughter of parents divided in opinion on this matter; her father having a great reverence for antiques, and her mother declaring she would rather have a new sterling silver spoon than one Eve had used—there is a feeling of reverence which comes when the genuine old object is viewed.

Dame Fashion had the opportunity lately to view a small choice collection of privately owned Revolutionary war period antiques, which proved unusually productive of thought. Quilts, linen sheets and hand-woven blankets always form the background for such a collection. But when you pick up a faded blue dancing slipper, once worn by Anne Adams Stuart, it brings you closer to the past than even the strains of Mozart's "Minuet." She was perhaps a married woman when she danced in it, for she was the mother of a captain in the Revolution. But dancing was quite the thing for the matrons of those days, in the stately minuet or the more romping country dances. This blue slipper is soft and small, and what do you think? It has almost a "spike heel." Yet grand mothers of today are not to be outdone, for Dame Fashion knew of a woman of ninety in a shoe shop, who when the attendant asked respectfully, "Would you like some comfort shoes?" replied with indignation, No, indeed; I want spike heels." And she took them, too.

An India shawl is in itself an article so rich and beautiful that it is an article to love and cherish, whether the year be 1776 or 1928. But when you pick up a judge's frayed silk gown, a duelling pistol and a book of navigation owned by a sea captain of 1760, you seem to touch a man's world more different from the men of today than the slippers and sheets and towels and platters are from the women of 1928. Guns, swords and bayonets have come down from the men, but the women's relics are as gentle as the gentlest woman of today would use. It opens a suggestive field of thought to wonder which of our many possessions of today will still be preserved a hundred and fifty years or two centuries hence.

But if you want a thrill of pure sentiment, you should have stood beside Dame Fashion and held in one hand a little baby shirt of tiny stitches, made by Rebecca White Bell in 1786 for her daughter, while in the other hand lay a golden-rimmed glass brooch of that period, with a curl of soft golden hair beneath the glass.

(© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

Famous Painting

O. P. Fairfield in "The Italian Renaissance in Art" says that the Sistine "Madonna" was executed for the Church of San Sisto, at Piacenza, "and for this reason takes its name of the Sistine, or 'Sixtine.'" The Sistine "Madonna" is still in Dresden, where it has been for many years. The painting was purchased by the elector of Saxony, Augustus III, in 1753.

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

THEY WILL TRY AGAIN

William S. Brock (left) and Edward F. Schlee, famous round-the-world flyers, who were forced down by a leaky gas tank in their attempt to break the world's record for sustained flight in their red Bellanca monoplane at San Diego, Calif. They remained in the air 59 hours and 30 minutes, establishing a new American record.

Printed Roses on White Linen for Little Girls

Paris suggests this charming and attractive, though plain, linen dress for little girls. It is a print model with plain bolero. Shortness of the frock is in keeping with the present day styles. Tiny roses are printed on the frock.

Bridesmaids' Gowns

Unusually lovely are bridesmaids' gowns made of yellow tulle, short in front and very, very long in back. Long loops of violet and turquoise blue velvet ribbon flutter from the waist and trim the wide hats, also of tulle.

Petrified Tree Identified

At Florissant, Colo., among other specimens there is a petrified tree stump 1 1/2 feet in diameter and 10 1/2 feet high. It has been pronounced by natural scientists that these trees, which have lain buried in a volcanic lava bed for thousands of years, come of the Redwood or Sequoia variety, such as now grow in California.

Canaries and Children

To insure a dignified baptismal service, the pastor of a Connecticut church hit upon the idea of using canaries to entertain children and keep them quiet until the services were ended. The plan was successful.

Avoid Perfect Work

Turkish women rug weavers make at least one mistake in every rug, fearing that if they should produce a perfect work the evil eye would cause their speedy death. Many produce only one rug in four years and earn about 30 cents a day.

Value of Puzzles

Solving puzzles may benefit a person in various ways, particularly in the exercise of mental powers. Many of the puzzles indulged in at the present time are educational and contribute actual knowledge.

Painting and Decorating

We use first class material and aim to satisfy.

WEISZ AND QUINLEN

Call 399-J

PLUMBING

and HEATING

DE ROSIER & MAGNAN

Phone 405-W 414 So. Sixth St.

L. W. SHERLUND

Plumbing and Heating

All kinds of pipes, fittings and valves

FLIT

DESTROYS
Moths, Roaches
Bedbugs, Flies
Other Household Insects

DR. HUMPHREYS'

"66-77" 30 CENTS FOR BEST COLD
GRIP
INFLUENZA

COSSACKS TO OPEN CONCERT SEASON

Russian Singers Appear Here Sunday Afternoon Under Brainerd Musical Club Auspices

GROUP HIGHLY PRAISED

Critics Give Chorus Place All Its Own in the History of World Music

In the music of the Russian Cossacks, who appear here to open the Brainerd Musical club season the afternoon of Sunday, October 7, the great heart of awakening Russia speaks. Living on the outskirts of Russia to protect her against invasion the Cossack developed the heroic epic in which they expressed in music their exploits, their hardships and their happiness; the music which has now become characteristic of the country as a whole. The full burden of Russia's grief and the ancient and grim beauty of her traditions is blended in Cossack harmonies that grip the heart.

It has been said by noted critics that the Russian Cossack Chorus has a place all its own in the history of world music. The chorus made its first tour in Yugoslavia, after which an invitation was received to give a series of concerts in the Royal Conservatory of Milan, "Giuseppe Verdi." Here vast audiences heard the chorus in four concerts and a diploma from the conservatory was awarded them for their excellent rendition of both Russian and Italian music. A long tour of Italy followed which resulted in three golden medals given by Royal Theaters in recognition of their artistic success.

In 1924 a tour of France and Spain was made with more than 150 appearances. In Madrid Her Majesty, the Queen of Spain, attended all concerts and extended to Sergei Socoloff, director, her evidence of appreciation. A tour in Central America and Mexico followed with its mounting volume of triumph. In 1925 in Panama the chorus sang to the first American audiences which led to the recent tour of the United States with packed houses everywhere.

Sergei Socoloff conducts the chorus using the voices as he would play upon musical instruments to produce marvelous effects. Born in 1887 in Moscow, the son of a noted musician and choir leader, Sergei Socoloff took up his studies in the Imperial Conservatory of Music in Moscow and in the University of Moscow, graduating from both in 1915. At this time he was called into military service and gave years to his country as an officer in the Cossack forces.

The repertoire of the chorus comprises the compositions (in Russian, English, Italian, Spanish) of Tchaikovsky, Borodine, Glinka, Rimsky-Korsakov, Rubinstein, Rachmaninoff, Mendelssohn, Veneziani, Foster, Massey, Gruber, Lerdo, Llera, Baudot and others.

ROOSEVELT

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Isle, Jr., and family of Brainerd visited Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Archie Cofield.

Ernest Brand, Mrs. H. Mangold, Mrs. A. Cofield were in Brainerd Tuesday to attend the school board meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mangold called on Mr. and Mrs. Will Flinsek.

Mrs. John Hinmiller and son Fred called at Cofield's Sunday afternoon.

Ernest Brand went to Pierz Wednesday to get a load of feed.

John Davis is getting his clover threshed. We all hope the weather will stay favorable until threshing is finished.

Thad Cooley is moving his house on to another piece of land.

Floyd Cofield has been on the sick list for the last few days.

The farmers are all busy getting their potatoes dug.

Lorna, Bernice, Marjorie Cooley called on Anna Mae Cofield Sunday. Mrs. Frank Smoodie has been sick with the flu.

George Russell, Sr., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cofield. Ernest Brand hauled cattle and sheep to Brainerd Monday.

SOUTH LONG LAKE

Rev. A. G. Patterson will be out next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sunday school at 2 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Will Morcomb went to Winona last week. His father and mother accompanied him after a few week's visit with their children.

Mervin Wendt was in Brainerd last week.

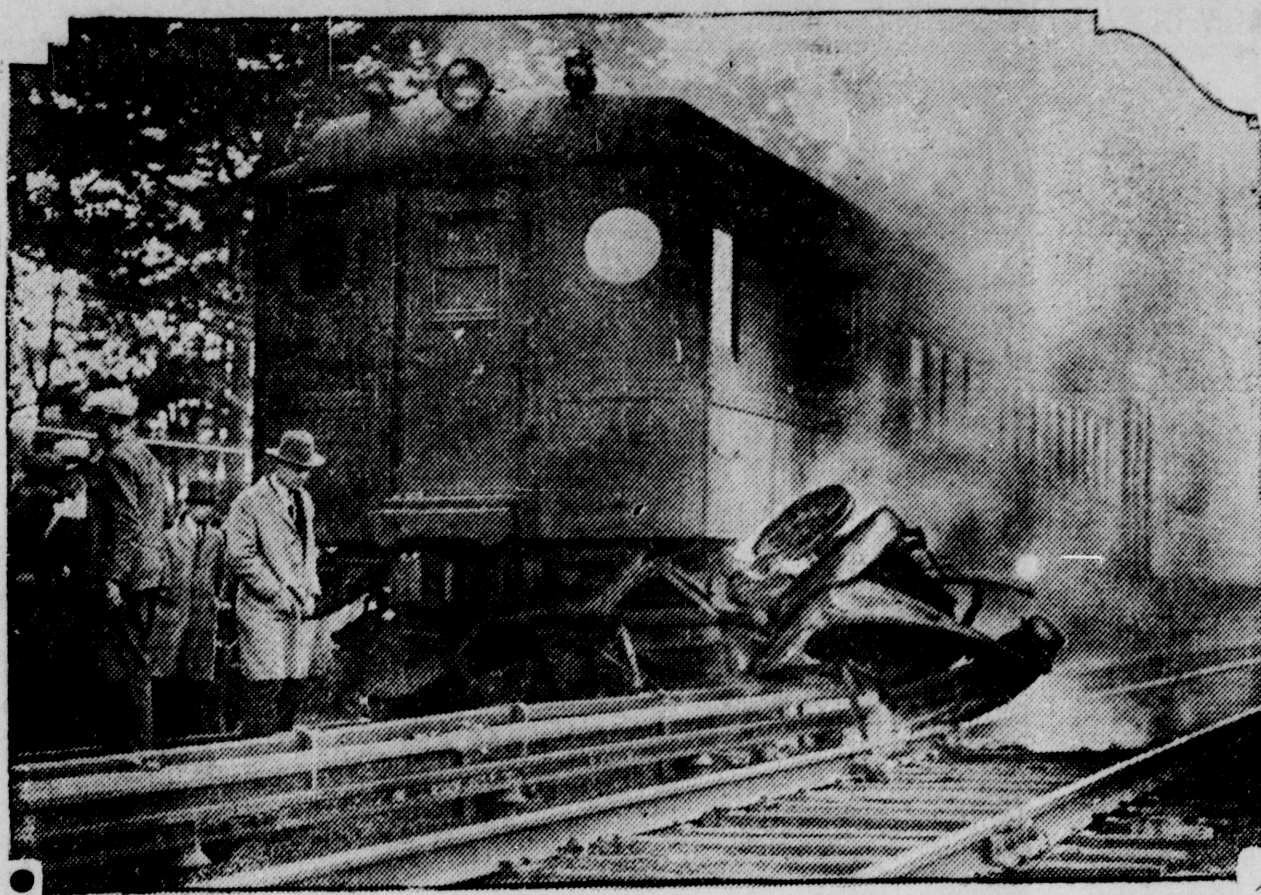

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eschenbacher and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Eschenbacher and family attended services Sunday at the German Lutheran church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peasley of Brainerd spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Win. Senn.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kienow spent one evening of last week with Mrs. Kienow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wicklund.

Mr. and Mrs. Angner Ormsoth

Five Die as Train Hits Auto

Unguarded crossing near Massapequa, L. I., was scene of this disastrous collision in which four young girls, guests at a birthday party, and a man, driver of wrecked sedan, met instant death. Four other children were seriously injured. The dead are Eleanor Rohling, 17; Madelyn Doeltl, 12; Mildred Stenholm, 16; Dagmar Stenholm, 12, and George Schwartz, 40, all of East Hempstead, L. I.

(International Newsreel)

RANIERI BOY IDENTIFIES KIDNAP "JAILERS"

Police Lieut. Riccio (left) with Antoinette Cappellano, her father, Andrew, and her brother, Tony, as the three were brought to Chicago from Herrin, Ill., where they were apprehended and arrested, to face charges of having held 10-year-old Billy Ranieri captive on their farm near Bourbonnais, Ill., for thirteen days. When Billy was unsuspectingly brought into the presence of the elder Cappellano, he cried out: "Don't let him get me. Don't let him! That's him! That's the man who runs the farm." Note handcuffs linking Tony and his father as they were returned to Chicago.

were Brainerd shoppers last week. The farmers are now digging their potatoes.

Mrs. L. Wied of Shady Point has been having some dentist work done in Brainerd.

Ernest Kleinschmidt was in Brainerd last week.

Miss Hazel Wicklund who has been employed in Minneapolis, has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wicklund.

Delbert Busby was a Brainerd shopper last week.

Mervin Wendt has been hauling gravel for L. Wied of Shady Point.

B. W. Scandrett, who has been general solicitor of the Northern Pacific railway, just has been appointed vice president of that railroad with general jurisdiction, subject to the president, over all departments. The appointment, announcement of which was made by Charles Donnelly, president, became effective October 1. Mr. Scandrett's headquarters will continue to be in St. Paul.

Not as Much Fun

How much better is it to belong to the construction gang than the wrecking crew.—Rushville (Ind.) Re

CLARA BOW—JAMES HALL IN "THE FLEET'S IN" A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

"The Fleet's In!" starring Clara Bow, will open at the Lyceum tonight for a three-days engagement.

As may be guessed from the title, the picture is a "sea-going" one, however, the action of the story for the most part is laid in a seacoast town which is visited by the United States battle fleet just returned from a training cruise.

According to advance reports

where the picture has had its showing, Miss Bow has one of the best parts of her career. She is cast as a dance hall hostess whose duty it is to encourage the sailors on shore leave to spend as much of their month's pay for dance tickets as possible. It is during a visit of the fleet to the port that she becomes the center of a rivalry between two "gobs" from the U. S. S. California.

FIRST FOREST FIRE OF SEASON REPORTED TODAY

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(U.P.)—The first forest fire of the fall season was reported today and although the blaze was put out in a short time the forestry department ordered out patrols to prevent other fires.

Grover M. Conzel, forestry commissioner, declared that the blaze west of Moose Lake indicated the danger of additional fires and rangers have ordered out the railroad patrols.

The month just passed was unusual, Conzel said, since for the first time in many years no fires were reported.

The Pity of It

Lots of people are sure they are right who never go ahead.—Boston Transcript.

THREE UNMASKED BANDITS ROB BANK IN MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Oct. 3.—(U.P.)—Three unmasked bandits today robbed the Penn Avenue State Bank here of $12,000 in cash.

The bandits forced E. V. Anderson, cashier, Harry Fredrickson, assistant cashier, and two clerks to lie on the floor, while they ransacked the tellers' cages and money drawers.

Escape was made by the bandits in a red touring car.

Costly Tobacco Box

One of the world's most remarkable tobacco boxes is in Caxton hall, London. It is more than a foot square and four feet high, and it weighs 100 pounds. The original box of 200 years ago has been inclosed in others added from time to time, all encased in silver. It is insured for $35,000.

RADIO CLUB GETS 'TROUBLE SHOOTER'

Harold Nelson Purchases Same at Minneapolis for Association

TO LOCATE INTERFERENCE

4 Men Will Take out the Machine, 2 Working Days, 2 at Night

Harold Nelson has returned from Minneapolis where he purchased a "trouble shooter" for the Brainerd Radio Association. The "trouble shooter" is expected to arrive here either today or tomorrow. Four men will be sent out by the association to locate the local interference over the city. Two will work during the daytime and two at night.

At the next meeting of the association to be held in the farmers' room at the court house on Monday evening, Pat Hickey of the Minnesota Power & Light Company at Little Falls will address the association, telling how they locate the interference in Little Falls.

Mr. Steele of the Pillager dam will also speak before the association on the subject of locating trouble.

Dame Fashion Smiles

By Grace Jewett Austin

There are fashions that go forward and there are fashions that go backward. Dame Fashion does not need to say that the most fashionable things to own, just at present, are genuine colonial relics.

Though when we do not have the genuine, we get great comfort out of rush-bottomed Windsor chairs and Governor Winthrop tall secretaries, and grandfather's clocks, whose works may be as old as a toddling baby.

In spite of the pleasure in these new-old things—and Dame Fashion would be the last to deny this, for she is the daughter of parents divided in opinion on this matter; her father having a great reverence for antiques, and her mother declaring she would rather have a new sterling silver spoon than one Eve had used—there is a feeling of reverence which comes when the genuine old object is viewed.

Dame Fashion had the opportunity lately to view a small choice collection of privately owned Revolutionary war period antiques, which proved unusually productive of thought. Quilts, linen sheets and hand-woven blankets always form the background for such a collection. But when you pick up a faded blue dancing slipper, once worn by Anne Adams Stuart, it brings you closer to the past than even the strains of Mozart's "Minuet." She was perhaps a married woman when she danced in it, for she was the mother of a captain in the Revolution. But dancing was quite the thing for the matrons of those days, in the stately minuet or the more romping country dances. This blue slipper is soft and small, and what do you think? It has almost a "spike heel!" Yet grand mothers of today are not to be outdone, for Dame Fashion knew of a woman of ninety in a shoe shop, who when the attendant asked respectfully, "Would you like some comfort shoes?" replied with indignation, No, indeed; I want spike heels." And she took them, too.

An India shawl is in itself an article so rich and beautiful that it is an article to love and cherish, whether the year be 1776 or 1928. But when you pick up a judge's frayed silk gown, a duelling pistol and a book of navigation owned by a sea captain of 1780, you seem to touch a man's world more different from the men of today than the slippers and sheets and towels and platters are from the women of 1928. Guns, swords and bayonets have come down from the men, but the women's relics are as gentle as the gentlest woman of today would use. It opens a suggestive field of thought to wonder which of our many possessions of today will still be preserved a hundred and fifty years or two centuries hence.

But if you want a thrill of pure sentiment, you should have stood beside Dame Fashion and held in one hand a little baby shirt of tiny stitches, made by Rebecca White Bell in 1786 for her daughter, while in the other hand lay a golden-rimmed glass brooch of that period, with a curl of soft golden hair beneath the glass.

(© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

Famous Painting

O. P. Fairfield in "The Italian Renaissance in Art" says that the Sistine "Madonna" was executed for the Church of San Sisto, at Piacenza, "and for this reason takes its name of the Sistine, or 'Sixtine.'" The Sistine "Madonna" is still in Dresden, where it has been for many years. The painting was purchased by the elector of Saxony, Augustus III, in 1753.

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

THEY WILL TRY AGAIN

William S. Brock (left) and Edward F. Schlee, famous round-the-world flyers, who were forced down by a leaky gas tank in their attempt to break the world's record for sustained flight in their red Bellanca monoplane at San Diego, Calif. They remained in the air 59 hours and 30 minutes, establishing a new American record.

Printed Roses on White Linen for Little Girls

Paris suggests this charming and attractive, though plain, linen dress for little girls. It is a print model with plain bolero. Shortness of the frock is in keeping with the present day styles. Tiny roses are printed on the frock.

Bridesmaids' Gowns

Unusually lovely are bridesmaids' gowns made of yellow tulle, short in front and very, very long in back. Long loops of violet and turquoise blue velvet ribbon flutter from the waist and trim the wide hats, also of tulle.

Petrified Tree Identified

At Florissant, Colo., among other specimens there is a petrified tree stump 17½ feet in diameter and 10½ feet high. It has been pronounced by natural scientists that these trees, which have lain buried in a volcanic lava bed for thousands of years, come of the Redwood or Sequoia variety, such as now grow in California.

Canaries and Children

To insure a dignified baptismal service, the pastor of a Connecticut church hit upon the idea of using canaries to entertain children and keep them quiet until the services were ended. The plan was successful.

Avoid Perfect Work

Turkish women rug weavers make at least one mistake in every rug, fearing that if they should produce a perfect work the evil eye would cause their speedy death. Many produce only one rug in four years and earn about 30 cents a day.

Value of Puzzles

Solving puzzles may benefit a person in various ways, particularly in the exercise of mental powers. Many of the puzzles indulged in at the present time are educational and contribute actual knowledge.

Painting and Decorating

We use first class material and aim to satisfy.

WEISZ AND QUINLEN
Call 399-J

PLUMBING and HEATING

DE ROSIER & MAGNAN
Phone 405-W 414 So. Sixth St.

L. W. SHERLUND
Plumbing and Heating
All kinds of pipes, fittings and valves

FLIT

DESTROYS

Moths, Roaches Bedbugs, Flies

Other Household Insects

DR. HUMPHREYS'

"77"

BEST 30 CENTS FOR

COLDS GRIP INFLUENZA

STATE RATE DECREASE TO EVEN COUNTY RAISE

State Rate of 5.34 Mills Announced Today; Slight Increase in County Rate

FIX TOTAL RATE SOON

Increase in County Funds Made to Put County Out of Debt

Although the county rate will be slightly higher this year over last a decrease in the state rate announced today will place the county rate of taxation approximately the same as last year, figures checked today at the county auditor's office show.

The state rate received today shows a state levy of 5.34 mills. Of this 4.06 is for state revenue, 1.23 mills for state schools and .05 mills for Teachers Insurance and Retirement Fund. This rate shows a decrease from the rate set aside by the state last year of 7.79 mills, divided as follows: state revenue, 6.42 mills, state schools, 1.23 mills, Teachers Insurance and Retirement Fund, .05 mills.

The county rate of taxation last year for county expenditure was 27.99 mills. The county commissioners will be able to arrive at this year's tax rate for 1929 expenditure, collectable in 1929 this month following determination of the value of mineral properties to complete the valuation of land in the county. The tax commission will sit as the board of equalization this month. Following this meeting the rate of taxation will be announced.

Appropriations for the various county funds necessary for the year 1929 are announced as follows:

| | |
|---------------------------|-----------|
| County Revenue Fund..... | $ 90,000 |
| Road and bridge fund..... | 125,000 |
| Poor fund..... | 30,000 |
| Sanatorium fund..... | 12,500 |
| Sinking fund..... | 25,000 |
| Bond interest fund..... | 14,000 |

Total.....$296,500
Preceding year appropriations follow:

| | |
|---------------------------|-----------|
| County revenue fund..... | $ 80,000 |
| Road and bridge fund..... | 115,000 |
| Poor fund..... | 20,000 |
| Sanatorium fund..... | 12,500 |
| Sinking fund..... | 25,000 |
| Bond interest fund..... | 9,000 |

Total.....$261,500
An increase in the number of pensioners for Mothers' Pension paid out of the poor fund accounts for the increase of $10,000 in that fund this year.

The Revenue, Road and Bridge Funds were increased to take up outstanding warrants, thus putting the county on a cash basis next year.

The Sinking Fund of $25,000 is to take up old railroad bonds of which there are $50,000 outstanding. One more levy of $25,000 which the county intends to make next year will put the county out of bonded indebtedness.

Braierd's complete rate of taxation will be available the latter part of this month. The "City of Braierd" mill rate was fixed at 22.75 mills and the Braierd School District rate placed at 40 5-6 mills.

NOTICE

Sealed bids will be received by the City Council of the City of Braierd up to 8 o'clock P. M., Oct. 15, 1928, for the construction of Lateral Sewer E-2, Sewer District No. 7, extending west from Lateral Sewer B-3, District No. 4, in S. Fifth Street, along the center line of Pine Street, a distance of 293 lineal feet.

Each bid must be accompanied by a cash deposit or duly certified check, payable to the City of Braierd, for at least fifteen per cent (15%) of the amount of each proposal.

The right to reject any or all bids is reserved by the City Council. By order of the City Council.

E. T. FLEENER,
City Clerk.

Red Cross Appeal For Funds to Aid Hurricane Sufferers

Previously reported $180.55
Mrs. J. A. Thabes..... 2.00
Total.....$182.55

FORMER BRAINERDITE DIES

Services for Earl Moore Conducted Thursday at Emily

Earl Moore passed away at his home in Crosby on Second avenue west at 9:40 p. m. on Monday, Sept. 24, cause of death being heart disease from which he had suffered for some time, and the past three days prior to death was confined to his bed.

Mr. Moore was born in South Dakota on Sept. 13, 1887, and was at the time of his death 41 years and 11 days old. He came to Minnesota when a child and lived in these parts ever since, having spent 17 years at Emily. For a livelihood he did odd jobs and contracted for timber in the woods, and worked as a carpenter building summer residences on the lakes.

He was united in marriage on Sept. 30, 1909 at Braierd to Miss Minnie Flanders of Mission township. He is mourned by his wife and one daughter, Mayme, besides his aged mother, five sisters, who are Eva, Hazel, Mrs. Mary Fenner of Potlatch, Idaho, Mrs. Alice Laughton, Juliette, Idaho, and Mrs. Neil Moolren of Moosejaw, Canada, and nine brothers, Alley, William, Steve, Fred, Joe, Sam, Ray and Leo of Idaho and Canada. Mr. Moore was one of a family of 17 children.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore and daughter moved to Crosby about three weeks ago from Emily. Mrs. Moore is a sister of Mrs. Martin Vogel.

Services were conducted at the home at 12:30 o'clock Thursday, Sept. 27 and at the M. E. church at Emily at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Lorenzo Johnson of Deerwood, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Thomas sang "We are going down the valley one by one," "Shall we know as we are known," and "No night there." Interment was made at the Emily cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Rev. Lester Fletcher, Bert Stirewalt, Neal Bowman, Vernon Lambert, Carl Peterson and Cecil Carlton.

Friends from out of town who attended the last sad rites were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carlton of Braierd.

Condolences are extended to the bereaved. He was a member of M. E. church at Emily.

IN CHARGE OF OIL STATION

"Wally" Anderson Named Manager of Standard Oil Station, 6th and Maple Streets

Succeeding Robert Elder who will leave within a month to take over new duties in the southern part of the state, Wallace E. Anderson today entered upon his new duties as manager of the Standard Oil Company station, southwest corner of Sixth and Maple streets.

Raise Rabbits

Association buys all rabbits raised by members. Time payments may be arranged on breeding stock. Write or call for details.

Chinchilla Fur Breeders Assn.
1609 So. Broadway, Braierd

COST IMPORTANT IN HOSE HOUSE ACTION

Council Names Engineer and Committee to Determine Best Plan

CONSIDER RENOVATION

Cost of New Building Would be $1,096, City Engineer Estimates

City Engineer R. T. Campbell and the City Property Committee will investigate the Northeast Braierd Hosehouse with respect to determining the most economical procedure regarding construction of a smaller building or renovation of the old.

This action was decided upon by the city council Monday evening following a report by Engineer Campbell that the cost of constructing a concrete block building there, 26 feet by 30 feet, ten feet high would be in the neighborhood of $1,096, a sum in excess to that at first believed necessary by the council.

Previous to the action taken, W. J. Hogan, and Elvin Gronquist, members of Hose House No. 3, requested that the proposed new construction be increased to 26 feet by 40 feet.

Alderman Andrew Wesley was of the opinion that the building might be cut down to one story and that story repaired.

Alderman Martin Anderson stated he did not favor Alderman Wesley's plan as should this be done the building even then would be considered a fire hazard.

Alderman W. J. Hall: "I don't see how we can go into a very expensive proposition. The taxes are high enough as it is without imposing more."

Alderman V. E. Anderson: "I do not think it good policy to repair the old building."

Alderman V. E. Quamstrom: "It would cost more to improve the old building than build a new one."

Alderman Martin Anderson: "The ward is large enough to have a building. There must be a voting place, a meeting place for the members of the hose company and the boy scouts."

Alderman Wesley: "I would like to see an estimate taken as to the cost of repairing the building."

FIX OLD CITY JAIL

Building to be Used as Polling Place for First Precinct, Second Ward

Renovation of the old city "lock-up" to be used as the polling place for the first precinct of the second ward will be completed this week, City Engineer R. T. Campbell, in charge of the work announced today.

A new roof is being placed on the building.

TO TEACH PIANO HERE

Miss Mildred Breidenberg Opens Studio at Her Home for Piano Instructions Saturdays

Miss Mildred Breidenberg who is connected with the Range Music Studios has made arrangements to teach piano at her home in Braierd on Saturdays.

Miss Breidenberg attended the Minneapolis and MacPhail Schools of Music from which she received her Bachelor of Music degree. She worked under the instructions of the late Madame Bailey Apfelbeck, concert pianist and artist teacher at the MacPhail School of Music, continuing her studies with Harrison Wall Johnson and specialized in children's work under Carolyn Bowen.

Her theoretical work was received under J. Victor Berquist, Hamlin Hunt, Theodore Granschow, F. Mueller, Ray Palmer, Stanley Avery and Carolyn Bowen and completed the course in piano accompanying with Mrs. James Bliss.

She has taught at the Great Falls Conservatory of Music and dramatic art, Great Falls, Mont., acting as associate teacher of Lorraine Laliberte, pupil of Petri Godowsky, Galtz Philipp of Berlin and Paris and with whom she continued her studies.

OAK LAWN HOOVER CLUB ORGANIZED

County Chairman D. D. Schrader and Precinct Chairman August Erickson Assisted

MEN AND WOMEN JOIN

Mrs. Lawrence McCulloch is Named President, Frank Miller Elected Vice President

A Hoover club with a membership of 20 men and women was organized at Oak Lawn town hall last night, County Chairman D. D. Schrader and Precinct Chairman August Erickson assisting in getting the organization under way. A number of Braierd people were in attendance.

These officers were named: President, Mrs. Lawrence McCulloch.

Vice President, Frank Miller, Secretary, Mrs. Edward Laughton. Addresses were made by D. D. Schrader and George Erickson. The two speakers covered the platform and achievements of the republican party and made an appeal for support of Hoover, Arthur E. Nelson, Congressman Harold Knutson and the republican state ticket.

The town hall has the finest voting booths in the state. The township is progressive and always polls a large vote. Much literature was distributed and the members present will seek to largely increase the club membership.

DISTRICT COURT JURORS DRAWN

Number Transferred From May Term to Serve on Fall Term

COURT OPENS NOVEMBER 6

Jury Will Not be Called However Until November 8

Petit jurors drawn yesterday to serve at the November term of district court follow:

Martin Anderson, A. E. Fredstrom, Route 7, Braierd; Ned Bowman, Jenkins; Sigurd Brenno, Lars Sampson, Mrs. R. J. Harte, Pequot; C. N. Coleman, Deerwood; Mrs. Herman Holm, Mrs. E. J. Fearing, Crosby; Theodore Evans, Garrison; E. J. Emery, I. Bjornaan, J. F. Lefebvre, Ironton; Paul Henry, Cross Lake; Hugo Luek, Altkin route 3; Ernest Kleinschmidt, Braierd route 6; Glen Hote, Emily; M. Fremling, 1717 Norwood street, Mrs. Fred Backen, 1220 South 6th street, Mrs. L. J. Erickson, 1603 Norwood street, Robert Johnson, 519 League avenue N. E., Mrs. W. M. Murphy, 123 Kingwood street, Mrs. Edna Bikkis, 1107 Pine street, Mrs. Joe Britton, 7th street, Mrs. G. G. Fallquist, 316 Ninth street, D. T. Lawrence, 519 Sixth street S., Mrs. Zimmerman, 302 Fourth avenue N. E., A. W. Garvey, Braierd.

The following jurors were transferred from the May 1928 term to serve on the fall term: Mrs. David Soderlund, 913 Quince street, Sam F. Hawkins, Braierd; Mel Stropp, Bert Sabin, Merrifield; Claude Mitchell, Walter Shultz, Swansburg; Edward F. Gross, Deerwood; Bert Sabin, Merrifield; Ward Struble, Ironton.

While the district court opens on November 6, the jury will not be called before 9 a. m., November 8.

IMPROVING THE ROSKO AIRPORT

Two Tractors and Five Men at Work on the 160 Acre Field

Brush at Top of Hill Near Roadway Has Been Entirely Removed

With two tractors and five men at work the work of making Rosko field into a first class airport is well under way. The 160 acre tract is being completely conditioned and put in shape. At the present time the runways are being leveled and rolled.

The brush on the top of the hill near the roadway has been entirely removed. A mast for a weather vane for the convenience of visiting aviators has been erected.

SENATOR HERE MONDAY

Shipstead to Speak to Voters in Evening; Meeting Place is Undetermined

Senator Henrik Shipstead will visit friends in Braierd and district Monday, October 8, it was announced here today. The candidate for reelection is scheduled to give a talk here Monday evening at the U. C. T. auditorium or some other hall in the city. A dinner is to precede the meeting.

POLICE DOG UNCLAIMED

Will be Destroyed if Not Called for in Three Days, Inspector Announces

A police dog that displays tricks not ordinary in a dog has become a favorite in the city hall but unless it is claimed within three days by the owner, it will be destroyed, Inspector L. E. Cameron announced today.

The dog was picked up without a tag at the Whittier school grounds. "The dog is friendly, not in the least vicious and willingly 'speaks,' 'shakes hands,' and does other trained tricks."

Timely Purchase of Wonderful Felts

The cry of our trade is for Felts! and through a wonderful streak of good luck our Eastern Buyer was able to secure the latest colors and shapes in soles, and we in turn are going to pass on to our customers this good fortune, and offer you felts that would ordinarily sell for $3.95 to $6.50 at the ridiculously low price of

$1.95 and $2.95

E. F. Gates Store

A Good Place to Trade

Excelsa Patterns 15c, 20c, 25c

... Amazing Revelation of motor car value today!

Plymouth Business Coupe, $685

—how the New Plymouth defies every attempt to compare it with the few other cars in its field

Discover for yourself in the easiest possible way which of the few lowest-priced cars is the one great dollar-for-dollar value.

Compare the other cars in this group with Plymouth.

Set against it each one of the few other cars of its price. You'll be astounded by the extra roominess, debonair styling and real luxury that abound in the Plymouth.

If you'll spend a few minutes behind the wheel, still greater surprises are in store for you.

The zip and zest of Plymouth get-away, the wondrous smoothness at every speed, the all-weather efficiency of Chrysler internal-expanding hydraulic 4-wheel brakes—these heighten the amazement that so much value could be packed into a car of so low a price.

Try the Plymouth. See how it stands out from the few other cars of the lowest-priced class—unrivaled in quality, unapproached in actual dollar-for-dollar value.

$675
AND UPWARDS

Roadster . . . $675
(with rumble seat)
Coupe . . . 685
Touring . . . 695
2-Door Sedan . 700
De Luxe Coupe . 735
(with rumble seat)
4-Door Sedan . 735

All prices f.o.b. Detroit. Plymouth dealers are in a position to extend the convenience of time payments.

CHRYSLER
Plymouth

BRANDT BROS.

Phone 763

Braierd

"H. L. Special"

or

"H. L. Poca hontas"

For if he had, that scowl of dissatisfaction would have been dispelled by a smile of satisfaction.

Hayes-Lucas Lumber Co.

"building experts"

R. L. GEIST, Mgr.

105 So. Broadway

Phone 14

CITIZENS STATE BANK OF BRAINERD

Oldest and Largest State Bank in Crow Wing Co.

With good tools, you can accomplish things which you couldn't possibly accomplish without them.

For building a happy and prosperous future, there's no more valuable tool than a growing Savings Account at this substantial, cordially helpful bank.

STATE RATE DECREASE TO EVEN COUNTY RAISE

State Rate of 5.34 Mills Announced Today; Slight Increase in County Rate

FIX TOTAL RATE SOON

Increase in County Funds Made to Put County Out of Debt

Although the county rate will be slightly higher this year over last a decrease in the state rate announced today will place the county rate of taxation approximately the same as last year, figures checked today at the county auditor's office show.

The state rate received today shows a state levy of 5.34 mills. Of this 4.06 is for state revenue, 1.23 mills for state schools and .05 mills for Teachers Insurance and Retirement Fund. This rate shows a decrease from the rate set aside by the state last year of 7.70 mills, divided as follows: state revenue, 6.42 mills, state schools, 1.23 mills, Teachers Insurance and Retirement Fund, .05 mills.

The county rate of taxation last year for county expenditure was 27.90 mills. The county commissioners will be able to arrive at this year's tax rate for 1929 expenditure, collectable in 1929 this month following determination of the value of mineral properties to complete the valuation of land in the county. The tax commission will sit at the board of equalization this month. Following this meeting the rate of taxation will be announced.

Appropriations for the various county funds necessary for the year 1929 are announced as follows:

| | |
|---------------------------|-----------|
| County Revenue Fund..... | $ 90,000 |
| Road and bridge fund..... | 125,000 |
| Poor fund | 30,000 |
| Sanatorium fund | 12,500 |
| Sinking fund | 25,000 |
| Bond interest fund | 14,000 |

Total

Preceding year appropriations follow:

| | |
|---------------------------|-----------|
| County revenue fund..... | $ 80,000 |
| Road and bridge fund..... | 115,000 |
| Poor fund | 20,000 |
| Sanatorium fund | 12,500 |
| Sinking fund | 25,000 |
| Bond interest fund | 9,000 |

Total

An increase in the number of pensioners for Mothers' Pension paid out of the poor fund accounts for the increase of $10,000 in that fund this year.

The Revenue, Road and Bridge Funds were increased to take up outstanding warrants, thus putting the county on a cash basis next year.

The Sinking Fund of $25,000 is to take up old railroad bonds of which there are $50,000 outstanding. One more levy of $25,000 which the county intends to make next year will put the county out of bonded indebtedness.

Braierd's complete rate of taxation will be available the latter part of this month. The "City of Braierd" mill rate was fixed at 22.75 mills and the Braierd School District rate placed at 40 5-6 mills.

NOTICE

Sealed bids will be received by the City Council of the City of Braierd up to 8 o'clock P. M., Oct. 15, 1928, for the construction of Lateral Sewer E-2, Sewer District No. 7, extending west from Lateral Sewer B-3, District No. 4, in S. Fifth Street, along the center line of Pine Street, a distance of 293 lineal feet.

Each bid must be accompanied by a cash deposit or duly certified check, payable to the City of Braierd, for at least fifteen per cent (15%) of the amount of each proposal.

The right to reject any or all bids is reserved by the City Council.

By order of the City Council,
E. T. FLEENER,
City Clerk.

9773wed

Red Cross Appeal For Funds to Aid Hurricane Sufferers

Previously reported$180.45
Mrs. J. A. Thabes..... 2.00

Total.....$182.45

FORMER BRAINERDITE DIES

Services for Earl Moore Conducted Thursday at Emily

Earl Moore passed away at his home in Crosby on Second avenue west at 9:40 p. m. on Monday, Sept. 24, cause of death being heart disease from which he had suffered for some time, and the past three days prior to death was confined to his bed.

Mr. Moore was born in South Dakota on Sept. 13, 1887, and was at the time of his death 41 years and 11 days old. He came to Minnesota when a child and lived in these parts ever since, having spent 17 years at Emily. For a livelihood he did odd jobs and contracted for timber in the woods, and worked as a carpenter building summer residences on the lakes.

He was united in marriage on Sept. 30, 1909 at Braierd to Miss Minnie Flanders of Mission township. He is mourned by his wife and one daughter, Mayme, besides his aged mother, five sisters, who are Eva, Hazel, Mrs. Mary Fenner of Pottlatch, Idaho, Mrs. Alice Laughton, Juliette, Idaho, and Mrs. Neil Moolren of Moosejaw, Canada, and nine brothers, Alley, William, Steve, Fred, Joe, Sam, Ray and Leo of Idaho and Canada. Mr. Moore was one of a family of 17 children.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore and daughter moved to Crosby about three weeks ago from Emily. Mrs. Moore is a sister of Mrs. Martin Vogel.

Services were conducted at the home at 12:30 o'clock Thursday, Sept. 27 and at the M. E. church at Emily at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Lorenzo Johnson of Deerwood, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Thomas sang "We are going down the valley one by one," "Shall we know as we are known," and "No night there." Interment was made at the Emily cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Rev. Lester Fletcher, Bert Stirewalt, Neal Bowman, Vernon Lambert, Carl Peterson and Cecil Carlton.

Friends from out of town who attended the last sad rites were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carlton of Braierd.

Condolences are extended to the bereaved. He was a member of M. E. church at Emily.

IN CHARGE OF OIL STATION

"Wally" Anderson Named Manager of Standard Oil Station, 6th and Maple Streets

Succeeding Robert Elder who will leave within a month to take over new duties in the southern part of the state, Wallace E. Anderson today entered upon his new duties as manager of the Standard Oil Company station, southwest corner of Sixth and Maple streets.

Raise Rabbits

Association buys all rabbits raised by members. Time payments may be arranged on breeding stock. Write or call for details.

Chinchilla Fur Breeders Assn.
1609 So. Broadway, Braierd

COST IMPORTANT IN HOSE HOUSE ACTION

Council Names Engineer and Committee to Determine
Best Plan

CONSIDER RENOVATION

Cost of New Building Would be
$1,096, City Engineer
Estimates

City Engineer R. T. Campbell and the City Property Committee will investigate the Northeast Braierd Hosehouse with respect to determining the most economical procedure regarding construction of a smaller building or renovation of the old.

This action was decided upon by the city council Monday evening following a report by Engineer Campbell that the cost of constructing a concrete block building there, 26 feet by 30 feet, ten feet high would be in the neighborhood of $1,096, a sum in excess to that at first believed necessary by the council.

Previous to the action taken, W. J. Hogan, and Elvin Gronquist, members of Hose House No. 3, requested that the proposed new construction be increased to 26 feet by 40 feet.

Alderman Andrew Wesley was of the opinion that the building might be cut down to one story and that story repaired.

Alderman Martin Anderson stated he did not favor Alderman Wesley's plan as should this be done the building even then would be considered a fire hazard.

Alderman W. J. Hall: "I don't see how we can go into a very expensive proposition. The taxes are high enough as it is without imposing more."

Alderman V. F. Anderson: "I do not think it good policy to repair the old building."

Alderman V. E. Quansstrom: "It would cost more to improve the old building than build a new one."

Alderman Martin Anderson: "The ward is large enough to have a building. There must be a voting place, a meeting place for the members of the hose company and the boys scouts."

Alderman Wesley: "I would like to see an estimate taken as to the cost of repairing the building."

FIX OLD CITY JAIL

Building to be Used as Polling Place for First Precinct,
Second Ward

Renovation of the old city "lock-up" to be used as the polling place for the first precinct of the second ward will be completed this week, City Engineer R. T. Campbell, in charge of the work announced today.

A new roof is being placed on the building.

TO TEACH PIANO HERE

Miss Mildred Breidenberg Opens
Studio at Her Home for Piano
Instructions Saturdays

Miss Mildred Breidenberg who is connected with the Range Music Studios has made arrangements to teach piano at her home in Braierd on Saturdays.

Miss Breidenberg attended the Minneapolis and MacPhail Schools of Music from which she received her Bachelor of Music degree. She worked under the instructions of the late Madame Bailey Appelbeck, concert pianist and artist teacher at the MacPhail School of Music, continuing her studies with Harrison Wall Johnson and specialized in children's work under Carolyn Bowen.

Her theoretical work was received under J. Victor Berquist, Hamlin Hunt, Theodore Granschow, F. Mueller, Ray Palmer, Stanley Avery and Carolyn Bowen and completed the course in piano accompanying with Mrs. James Bliss.

She has taught at the Great Falls Conservatory of Music and dramatic art, Great Falls, Mont., acting as associate teacher of Lorraine Laliberte, pupil of Petri Godowsky, Galtz Philipp of Berlin and Paris and with whom she continued her studies.

OAK LAWN HOOVER CLUB ORGANIZED

County Chairman D. D. Schrader and Precinct Chairman August
Erickson Assisted

MEN AND WOMEN JOIN

Mrs. Lawrence McCulloch is Named
President, Frank Miller Elected
Vice President

A Hoover club with a membership of 20 men and women was organized at Oak Lawn town hall last night, County Chairman D. D. Schrader and Precinct Chairman August Erickson assisting in getting the organization under way. A number of Braierd people were in attendance.

These officers were named:
President, Mrs. Lawrence McCulloch.

Vice President, Frank Miller, Secretary, Mrs. Edward Laughton. Addresses were made by D. D. Schrader and George Erickson. The two speakers covered the platform and achievements of the republican party and made an appeal for support of Hoover, Arthur E. Nelson, Congressman Harold Knutson and the republican state ticket.

The town hall has the finest voting booths in the state. The township is progressive and always polls a large vote. Much literature was distributed and the members present will seek to largely increase the club membership.

DISTRICT COURT JURORS DRAWN

Number Transferred From May Term to Serve on Fall Term

COURT OPENS NOVEMBER 6

Jury Will Not be Called However Until November
8

Petit jurors drawn yesterday to serve at the November term of district court follow:

Martin Anderson, J. E. Fredstrom, Route 7, Braierd; Ned Bowman, Jenkins; Sigurd Brenno, Lars Sampson, Mrs. R. J. Harte, Pequot; C. N. Coleman, Deerwood; Mrs. Herman Holm, Mrs. E. J. Fearing, Crosby; Theodore Evans, Garrison; E. J. Emery, I. Bjornan, J. F. Lefebvre, Ironton; Paul Henry, Cross Lake; Hugo Luek, Aitkin route 3; Ernest Kleinschmidt, Braierd route 6; Glen Hote, Emily; M. Fremling, 1717 Norwood street, Mrs. Fred Backen, 1220 South 6th street, Mrs. L. J. Erickson, 1603 Norwood street, Robert Johnson, 519 League avenue N. E., Mrs. W. M. Murphy, 123 Kingwood street, Mrs. Edna Bikkie, 1107 Pine street, Mrs. Joe Britton, 7th street, Mrs. G. Fallquist, 316 Ninth street, D. T. Lawrence, 510 Sixth street S., Mrs. Zimmerman, 302 Fourth avenue N. E., A. W. Garvey, Braierd.

The following jurors were transferred from the May 1928 term to serve on the fall term: Mrs. David Soderlund, 913 Quince street, Sam F. Hawkins, Braierd; Mel Stropp, Bert Sabin, Merrifield; Claude Mitchell, Walter Shultz, Swansburg; Edward F. Gross, Deerwood; Bert Sabin, Merrifield; Ward Struble, Ironton.

While the district court opens on November 6, the jury will not be called before 9 a. m., November 8.

IMPROVING THE ROSKO AIRPORT

Two Tractors and Five Men at Work on the 160 Acre
Field

Brush at Top of Hill Near Roadway
Has Been Entirely Removed

With two tractors and five men at work the work of making Rosko field into a first class airport is well under way. The 160 acre tract is being completely conditioned and put in shape. At the present time the runways are being leveled and rolled.

The brush on the top of the hill near the roadway has been entirely removed. A mast for a weather vane for the convenience of visiting aviators has been erected.

POLICE DOG UNCLAIMED

Will be Destroyed if Not Called for in Three Days, Inspector
Announces

A police dog that displays tricks not ordinary in a dog has become a favorite in the city hall but unless it is claimed within three days by the owner, it will be destroyed, Inspector L. E. Cameron announced today.

The dog was picked up without a tag at the Whittier school grounds. "The dog is friendly, not in the least vicious and willingly 'speaks,' 'shakes hands,' and does other trained tricks."

Timely Purchase of Wonderful Felts

The cry of our trade is for Felts! and through a wonderful streak of good luck our Eastern Buyer was able to secure the latest colors and shapes in soles, and we in turn are going to pass on to our customers this good fortune, and offer you felts that would ordinarily sell for $3.95 to $6.50 at the ridiculously low price of

$1.95 and $2.95

E. F. Gates Store

A Good Place to Trade

Excella Patterns 15c, 20c, 25c

...Amazing Revelation of motor car value today!

Plymouth Business Coupe, $685

—how the New Plymouth defies every attempt to compare it with the few other cars in its field

Discover for yourself in the easiest possible way which of the few lowest-priced cars is the one great dollar-for-dollar value.

Compare the other cars in this group with Plymouth.

Set against it each one of the few other cars of its price. You'll be astounded by the extra roominess, debonair styling and real luxury abound in the Plymouth.

If you'll spend a few minutes

behind the wheel, still greater surprises are in store for you.

The zip and zest of Plymouth getaway, the wondrous smoothness at every speed, the all-weather efficiency of Chrysler internal-expanding hydraulic 4-wheel brakes—these heighten the amazement that so much value could be packed into a car of so low a price.

Try the Plymouth. See how it stands out from the few other cars of the lowest-priced class—unrivaled in quality, unapproached in actual dollar-for-dollar value.

$675
AND UPWARDS

| | |
|--------------------|-------|
| Roadster . . . | $675 |
| (with rumble seat) | |
| Coupe . . . | 685 |
| Touring . . . | 695 |
| 2-Door Sedan . | 700 |
| De Luxe Coupe . | 735 |
| (with rumble seat) | |
| 4-Door Sedan . | 735 |

All prices f.o.b. Detroit. Plymouth dealers are in a position to extend the convenience of time payments.

CHRYSLER
Plymouth

BRANDT BROS.

Phone 763

Braierd

With good tools, you can accomplish things which you couldn't possibly accomplish without them.

For building a happy and prosperous future, there's no more valuable tool than a growing Savings Account at this substantial, cordially helpful bank.

CITIZENS STATE BANK OF BRAINERD

Oldest and Largest State Bank in Crow Wing Co.

"H. L. Special"

or

"H. L. Poca hontas"

For if he had, that scowl of dissatisfaction would have been dispelled by a smile of satisfaction.

Hayes-Lucas Lumber Co.

"building experts"

R. L. GEIST, Mgr.

105 So. Broadway

Phone 14

Broadway Love

by Thomas Edgelow

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

WHEN Fenimore Wilde, famous Broadway actor dies, his young and pretty daughter, Janet, obtains a job with John Montague, theatrical impresario, while her brother, Frank, an idler, goes South. Janet makes friends with Leonard Quigg, a temperamental musician who loves her, and a brilliant young surgeon, David Churchill, who is married. Her employer insults her and she resigns to accept the position of secretary to Dr. Churchill. During this time she had added to her list of friends Leonard's artist-uncle, Chester Quigg and his young daughter, Alice. One evening David Churchill admits he is in love with Janet and wants a divorce from his wife. Janet tells him she does not love him, and because of offensive comments about her made by his wife, she will not see him again. Chester Quigg asks Janet to live at the studio and help manage his mother, a domineering creature with strange illusions. At the same time Janet's brother, Frank, arrives home, broke and in debt. Leonard Quigg gives Frank $1,000 to pay off the gambling debt but makes him promise not to tell Janet. She moves into the Quigg home and that evening her difficulties with old Mrs. Quigg begin. After dinner, the first successful meal since the arrival of Chester's mother, the doorbell rings. A uniformed ambulance attendant stands at the door.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXIX.

"RING for an ambulance?" Janet re-echoed. Of course not!"

"Party by the name of Quigg!" the man insisted. "Telephoned and said an ambulance was needed at once."

"It was quite a mistake," Alice interrupted gravely. "Someone did phone for an ambulance, but it is not wanted now, and we are very sorry to have troubled you."

"What is it?" asked Janet puzzled. "Who telephoned for an ambulance?"

"Grandmamma must have done it," Alice explained. "That's the fourth time. Whenever she feels neglected she phones for an ambulance. She ought to be in a sanitarium, but Daddy won't hear of it."

There was a sound of a cane tapping, and Mrs. Quigg came belligerently into the studio.

"Why did you telephone for an ambulance?" Janet asked mildly.

"To begin with, young woman," Mrs. Quigg retorted with tremendous dignity, "when you speak to me, kindly address me as 'Ma'am.' It's more fitting. And I did send for an ambulance to take that nasty dog of yours away. I know I am unloved and unwanted, but this is the first time that an ungrateful family has asked me to live in a kennel. Humble I may be, and long suffering, but this is a little too much."

Janet laughed. It was fortunate that she could, for although old Mrs. Quigg was in a way as amusing as a pet monkey, she was intensely trying on the nerves.

"I don't see how you are going to be happy with us," Alice said contritely. "I shall feel terrible if you aren't."

"Don't you worry about me," Janet reassured her, feeling that she really had a job that was going to exercise all her tact and ingenuity.

One cold evening in the middle of March, Janet was writing letters in her own room. Her telephone rang and she heard David Churchill's voice on the wire.

"I am so low that I just have to see you," he pleaded. "What was that you said, Janet, about a girl hiding from a man so that he built up an impossible image of her? You are probably far less attractive than I think you are—so can't you see me and destroy the illusion?"

But Janet was not to be beguiled by this.

"I know I talked like that," she admitted, "but it is not practical in your case. I had no idea that your wife would be jealous of me, and I am not going to stir up any matrimonial trouble."

"You can't," he said with bitter humor. "It's stirred up already."

"Why can't you forget me?" she reasoned with him. "It won't do you any good to see me, and I would think so much more of you if you would realize that your work is vastly more important to you than I am."

She got rid of him at last, and then began to blame herself. What a fool she had been, she accused herself, for not realizing that David had been attracted by her from the first.

But life at the studio was too hurried to permit introspection. Chester Quigg was in constant trouble, and it was second nature on Janet's part to try and straighten out his difficulties. He was always more anxious to give his day to something that amused him, than, for example, to get on with a portrait which bored him but which meant a big check.

At the end of March, Chester was engaged in painting the unlovely wife of a very rich stockbroker. It was a gorgeous morning, and Chester had made up his mind that he was going to sketch Janet.

"But you have an appointment with Mrs. Pettibone-Shrady at eleven," she reminded him.

"Telephone to her!" he bellowed. "Tell the woman I died last night, and my last request was that she would never get her face recorded on canvas. Ring her up and beg her to drown herself."

"The first of April is unpleasantly near," Janet said quietly.

"Some April fool business?" he asked.

"Rent and telephone, and a few other bills," Janet went on. "You asked me to take care of your check book, and you wouldn't do any work today if I let you know what your balance was. You have all the first-of-the-month expenses to meet, and no money at hand. The moment Mrs. Pettibone-Shrady's portrait is finished, you will get a check for three thousand—and then you talk about not getting on with it. You only have about another three sittings. Use some common sense."

So Mrs. Pettibone-Shrady was not requested to drown herself, and at the appointed hour she breezed into the studio and took up her accustomed pose.

"I want my son to sit to you," she rattled away. "John is always so busy, as he has recently become his father's partner, but I made him promise to run away from the tinker for an hour. He's coming here to take me to lunch, and then you can see him, Mr. Quigg."

Janet, who had overheard this, held her breath. She was afraid that Chester Quigg might refuse the commission, and his expenses were enormous. However, her lecture seemed to have penetrated, for he murmured something about it being very interesting.

Janet decided that Mr. John Pettibone-Shrady, when he arrived to take his mother to lunch, was far from being interesting. He was tall, and not bad looking, but he seemed extremely conscious of the fact that he was already a partner in his father's firm of stockbrokers, and that he was about to purchase a seat on the Exchange, and all this before he was twenty-seven!

On the other hand, Mr. John Pettibone-Shrady seemed to find the pretty girl whom he met in Chester Quigg's studio of more than usual interest, because he delayed his departure, pretending to be occupied in examining the nearly completed portrait of his mother.

"Would it be possible for me to sit to Mr. Quigg in the early morning, as I must be in Wall Street not later than five minutes to ten?" he asked Janet.

And before he left he had arranged to have his portrait done, the sittings to take place at half-past eight on stated mornings.

"That pompous young prig fell for you," Chester Quigg bellowed his laughter when they were alone. "You'll probably marry him and have an apartment on Park Avenue, and a pearl necklace, and everything. But see what I'll do to him on canvas!"

"I thought him a very harmless young man, and it isn't his fault he's rich," Janet smiled. "It is nice of you to let your imagination run away with you," she added, "but it is possible for me to meet a man without him falling in love with me, you know."

"I'm not so sure about that," Chester retorted. "It looks to me as if my nephew has a bad case. I don't see what any girl could see in Leonard Quigg! Nothing to him."

"He has rather a melodious speaking voice, and he rarely shouts," Janet suggested. "And for an artist and a Quigg, he is really quite sane!" She went slowly out of the studio, softly humming one of Leonard's melodies.

(To Be Continued.)

GANGWAY!

Bids Family Adieu

Here's a close-up of Commander Richard E. Byrd, taken in front of his Back Bay home in Boston when he arrived in the Hub city to bid farewell to his family. He leaves immediately for the Antarctic.

(International Newsreel)

LIVESTOCK, PRODUCE AND GRAIN MARKETS

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(By Department of Agriculture)—HOGS—Receipts, 12,000. Mostly steady to 10c higher; top $11.30. Butchers, medium to choice, 250-350 lbs., $10.15@11.25; 200-250 lbs., $10.25@11.30; 160-200 lbs., $10@11.30; 130-160 lbs., $9.25@10.75; packing sows, $9.25@10.25; pigs, medium to choice, 90-130 lbs., $8.75@10.

CATTLE—Receipts, 10,000. Calves, receipts, 3,000. Mostly steady on yearlings; top steers and yearlings $17.50. Slaughter classes: Steers, good and choice, 1300-1500 lbs., $14.25@17.50; 1100-1300 lbs., $14.25@17.50; 950-1100 lbs., $14.25@17.50; common and medium, 850 lbs. down, $9@14.25. Fed yearlings, good and choice, 750-950 lbs., $14.50@17.75. Heifers, good and choice, 850 lbs. down, $13.50@17.75; common and medium, $7.75@13.75. Cows, good and choice, $9@11.75; common and medium, $7.50@9; low cutter and cutter, $6.10@7.50. Bulls, good and choice (beef), $9.50@10.75; cutter to medium, $7@9.50. Vealers (milk fed), good and choice, $15.50@16.75; medium, $13.50@15.50; cull and common, $8.50@13.50. Stocker and feeder steers, good and choice (all weights), $11.50@13.50; common and medium, $8.50@11.50.

SHEEP—Receipts, 25,000. Fat lambs slow, 10@25c lower; sheep steady. Lambs, good and choice (92 lbs. down), $12.35@13.60; medium, $11.25@12.35; cull and common, $7.50@11.25. Ewes, medium to choice (150 lbs. down), $14.25@16.75; cull and common, $1.75@5. Feeder lambs, good and choice, $12.25@13.35.

SOUTH ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK

South St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(By Department of Agriculture)—HOGS—Receipts, 11,000. Market mostly steady; bidding 25@50c lower; pigs steady to weak, 250-350 lbs., $9.85@10.50; 200-250 lbs., $10@10.50; 160-200 lbs., $10@10.50; 130-160 lbs., $9.50@10.25; 90-130 lbs., $9.50@10.50; packing sows, $9@9.50.

CATTLE—Receipts, 3,500. Market: Slow; vealers steady. Calves, receipts, 2,500. Bulk quotations: Grass stock steers, $10@12; grass stock cows, $7@8.50; low cutters and cutter cows, $5.75@6.50; vealers, $14.50; stock and feeder steers, $9.50@11.25.

SHEEP—Receipts, 10,000. Market: Mostly 50c lower on fat lambs; sheep steady. Quotations: Top fat lambs, $12.75; bulk fat lambs, $11.75@12.75; bulk cull lambs, $9.50; bulk fat ewes, $14@16.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET

BUTTER—Receipts, 4,176 tubs. Extras, 47c; extra firsts, 45½@46½c; seconds, 43½@44½c; standards, 41½@42½c.

EGGS—Receipts, 6,148 cases. Firsts, 30@33c; ordinaries, 27@29c; seconds, 23@26c.

CHEESE—Twins, 24c; Young Americas, 25c.

LIVE POULTRY—Receipts, 9 cars. Fowls, 18@28½c. Springs, 20@29c. Ducks, 18@23c. Geese, 22c. Turkeys, 25@30c. Roosters, 21c.

POTATOES—Arrivals 152 cars; on track 479; in transit 1,028. Wisconsin sacked Round Whites, 85@95c. Minnesota sacked Irish Cobbles, 80@90c. Minnesota and North Dakota

New Face Powder Now the Fashion

Wouldn't you, too, like a face powder that will keep shine away—stay on longer—spread smoothly—not clog the pores—and always be so pure and fine? It is made by a new French Process and is called MELLO-GLO. It is surely a wonderful Powder. Just try MELLO-GLO. Johnson's Pharmacy. —Adv't sacked Red River Ohios, 90c@$.1. South Dakota sacked Early Ohios, 85@90c. Idaho sacked Rurals, $1@1.10; sacked Russets, $1.50@1.65. Wisconsin sacked Bliss Triumphs, 75@90c.

ST. PAUL PRODUCE MARKET

BUTTER—Packing stock, 28@31c; butterfat, 52@53c; firsts, 44c; extras, 46c.

EGGS—No. 1, 31@32c; seconds, 25@26c.

LIVE POULTRY—Hens, 14@22c; broilers, 25c.

MINNEAPOLIS PRODUCE MARKET

BUTTER—Extras, 46c; firsts, 44c; seconds, 42c.

EGGS—Firsts, $9; seconds, $6.90.

MINNEAPOLIS CLOSING CASH PRICES

14 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.28¼@1.31¼; to arrive, $1.26¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.25¼@1.29¼. 13 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.20¼@1.24¼; to arrive, $1.20¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.16¼@1.22¼. 12 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.14¼@1.16¼; to arrive, $1.14¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.11¼@1.13¼. Grade of: No. 1 D. N., $1.11¼@1.13¼; to arrive, $1.11¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.09¼@1.11¼. Grade of: No. 1 Nor., $1.11¼@1.13¼; to arrive, $1.11¼. No. 2 Nor., $1.09¼@1.11¼.

CORN—No. 2 Yellow, 95@96c. No. 3 Yellow, 93@94c; to arrive, 85c. No. 4 Yellow, 91@92c. No. 5 Yellow, 88@90c. No. 3 Mixed, 85@87c. No. 4 Mixed, 83@84c. No. 5 Mixed, 81@82c.

OATS—No. 2 White, 41¼@43¼c. No. 3 White, 38¼@40¼c; to arrive, 38¼c. No. 4 White, 34¼@35¼c.

BARLEY—Choice to fancy, 64@66c; medium to good, 57@63c; lower grades, 54@57c.

RYE—No. 2, 98c@1.02; to arrive, 98c.

FLAXSEED—No. 1, $2.13¼@2.21¼; to arrive, $2.12¼@2.17¼.

H. B. SHERWOOD WITHDRAWS FROM CONTEST FOR JUDGE

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Elmer A. Kling, Little Falls, today was certified by the state as a nominee for judge in the seventh judicial district, following the death of Judge Claus J. Gunderson and the withdrawal of Harrison B. Sherwood, Long Prairie.

The four nominees now in the race for the two positions are Carroll Nye, Moorhead; Peter F. Schroeder, Detroit Lakes; Don M. Cameron, and Kling, both of Little Falls.

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

CITATION FOR HEARING ON PETITION TO SELL LAND

No. 3141 State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, ss., In Probate Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of M. K. Swartz, Decedent.

The State of Minnesota to all persons interested in the sale of certain lands belonging to said decedent. The petition of A. D. Polk, representative of the above named decedent, being duly filed in this court representing that it is necessary and for the best interests of said estate and of all interested therein that certain lands of said decedent described therein be sold and praying that a license be to him granted to sell the same.

Now, Therefore, You and each of you are hereby cited and required to show cause, if any you have, before this court, at the Probate Court Rooms, in the Court House in the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing, State of Minnesota, on the 29th day of October, 1928, at ten o'clock A. M., why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Witness, the Judge of said court, and the seal of said court, this 3rd day of October, 1928.

(Probate Court Seal) L. B. KINDER, Judge of Probate Court.

A. D. POLK, Attorney. 10213W

Internal Health by Nature's Own Methods

If you are sick inside you are sick all over. When the stomach fails to digest its food, you are standing at the threshold of a series of ailments that may end in a complete physical wreck.

Internal health means health throughout the body. Keep your stomach and other digestive organs clean and vigorous by giving them the natural stimulation of the roots, barks and herbs contained in Tanlac.

Tanlac is wonderful for indigestion and constipation—gas, pains, nausea, dizziness and headaches. It brings back lost appetite, helps you digest your food, and gain strength and weight.

Tanlac is as free from harmful drugs as the water you drink. It contains no mineral drugs; it is made of roots, barks and herbs, nature's own medicines for the sick. For over 10 years it has been recommended by druggists who have watched its marvelous results. The cost is less than 2 cents a dose. Get a bottle of Tanlac from your druggist and give it a thorough trial. Your money back if it doesn't help.

52 MILLION BOTTLES USED

An Amazing Success

Feen-a-mint

The Cheering LAXATIVE

Chew It Like Chewing Gum

A pleasure to use. Very efficient. Children love it. No taste but that of sweet mint. The most popular laxative because it's a "satisfier."

15c and 25c.

Dispatch Want Ads

Two cents per word for first insertion; one cent each issue thereafter

HELP WANTED

WANTED—Farm hands. See County Agent, court house. 3152-10213

WANTED—Waitress, Olympia Cafe. 3117-991f

WANTED—Experienced girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. H. P. Dunn, 323 North 3rd St. 3061-931f

GIRL with proper qualifications to take short practical training in our X-RAY, PHYSICAL, THERAPY and CLINICAL LABORATORIES qualifying for position as Doctor's Assistant or combination technician in the Hospital, Clinic or Laboratory. Professional Service, 200 Baker Arcade, Minneapolis, Minn. 3160-10213

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Green tomatoes. W. E. Paul, 109 Main. 3163-10313

FOR SALE—Round Oak heater, 728 4th Ave. N. E. 3159-10212

FOR SALE—Coles hot blast, 1020 Quince St. 3135-10113p

ROOMS for rent signs for sale at Dispatch. 2760-681f

FOR SALE—Two year old Guernsey bull. Lawrence Palmer, Star Tr. 3169-10313-4311p

FOR SALE—Cabbage and carrots. A. S. Lindberg. Phone 695-W. 3140-1011f

MARLIN pump gun, good as new, $19.50. Call 909 14th St. S. E. 3140-1011f

FOR SALE—Cabbage, carrots, squash. Phone 243-M. W. D. Allison, East Oak. 3136-10116

FOR SALE—1922 Dodge touring car, first class condition. Phone 19-W. 3164-10311-4311p

FOR SALE—Loom baby carriage cheap. Inquire at Economy Fruit Store. 3165-10311p

HOMES for sale, and rent. Attractive price and terms. Nettleton, 502 Laurel St. 3009-871f

FOR SALE—Cabbage, 2c lb. Peterson's, 1314 Mill Ave. N. E. Phone 456. 3113-9916eod

FOR SALE OR RENT—Seven room modern house on the North side. 223 North 3rd Street. 3127-1001f

FOR SALE—Light six Nash sedan, 1925 model, $475. Call 55-F-22 or write H. C. James, Cross Lake. 3166-10313

FOR SALE—Chiffonier, dressing table, rockers, tables, ice box, buffet. Prices very reasonable. 223 North 3rd street. 3162-1031f

FOR SALE—293 acre farm. Good buildings, very desirable terms. Inquire of Elmer Olson, agent. Citizens State bank, Brainerd. 3154-1021f

Oakland-Pontiac

"Good-Will" Used Cars

1928 Chevrolet Sedan, nearly new, fully equipped—Big Saving.

1925 Ford 4-Door, in perfect condition, good tires.

1927 Pontiac Landau Sedan, has had perfect care, new car guarantee.

1926 Pontiac 2-Door Sedan, just completely overhauled, a real buy.

1923 Studebaker Light Six Coupe, priced very low, Duco finish, A-1 shape.

1925 Jewett Coach, looks and runs like new.

Ford Panel Delivery and several Ford and Chevrolet Tourings cheap.

Your old car as cash payment, balance of GMAC monthly payment plan.

BRAINERD SERVICE MOTOR CO. Oakland-Pontiac Dealers

508 Front Street Phone 333 3170-10313

FOR SALE—Small residence grocery in city. Clean stock and fixtures. Fine location. Opportunity for two. Phone 373-J. 3167-10312

YELLOW CAB SERVICE

We are now operating day and night. Make appointment for train calls early. Phone 389. 78126

GEO. D. PALMER

LICENSED AUCTIONEER Satisfaction Guaranteed

Phone 363-J or 945-W

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—House, 307 S. 7th St. 3138-1011f

FOR RENT—3 unfurnished rooms, 219 N. 8th St. 3147-10113

FOR RENT—Garage, 722 S. 5th St. 3034-901f

FOR RENT—Four room flat, modern except heat, K. S. Bredenberg. 3142-1011f

FOR RENT—Furnished room, modern. 517 N. 5th St. 3150-1021f

FOR RENT—Furnished room, in modern home, 420 N. 8th St. Call 951-J. 3151-10213

FOR RENT—Four newly decorated housekeeping rooms, downstairs, 1223 Maple. 3158-10215

FARM FOR RENT—160 acres 3½ miles east on pavement. Call 1113-R. 3171-10312p

TWO furnished rooms for light housekeeping. 406 Oak St. 3161-10213p

FOR RENT—Two to four light housekeeping rooms. Call 799-J. 3015-891f

FOR RENT—Nice room in modern home, 316 North 6th St. Phone 82. 3042-911f

MODERN furnished rooms close in. 608 Norwood. Phone 1179-J. 3132-1001f

FOR RENT—Modern apartment, 215 N.

Broadway Love

by Thomas Edgefow

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

WHEN Fenimore Wilde, famous Broadway actor dies, his young and pretty daughter, Janet, obtains a job with John Montague, theatrical impresario, while her brother, Frank, an idler, goes South. Janet makes friends with Leonard Quigg, a temperamental musician who loves her, and a brilliant young surgeon, David Churchill, who is married. Her employer insults her and she resigns to accept the position of secretary to Dr. Churchill. During this time she had added to her list of friends Leonard's artist-uncle, Chester Quigg and his young daughter, Alice. One evening David Churchill admits he is in love with Janet and wants a divorce from his wife. Janet tells him she does not love him, and because of offensive comments about her made by his wife, she will not see him again. Chester Quigg asks Janet to live at the studio and help manage his mother, a domineering creature with strange illusions. At the same time, Janet's brother, Frank, arrives home, broke and in debt. Leonard Quigg gives Frank $1,000 to pay off the gambling debt but makes him promise not to tell Janet. She moves into the Quigg home and that evening her difficulties with old Mrs. Quigg begin. After dinner, the first successful meal since the arrival of Chester's mother, the doorman rings. A uniformed ambulance attendant stands at the door.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXIX.

"RING for an ambulance?" Janet re-echoed. Of course not!"

"Party by the name of Quigg!" the man insisted. "Telephoned and said an ambulance was needed at once."

"It was quite a mistake," Alice interrupted gravely. "Someone did phone for an ambulance, but it is not wanted now, and we are very sorry to have troubled you."

"What is it?" asked Janet puzzled. "Who telephoned for an ambulance?"

"Grandmother must have done it," Alice explained. "That's the fourth time. Whenever she feels neglected she phones for an ambulance. She ought to be in a sanitarium, but Daddy won't hear of it."

There was a sound of a cane tapping, and Mrs. Quigg came belligerently into the studio.

"Why did you telephone for an ambulance?" Janet asked mildly.

"To begin with, young woman," Mrs. Quigg retorted with tremendous dignity, "when you speak to me, kindly address me as 'Ma'am.' It's more fitting. And I did send for an ambulance to take that nasty dog of yours away. I know I am unloved and unwanted, but this is the first time that an ungrateful family has asked me to live in a kennel. Humble I may be, and long suffering, but this is a little too much."

Janet laughed. It was fortunate that she could, for although old Mrs. Quigg was in a way as amusing as a pet monkey, she was intensely trying on the nerves.

"I don't see how you are going to be happy with us," Alice said contritely. "I shall feel terrible if you aren't."

"Don't you worry about me," Janet reassured her, feeling that she really had a job that was going to exercise all her tact and ingenuity.

One cold evening in the middle of March, Janet was writing letters in her own room. Her telephone rang and she heard David Churchill's voice on the wire.

"I am so low that I just have to see you," he pleaded. "What was that you said, Janet, about a girl hiding from a man so that he built up an impossible image of her? You are probably far less attractive than I think you are—so can't you see me and destroy the illusion?"

But Janet was not to be beguiled by this.

"I know I talked like that," she admitted, "but it is not practical in your case. I had no idea that your wife would be jealous of me, and I am not going to stir up any matrimonial trouble."

"You can't," he said with bitter humor. "It's stirred up already."

"Why can't you forget me?" she reasoned with him. "It won't do you any good to see me, and I would think so much more of you if you would realize that your work is vastly more important to you than I am."

She got rid of him at last, and then began to blame herself. What a fool she had been, she accused herself, for not realizing that David had been attracted by her from the first.

But life at the studio was too hurried to permit introspection. Chester Quigg was in constant trouble, and it was second nature on Janet's part to try and straighten out his difficulties. He was always more anxious to give his day to something that amused him, than, for example, to get on with a portrait which bored him but which meant a big check.

At the end of March, Chester was engaged in painting the unlovely wife of a very rich stockbroker. It was a gorgeous morning, and Chester had made up his mind that he was going to sketch Janet.

"But you have an appointment with Mrs. Pettibone-Shrady at eleven," she reminded him.

"Telephone to her!" he bellowed. "Tell the woman I died last night, and my last request was that she would never get her face recorded on canvas. Ring her up and beg her to drown herself."

"The first of April is unpleasantly near," Janet said quietly.

"Some April fool business?" he asked.

"Rent and telephone, and a few other bills," Janet went on. "You asked me to take care of your check book, and you wouldn't do any work today if I let you know what your balance was. You have all the first-of-the-month expenses to meet, and no money at hand. The moment Mrs. Pettibone-Shrady's portrait is finished, you will get a check for three thousand—and then you talk about not getting on with it. You only have about another three sittings. Use some common sense."

So Mrs. Pettibone-Shrady was not requested to draw herself, and at the appointed hour she breezed into the studio and took up her accustomed pose.

"I want my son to sit to you," she rattled away. "John is always so busy, as he has recently become his father's partner, but I made him promise to run away from the tucker for an hour. He's coming here to take me to lunch, and then you can see him, Mr. Quigg."

Janet, who had overheard this, held her breath. She was afraid that Chester Quigg might refuse the commission, and his expenses were enormous. However, her lecture seemed to have penetrated, for he murmured something about it being very interesting.

Janet decided that Mr. John Pettibone-Shrady, when he arrived to take his mother to lunch, was far from being interesting. He was tall, and not bad looking, but he seemed extremely conscious of the fact that he was already a partner in his father's firm of stockbrokers, and that he was about to purchase a seat on the Exchange, and all this before he was twenty-seven!

On the other hand, Mr. John Pettibone-Shrady seemed to find the pretty girl whom he met in Chester Quigg's studio of more than usual interest, because he delayed his departure, pretending to be occupied in examining the nearly completed portrait of his mother.

"Would it be possible for me to sit to Mr. Quigg in the early morning, as I must be in Wall Street not later than five minutes to ten?" he asked Janet.

And before he left he had arranged to have his portrait done, the sittings to take place at half-past eight on stated mornings.

"That pompous young prig fell for you," Chester Quigg bellowed his laughter when they were alone. "You'll probably marry him and have an apartment on Park Avenue, and a pearl necklace, and everything. But see what I'll do to him on canvas!"

"I thought him a very harmless young man, and it isn't his fault he's rich," Janet smiled. "It is nice of you to let your imagination run away with you," she added, "but it is possible for me to meet a man without him falling in love with me, you know."

"I'm not so sure about that," Chester retorted. "It looks to me as if my nephew has a bad case. I don't see what any girl could see in Leonard Quigg! Nothing to him."

"He has rather a melodious speaking voice, and he rarely shouts," Janet suggested. "And for an artist and a Quigg, he is really quite sane!" She went slowly out of the studio, softly humming one of Leonard's melodies.

(To Be Continued.)

Bids Family Adieu

Here's a close-up of Commander Richard E. Byrd, taken in front of his Back Bay home in Boston when he arrived in the Hub city to bid farewell to his family. He leaves immediately for the Antarctic.

(International Newsreel)

LIVESTOCK, PRODUCE AND GRAIN MARKETS

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(By Department of Agriculture)—HOGS—Receipts, 12,000. Mostly steady to 10c higher; top $11.30. Butchers, medium to choice, 250-350 lbs., $10.15@11.25; 200-250 lbs., $10.25@11.30; 160-200 lbs., $10@11.30; 130-160 lbs., $9.25@10.75; packing sows, $9.25@10.25; pigs, medium to choice, 90-130 lbs., $8.75@10.

CATTLE—Receipts, 10,000. Calves, receipts, 3,000. Mostly steady on yearlings; top steers and yearlings $17.50. Slaughter classes: Steers, good and choice, 1300-1500 lbs., $14.25@17.50; 1100-1300 lbs., $14.25@17.50; 950-1100 lbs., $14.25@17.50; common and medium, 850 lbs. up, $9@14.25. Fed yearlings, good and choice, 750-950 lbs., $14.50@17.75. Heifers, good and choice, 850 lbs. down, $13.50@17; common and medium, $7@13.75.

Cows, good and choice, $9@11.75; common and medium, $7.50@9; low cutter and cutter, $6.10@7.50. Bulls, good and choice (beef), $9.50@10.75; cutter to medium, $7@9.50. Vealers (milk fed), good and choice, $15.50@16.75; medium, $13.50@15.50; cull and common, $8.50@13.50. Stocker and feeder steers, good and choice (all weights), $11.50@13.50; common and medium, $8.50@11.50.

SHEEP—Receipts, 25,000. Fat lambs slow, 10@25c lower; sheep steady. Lambs, good and choice (92 lbs. down), $12.35@13.60; medium, $11.25@12.35; cull and common, $7.50@11.25. Ewes, medium to choice (150 lbs. down), $4.25@6.75; cull and common, $1.75@5. Feeder lambs, good and choice, $12.25@13.35.

SOUTH ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK
South St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(By Department of Agriculture)—HOGS—Receipts, 11,000. Market mostly steady; bidding 25@50c lower; pigs steady to weak. 250-350 lbs., $9.85@10.50; 200-250 lbs., $10@10.50; 160-200 lbs., $10@10.50; 130-160 lbs., $9.50@10.25; 90-130 lbs., $9.50@10.50; packing sows, $9@9.50.

CATTLE—Receipts, 3,500. Market: Slow; vealers steady. Calves, receipts, 2,500. Bulk quotations: Grass stock steers, $10@12; grass stock cows, $7@8.50; low cutters and cutter cows, $5.75@6.50; vealers, $14.50; stock and feeder steers, $9.50@11.25.

SHEEP—Receipts, 10,000. Market: Mostly 50c lower on fat lambs; sheep steady. Quotations: Top fat lambs, $12.75; bulk fat lambs, $11.75@12.75; bulk cull lambs, $9.50; bulk fat ewes, $4@6.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET
BUTTER—Receipts, 4,176 tubs. Extras, 47c; extra firsts, 45½@46½c; seconds, 43½@44½c; standards, 41½@42½c.

EGGS—Receipts, 6,148 cases. Firsts, 30@33c; ordinaries, 27@29c; seconds, 23@26c.

CHEESE—Twins, 24c; Young Americas, 25c.

LIVE POULTRY—Receipts, 9 cars. Fowls, 18@23½c. Springs, 20@29c. Ducks, 18@23c. Geese, 22c. Turkeys, 25@30c. Roosters, 21c.

POTATOES—Arrivals 152 cars; on track 479; in transit 1,028. Wisconsin sacked Round Whites, 85@95c. Minnesota sacked Irish Cobbiers, 80@90c. Minnesota and North Dakota sacked Red River Ohio, 90c@91. South Dakota sacked Early Ohio, 85@90c. Idaho sacked Rurals, $1@1.10; sacked Russets, $1.50@1.65. Wisconsin sacked Bliss Triumphs, 75@90c.

ST. PAUL PRODUCE MARKET
BUTTER—Packing stock, 28@31c; butterfat, 52@53c; firsts, 44c; extras, 46c.

EGGS—No. 1, 31@32c; seconds, 25@26c.

LIVE POULTRY—Hens, 14@22c; broilers, 25c.

MINNEAPOLIS PRODUCE MARKET
BUTTER—Extras, 46c; firsts, 44c; seconds, 42c.

EGGS—Firsts, $9; seconds, $6.90.

MINNEAPOLIS CLOSING CASH PRICES
14 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.28¼@1.31¼; to arrive, $1.26¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.25¼@1.29¼. 13 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.20¼@1.24¼; to arrive, $1.20¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.16¼@1.22¼. 12 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.14¼@1.16¼; to arrive, $1.14¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.11¼@1.13¼. Grade of: No. 1 D. N., $1.09¼@1.11¼. Grade of: No. 1 Nor., $1.11¼@1.13¼; to arrive, $1.11¼. No. 2 Nor., $1.09¼@1.11¼.

CORN—No. 2 Yellow, 95@96c. No. 3 Yellow, 93@94c; to arrive, 85c. No. 4 Yellow, 91@92c. No. 5 Yellow, 88@90c. No. 3 Mixed, 85@87c. No. 4 Mixed, 83@84c. No. 5 Mixed, 81@82c.

OATS—No. 2 White, 41¼@43¼c. No. 3 White, 38¼@40¼c; to arrive, 38¼c. No. 4 White, 34¼@36¼c.

BARLEY—Choice to fancy, 64@66c; medium to good, 57@63c; lower grades, 54@57c.

RYE—No. 2, 98c@1.02; to arrive, 98c.

FLAXSEED—No. 1, $2.13¼@2.21¼; to arrive, $2.12¼@2.17¼.

ST. PAUL PRODUCE MARKET
BUTTER—Packing stock, 28@31c; butterfat, 52@53c; firsts, 44c; extras, 46c.

EGGS—No. 1, 31@32c; seconds, 25@26c.

LIVE POULTRY—Hens, 14@22c; broilers, 25c.

MINNEAPOLIS PRODUCE MARKET
BUTTER—Extras, 46c; firsts, 44c; seconds, 42c.

EGGS—Firsts, $9; seconds, $6.90.

MINNEAPOLIS CLOSING CASH PRICES
14 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.28¼@1.31¼; to arrive, $1.26¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.25¼@1.29¼. 13 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.20¼@1.24¼; to arrive, $1.20¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.16¼@1.22¼. 12 per cent protein: No. 1 D. N., $1.14¼@1.16¼; to arrive, $1.14¼. No. 2 D. N., $1.11¼@1.13¼. Grade of: No. 1 D. N., $1.09¼@1.11¼. Grade of: No. 1 Nor., $1.11¼@1.13¼; to arrive, $1.11¼. No. 2 Nor., $1.09¼@1.11¼.

CORN—No. 2 Yellow, 95@96c. No. 3 Yellow, 93@94c; to arrive, 85c. No. 4 Yellow, 91@92c. No. 5 Yellow, 88@90c. No. 3 Mixed, 85@87c. No. 4 Mixed, 83@84c. No. 5 Mixed, 81@82c.

OATS—No. 2 White, 41¼@43¼c. No. 3 White, 38¼@40¼c; to arrive, 38¼c. No. 4 White, 34¼@36¼c.

BARLEY—Choice to fancy, 64@66c; medium to good, 57@63c; lower grades, 54@57c.

RYE—No. 2, 98c@1.02; to arrive, 98c.

FLAXSEED—No. 1, $2.13¼@2.21¼; to arrive, $2.12¼@2.17¼.

H. B. SHERWOOD
WITHDRAWS FROM
CONTEST FOR JUDGE

St. Paul, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Elmer A. Kling, Little Falls, today was certified by the state as a nominee for judge in the seventh judicial district, following the death of Judge Claus J. Gunderson and the withdrawal of Harrison B. Sherwood, Long Prairie.

The four nominees now in the race for the two positions are Carroll Nye, Moorhead; Peter F. Schroeder, Detroit Lakes; Don M. Cameron and Kling, both of Little Falls.

NEED OF HELP—CALL 74

CITATION FOR HEARING ON PETITION TO SELL LAND

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, ss., in Probate Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of M. K. S. DeLent, Deceased.

The State of Minnesota to all persons interested in the sale of certain lands belonging to said decedent. The petition of A. D. Polk, representative of the above named decedent, being duly filed in this court representing that it is necessary and for the best interests of said estate and of all interested therein that certain lands of said decedent described therein be sold and praying that a license be to him granted to sell the same.

Now, Therefore, You and each of you are hereby cited and required to show cause, if any you have, before this court, at the Probate Court Rooms, in the Court House in the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing, State of Minnesota, on the 29th day of October, 1928, at ten o'clock A. M., why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Witness, the Judge of said court, and the seal of said court, this 3rd day of October, 1928.

(Probate Court Seal) L. B. KINDER, Judge of Probate Court.

A. D. POLK, Attorney.

Internal Health
by Nature's Own Methods

If you are sick inside you are sick all over. When the stomach fails to digest its food, you are standing at the threshold of a series of ailments that may end in a complete physical wreck.

Internal health means health throughout the body. Keep your stomach and other digestive organs clean and vigorous by giving them the natural stimulation of the roots, barks and herbs contained in Tanlac.

Tanlac is wonderful for indigestion and constipation—gas, pains, nausea, dizziness and headaches. It brings back lost appetite, helps you digest your food, and gain strength and weight.

Tanlac is as free from harmful drugs as the water you drink. It contains no mineral drugs; it is made of roots, barks and herbs, nature's own medicines for the sick. For over 10 years it has been recommended by druggists who have watched its marvelous results. The cost is less than 2 cents a dose. Get a bottle of Tanlac from your druggist and give it a thorough trial. Your money back if it doesn't help.

Tanlac
52 MILLION BOTTLES USED

An Amazing Success
Feen-a-mint
The Cheering LAXATIVE

Chew It Like Chewing Gum

A pleasure to use. Very efficient. Children love it. No taste but that of sweet mint. The most popular laxative because it's a "satisfier."

15c and 25c.

Dispatch Want Ads

Two cents per word for first insertion; one cent each issue thereafter

HELP WANTED

WANTED—Farm hands. See County Agent, court house. 3152-10213

WANTED—Waitress, Olympia Cafe. 3117-991f

WANTED—Experienced girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. H. P. Dunn, 323 North 3rd St. 3061-931f

GIRL with proper qualifications to take short practical training in our X-RAY, PHYSICAL, THERAPY and CLINICAL LABORATORIES qualifying for position as Doctor's Assistant or combination technician in the Hospital, Clinic or Laboratory, Professional Service, 200 Baker Arcade, Minneapolis, Minn. 3160-10213

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Green tomatoes. W. E. Paul, 109 Main. 3163-10313

FOR SALE—Round Oak heater, 728 4th Ave. N. E. 3159-10212

FOR SALE—Coles hot blast, 1020 Quince St. 3135-10113p

ROOMS for rent signs for sale at Dispatch. 2760-681f

FOR SALE—Two year old Guernsey bull, Lawrence Palmer, Star Rt. 3169-10313-4311p

FOR SALE—Cabbage and carrots. A. S. Lindberg. Phone 695-W. 3140-1011f

MARLIN pump gun, good as new, $19.50. Call 909 14th St. S. E. 3140-1011f

FOR SALE—Cabbage, carrots, squash. Phone 243-M. W. D. Allston, East Oak. 3136-10116

FOR SALE—1922 Dodge touring car, first class condition. Phone 19-W. 3164-10311-4311p

FOR SALE—Loom baby carriage cheap. Inquire at Economy Fruit Store. 3165-10311p

HOMES for sale, and rent. Attractive price and terms. Nettleton, 502 Laurel St. 3009-871f

FOR SALE—Cabbage, 2c lb. Peterson's, 1314 Mill Ave. N. E. Phone 456. 3113-9916eod

FOR SALE OR RENT—Seven room modern house on the North side, 223 North 3rd Street. 3127-1001f

FOR SALE—Light six Nash sedan, 1925 model, $475. Call 55-F-22 or write H. C. James, Cross Lake. 3166-10313

FOR SALE—Chiffonier, dressing table, rockers, tables, ice box, buffet. Prices very reasonable. 223 North 3rd street. 3162-1031f

FOR SALE—293 acre farm. Good buildings, very desirable terms. Inquire of Elmer Olson, agent. Citizens State bank, Brainerd. 3154-1021f

1928 Chevrolet Sedan, nearly new, fully equipped—Big Saving.

1925 Ford 4-Door, in perfect condition, good tires.

1927 Pontiac Landau Sedan, has had perfect care, new car guarantee.

1928 Pontiac 2-Door Sedan, just completely overhauled, a real buy.

1923 Studebaker Light Six Coupe, priced very low, Duco finish, A-1 shape.

1925 Jewett Coach, looks and runs like new.

Ford Panel Delivery and several Ford and Chevrolet Tourings.

Your old car as cash payment, balance of GMAC monthly payment plan.

BRAINERD SERVICE MOTOR CO. Oakland-Pontiac Dealers

508 Front Street Phone 333

3170-10313

FOR SALE—Small residence grocery in city. Clean stock and fixtures. Fine location. Opportunity for two. Phone 373-J. 3167-10312

YELLOW CAB SERVICE

We are now operating day and night. Make appointment for train calls early. Phone 389.

78126

GEO. D. PALMER

LICENSED AUCTIONEER

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Phone 363-J or 945-W

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—House, 307 S. 7th St. 3138-1011f

FOR RENT—3 unfurnished rooms. 219 N. 8th St. 3147-10113

FOR RENT—Garage, 722 S. 8th St. 3034-901f

FOR RENT—Four room flat, modern except heat, K. S. Bredenberg. 3142-1011f